The 1924 JAMBALAYA
Published by the Students of TULANE UNIVERSITY
New Orleans, La.
With this foreword we present our best efforts for the annual Tulane Jambalaya. It has been our earnest endeavor to achieve a representative annual, a strictly Tulane production, which is at the same time both unique and picturesque in character. We have introduced several noteworthy departures and have also designed the general scheme of the work with the purpose of furnishing as much of the atmosphere and charm of this lovable old campus and university as possible. The romantic pirate and buccaneer, his daring fantastic exploits, comprising the most colorful period in Louisiana history, has been selected as the decorative plan of this book, and an effort made to convey that loveliness and beauty of the Southern clime which permeates its very life. We deem it not too extravagant to hope that our efforts to please you will not go unrewarded, and that you will close this volume with an inspired memory of days past which may make the distant prospect of life much more pleasant to view. If you do this we hope for no more. Our utmost aspirations have been attained and heartily thank you for your consideration.

THIS VOLUME
OF THE

Jambalaya
By Way of Explanation

Due to several unfortunate and unforseen accidents, including the loss of practically all the copy of the book here assembled, the 1924 JAMBALAYA makes its appearance practically four months late and filled with a vast multitude of errors. For these and also anything else untoward in the book, the editors make humble apology.

When the loss of the above-mentioned copy was discovered school had already closed and in the heat of midsummer it was impossible to find anyone who could supply the missing information and as a consequence in certain places, especially in the Pharmacy section, there are painful gaps, which the editors regret but were unable to avoid.

To all those persons who assisted in any way in finally producing the JAMBALAYA, the editors make grateful acknowledgment.

CLASSES
SENIORS
MAI CEE ALEXANDER, B.A. . . . . . . . . . . . . . West, Miss.

She's a conscientious creature, her fidelity is rare;
She's always at our History class when we go there.
Y. W. C. A. (1, 2, 3, 4); Vice-President Tulane-Newcomb C. E. (3).

Marguerite is capable. Marguerite is quiet;
Marguerite is amiable, no one can deny it.

BETTY BETHEA, B. Des. . . . . . . . . . . . . Birmingham, Ala.
A O H

She dances, oh, so lightly, in a manner most entrancing;
Pavelma has retired in shame since Betty took to dancing.

NELLIE BRITTON, B.A. . . . . . . . . . . . . . New Orleans, La.
K A O

To any class of any kind she'd be an acquisition,

She's amiable to everyone—it's just her disposition!

Glee Club (1, 2); N. A. A. (1, 2, 3).

FLORENCE BROWN, B. DES. . . . . . . . . . New Orleans, La.

When you hear of artists of great renown,

I'm sure you'll hear of "Flonnie" Brown.

Mandolin-Guitar Club (1); Dramatic Club (1); Class Poet (1).
LEONA CAHN, B.A. . . . . . . . New Orleans, La.

*If in the outside world she fails to make a name,
   Her wonderful red hair is bound to bring her fame.*

Debating Council (2).

*On all the teams is jolly Olive,
   She's quite athletic, that you can believe.*

Dramatic Club (1); French Circle (1, 2, 3, 4); Vice-President (4); Glee Club (2, 3, 4); Newcomb Ball (2, 3); Basketball (2, 3, 4); Volley Ball (4); S. A. A. O. 2, 3, 4.

*She's tiny, French, and très petite;
   Oh, Lucille C. is very sweet.*

LOUISE CHURCH, B.A. . . . . . . New Orleans, La.

*Just take a look around and you'll find "Randy."

Glee Club (2); French Circle (2); Science Club (2, 4).

IRMA COUSINS, B.A. in Ed. . . . . . . New Orleans, La.

*Irma studies history and economics, too;
   In fact, she works as hard as a little girl can do.*
Betty Davis, B. Des. . . . . . . . . . . New Orleans, La.

X 2
Trip it lightly as you go, from the art school to and fro;
Skilled in art and dancing too; say, what more things can you do?

Senior Class
Newcomb College

Felice's clothes are stylish; she always looks "just right;"
But her very prettiest feature is her golden head so bright.
Annie Stuart Ellis, B. Des. . . . . . . . . . . . Atlanta, Ga.

AOII
She drags down prizes every day,
Oh, this fair artist has a "scary."
Glee Club (3); N. A. A. (3); Y. W. C. A. (3); Climbers (4).

Maud Ellis, B.A. in Ed. . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . Amite, La.

K A O
Maud is so athletic, she is merry, too,
Without her merry grin, what would old '24 do?

Alice Ferrata, B. A. . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . New Orleans, La.

Alice is as bright as her distinguished father,
Would you like that said of you? Well, rather!
Spanish Club (3); French Circle (1); Science Club (4).

Catherine Fitzpatrick, B. A. . . . . . . . . . . New Orleans, La.

Catherine studies so hard and so well,
That her marks are always something "swell."
Vice-President Latin Club (3).

Sarah Foster, B. A. in Ed. . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . Franklin, La.

Sarah Foster is a girl that is liked by all,
In fact, the total of her friends would fill a great big hall.
N. A. A. (2, 3, 4); Y. W. C. A. (1).

Ruth is a student of Math, so bright,
We all go to her to get answers right.
Glee Club (2, 4).

Grace Gebelin, B.A. . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . Garyville, La.

Grace, the history scholar; Grace, the giddy grind;
A brighter, lazier person would be difficult to find.
Spanish Club (2, 3); Latin Club (1, 2, 3); Science Club (2, 3); N. A. A. (1, 2, 3).

Ethelyn Gelek, B.A. in Ed. . . . . . . . . . Gretna, La.

I don’t know, but it has been said.
Ethelyn graduates only to wed.
Spanish Club (4); French Club (4); Science Club (4).

Merle Gesell, B.A. . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . New Orleans, La.

Merle, our debater, is tiny, ’tis true,
But she gets the decisions, and that’s more than we can do.
French Circle (1, 2, 3, 4); Debating Club (1, 2, 3, 4); N. A. A. (1, 2, 3, 4); Dramatic Club (1, 2, 3, 4); Debating Council (2, 3, 4); Winner of Interclass Debates (4); Winner Nixon Debate (3); Secretary Debating Council (3); President Debating Club (4).

Ethel Giles, B.A. . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . Adeline, La.
X 2

A bit of charming femininity is Ethel Giles;
She has a lot of knowledge—and feminine wiles.
House Council (3, 4); French Circle (1, 2, 3, 4); Latin Club (4).
Lucille Godelpher, B.A. . . . . . . . . . New Orleans, La.

I don't know much about her, but one thing's very true:
If you want to like somebody, she is the girl for you.
French Circle (1, 2, 3, 4); Secretary (4); Glee Club (1); Science
Club (3, 4); N. A. A. (1, 2, 3, 4); Newcomb Hall (4); Newcomb
Basketball (4); Field Day (5).

Arthemise Goertz, B.A. . . . . . . . . . New Orleans, La.
Φ Β Κ

Arthemise is capable, and she is very smart.
Why mention that now? She's been that from the start.

Club (3, 4); Balladano (3).

Winnie Gordon, B.A. in Ed. . . . . . . . . . Ocala, Fla.

Here's a student meek and mild,
She might be termed an angel child.

Dora Greenlaw, B.A. . . . . . . . . . . New Orleans, La.

Dora is respected, and adored, too,
For there's nothing in the world she can't do.

Florence Hayne, B.A. in Ed. . . . . . . . Boyce, La.

K A O

Florence is an artist, a costume designer;
Her own clothes show that none could be finer.

Shirley Heichelheim . . . . . . . Jennings, La.
(Withdrawn)

Zelda Huckins, B.Mus . . . . . . . New Orleans, La.

Piano is her study, her playing is divine,
And some day, in the halls of fame, her name will shine!
Elizabeth Kastler, B.A. . . . . . . . . New Orleans, La.
A 0 II

Elizabeth does all that she should,
In fact, I think she is very good.

A E F

Sylvia never her task does shirk;
I think she should do social welfare work.

Elizabeth Kell, B.A. in Ed. . . . . . . . Tallulah, La.
K K T

Bright, but lazy Elizabeth Kell,
Just can't wait for the sound of the bell.

X 0, A 2 2

Comedy's sweeping, Tragedy's sad, Dramatic Club is grieving,
What is the cause of it all, you ask? Why, Miriam's leaving.

LOUISE LACROIX, B.A. IN ED. . . . . . . Colfax, La.

Louise makes her clothes so pretty and so neat,
We'll say that her sewing is quite some feat.

MAY LANPHIER, B.DES. . . . . New Orleans, La.
Φ M

If you visit the art school and look around for May,
You'll find her working hard almost every day.
Newcomb Ball (2, 2, 1); Newcomb Basketball (1, 2, 3, 4); Varsity (1); Basketball (4); Glee Club (1, 2, 3); Y. W. C. A. (2, 3, 4); Cabinet (2, 3, 1); Dramatic Club (12); Student Council (13).

A more cheerful, joyous person, the world has never found
Than Lady Lester, she's good all 'round.

FLORA LEVY, B.A. IN ED. . . . . . . Lafayette, La.

Flora is conservative, she'll be so all her days,
For she's the sort of person that's set in all her ways.

(Not in Panel)
Here and there she makes a line,
And lo, she has a picture fine.

Senior Class
Newcomb College
Ruth McAleer, B.A. in Ed. . . . . . . . . Mobile, Ala.
A Δ II
Though she's been sick quite a while,
We're glad to see she's back with that wonderful smile.

Laura MacDonald, B.Des. . . . . . . . . New Orleans, La.
Laura worked so hard on the Jamb last fall,
It's a wonder to me she's here at all.
Jambalaya Staff (3); Latin Club (4); Science Club (4).

Ula Milner, B.Des. . . . . . . . . New Orleans, La.
Π Θ Φ, Α Σ Σ

"I have bought golden opinions from all sorts of people."

Tulane Band, '21-'22.

"The atrocious crime of being a young man!"

"Buster" is little but loud. He thinks fast and acts quickly. Nothing sluggish about him. He is always in the center of a jolly party. "Buster" is a mighty good student, and some day the Magnolia State will be proud of him.

"A proper man as one shall see in a summer's day,"
Class Secretary, '21, '22.

Brown has the distinction of not only passing his course with honors, but of having "worked" his way through school at the same time. He is the kind of a man that will succeed. Good luck, Brown.

EARL ZOLLICOFFER BROWNE . . . . . . . Kosciusko, Miss.
Φ Δ Ω, Α Ω Ω

"His life is gentle, and the elements
So mix'd in him, that Nature might stand up
And say to all the world, 'This is a man!'"

As his nickname implies, "Preacher" was a Presbyterian minister in Itta Bena, Miss., when he felt the call to become a medical missionary. He has been very successful in his work at Tulane, and has achieved the two honor fraternities. His good influence, while felt, was not oppressive, but rather his pleasant smile has cheered up many a gloomy day for us. "Preacher's" perseverance, high grade of intelligence and his desire to serve will make him a wonderful missionary. Though he goes to far-off China, we expect to hear great things from him.

"He could distinguish, and divide,
A hair, 'twixt south and south-west side,"

"Bob" is as fine a fellow as you'll meet. Clear cut and handsome. Many are the hearts that he has shattered. He numbers his friends by his acquaintances, and is equally prominent in social affairs, class activities and in scholastic ability. He is our class president and has served us well in this capacity.

Maurice Campagna  . . . . . . New Orleans, La.

"The world is a wheel, and everything will come Around all right."

Campagna is a local boy, ambitious and full of work. He puts out little effort and gains much. Maurice taught school once. We wonder what made him drift to medicine. He has done well, however, and soon Charity Hospital will have a prominent "Visiting Man."

George Alexander Campbell  . . . . . Kosciusko, Miss.

"Give me again my hollow tree,
A crust of bread, and liberty."

George came to us from "Ole Miss" two years ago and has been a consistent worker since his arrival here. He has made many friends at Tulane who wish him all the success in the world.

"We grant, although he had much wit,
He was very shy of using it."

Chamberlain is the kind of a fellow that likes very much to mind his own business, and do his work as best he can. He goes about in his unassuming way, gaining knowledge, making friends, and spreading cheerfulness about him. The "Razorback State" sent us a good boy when we got Warren.

John Leslie Carmichael, A.B.  . . . . . Alabama

Κ Φ, φ Β Κ, Α Ω Α

"I, thus neglecting worldly ends, all dedicated

Stars and Bars.

The quietest and yet one of the most popular men in our class, John is a "sure nuff" student, and very naturally made Stars and Bars and A, O, A, but we know he would, way back yonder in the freshman year. We are sure that his future will be a bright one.

"He knew what’s what, and that’s as high
As metaphysic wil can fly.”
Quo Vadis; Square and Compass; Stars and Bars; Owl Club; Class President, ’22, ’23.
A gentleman and a scholar! In the classroom or at "Kelh’s" it is all the same with "Al"—he is the shining light, a good time, lots of friends, and the two honorary fraternities were his natural lot. We can’t say too much in praise of "Al."

Hymen Leon Cohen, B.S. . . . . . . . Coahoma, Miss.

"Come one, come all! This rock shall fly
From its firm base as soon as I.”
Jambalaya Representative, ’21, ’22.
"Fatty" has been at Tulane so long that he is quite as much a fixture as "Alfred." Six long years of hard work has at last enabled him to realize his ambition, and now he is soon to be Dr. Cohen. If you don’t know "Fatty," you haven’t been to Tulane. If you don’t like him—you’re worse. Go to it, "Fatty."

"Be plain in dress, and sober in your diet;
In short, my dearie, kiss me and be quiet.”

"Gilly" likes the girls, but not for long. He used to send out quarts of "Hombigam," but not any more. "Gilly" is one of the best men in the class, all around, a good student and a good fellow. We all like him.
Pierre Armand Donaldson . . . . . . . Reserve, La.

A K K

"For mine own part, it was Greek to me."

Pierre says that he and Dr. Matas came from Reserve. Some town that, to give us each great men. Donaldson is a mighty nice fellow; not too good to be liked, not too bad to be a shirk—a regular fellow. Donaldson gets his matter without much effort. We are sure that time will bring out a Dr. Donaldson, loved and respected by everyone, as is the chief.

Stacy Allen Duncan, A.B. . . . . . . Dunn, N. C.

X Z X

"Wouldst wander to yon shady nook with me?"

Duncan joined us in our third year. He has been a bright spot in our lives. Never a frown, no matter how the ship rocked. Full of smiles. Always ready to crack a joke, and enjoy a hearty laugh. Not much theory about him, but what it takes to practice medicine he has plenty of. Keep up your cheerful mood, Duncan.

Otto Charles Egdorf, B.S. . . . . . . Sedalia, Mo.

K A, Φ Β Η

"A logical mind knows no error."

Otto is strictly business, and his business is medicine. However, he has had time to make many friends during his four years at Tulane. He is a man in every sense of the word, and we predict that he will go far in his profession.

Andres Roman Ferro . . . . . . . Havana, Cuba

"Along the cool sequestered vale of life,
He kept the 마음less tempo of his way."

Good work consistently has earned for Ferro the respect of both instructors and students. Well liked by all, he leaves carrying with him our sincere good wishes for his future success.

William Wilson Flowers . . . . . Dyersburg, Tenn.

Φ Β Η

"A dinner lubricates business."

"Bill" we all love him. If a good nature and many friends spell success, he will never fail. "Bill" is always around to lend a helping hand when necessary. He has gone through his four years at Tulane without a failure—an enviable record. We are sorry that he will leave us. We regret that he will not be with us longer. However, we have reached the "cross-road" and we must part. Good luck, Bill.
ATILIO FUNG FIGUEROA . . . . . . . Baranca, Peru

"Oh sleep! It is a gentle thing,
Beloved from pole to pole."

Fung, though handicapped by his English, has gotten by pretty well in his work. How he can sleep on the front row of the lecture room, is more than we can understand, but he does it. He hasn't filed a subject. And Peru might well be proud of Dr. Fung.

SYDNEY HERBERT GLASS . . . . . . . Mississippi

A K K

"And he is oft the wisest man,
Who is not wise at all."

Sidney has been in and out of school for many years, but at last is completing his medical course. He came to us two years ago from "The Miss," and ably represents that institution. His perseverance and ability in medicine will land him a prominent place in the medical world.

EDWARD GLAZER . . . . . . . . . Connecticut

"The power of Thought ... the magic of the Mind."

This studious looking gentleman from Connecticut attends so strictly to his own business that it has been difficult to learn much about him. However, in classes, his answers to questions show him to be an excellent student, and we wish him success.

WILLIAM JAMES GRABER . . . . . . Brenham, Texas

A K K

"In the spring a young man's fancy lightly turns
To thoughts of love."

"Willie" is always in a great humor and always on time for classes. Cases of "Pneumonemic Pleurisy" should always be referred to Dr. Graber, in after years. Graber indulges in tennis and a semiannual date, but aside from these indiscretions is a thoroughly capable man.

THOMAS QUINCY HARBOUR . . . . . . . Keene, Ala.

K Ψ, A Ω A

"A violet, by mossy stone,
Half hidden from the eye."

Stars and Bars.

"Tom" isn't a jelly-bean, he's just a hard working fellow whose bump of knowledge is most pronounced. He has been duly rewarded with the two honor fraternities, and we feel confident that he will be a great success in his chosen profession.

Senior Class

"Man is his own star, and that soul that can
Be honest is the only perfect man."
Square and Compass: Owl Club.
"Speck's" sunny smile is prominent on all occasions. With this accomplishment it is easy to see that he could not be a "woman-hater." Few men in the class are as popular as "Speck," and few men have as good a scholastic record. We know he will succeed in his profession, and we hope to meet him often in after years.

Walter Hobson Head, B.S. . . . . . . Birmingham, Ala.
H K A, X Z X
"Let's talk of graves, of worms, and epitaphs."
Quiet and persevering. This boy has now successfully reached the end of his medical course. His willingness to tackle hard work and his ability to do it, will make Head a place in the medical profession.

Perry Ellington Holliday . . . . . . Mississippi
Things don't bother "Ali" much—but who would be bothered with grades averaging around eighty-five? He likes a good time occasionally, but not often enough to interfere with his work. Everyone likes him, and his happy-go-lucky smile will be missed next year.

William Coghlan Holmes, B.S. . . . . . Foley, Ala.
"Where there's life, there's hope."
Holmes tried Alabama long enough to acquire a B.S., and two years medicine there. Then he came to Tulane to finish it up. Equally ready for a joke or for work, he has made many friends here at Tulane. May his life's work be as successful as it has been here at Tulane.

James Michael Houlan, A.B. . . . . Mt. Vernon, N. Y.
Σ N, Φ X
"Variety's the very spice of life,
That gives it all its flavor."
The boy from the Bowery! Taking life as it comes is "Happy's" idea of living. His perpetual smile and his Irish wit have endeared him to all of us during his years at Tulane. We are well satisfied to have "Happy" represent Tulane in New York.

K Φ, Φ X

"Dost thou love life? Then do not squander time.
For that is the stuff life is made of."

Owl Club.

"Hutch" is an industrious, hard working fellow. He just can't help loving a good time. But he does not believe in wasting time. He says life is too short. We know "Hutch" is all right. So go to it!

Earl Hyman, B.S . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . New Orleans, La.

Φ Δ Ε, Κ Φ

"Something between a hindrance and a help."

Earl is one of the local boys, and is proud of it. There is one thing we are sure of, that Hyman will not have his office hours before 11 a. m. It is amazing how Earl gets his stuff with so little effort. He is one of the best students in the class, however. We wish you luck, Earl.

Henry Jack Jensen . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . Walter, Okla.

Φ Ε Η

"When yet was ever found a mother
Who'd give her baby for another?"

"Hello, fellows!" This is the "Swede." One has to go beneath the surface to know Jensen. Superficially, he doesn't seem to take anything seriously; there is a humorous side in everything for him. But Jensen is a deep-thinking fellow and believes that his troubles are his own. He has seen more of this world than anyone in the class, from the coast of Maine to the coast of Spain. We all love "Swede," and wish him success a thousand fold.

Robert Hays Johnson . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . Hamilton, Ala.

Λ Φ Ε, Φ Ρ Σ

"Don't carry all your eggs in one basket."

"Johnny" hails from Alabama and says he is proud of it. He takes his work very seriously and has wasted little of his time here, as his grades will show. Here's luck to you. "Johnny."

And best student of the class."

Stars and Bars; Woman's Medical Society; Class Vice-President, '19, '20; Honor Committee, '20, '21.

Mrs. Jones entered medicine as Miss Scott, but soon decided that "communal bliss" was preferable to "single blessedness." We know that the combination of "Mrs. Jones and Jones" will be heard from in the medical world.
Miss Lian Kositza, A.B. California

"She is pretty to walk with,
And witty to talk with,
And pleasant, too, to think on."

Woman's Medical Society.

This fair lady from "Sunny California" came to us in the sophomore year, and has stuck through all the trials and tribulations that the medical course offers. We will miss her when she leaves us, and we can only wish her a happy and prosperous voyage on the "River of Life."

Edwin Hugh Lawson, B.S. Nashville, Ark.

Σ A E, Φ X

"Ask me no questions and I'll tell you no fibs."

Hugh came to us from Arkansas, but has successfully lived it down. He now wears shoes, smokes cigars, and is on the staff of Touro. The word glom isn't in his vocabulary. Hugh will be on the pathological staff of Touro next year, and in after years will, most likely, be a pathologist of great renown.

Class President, '19-'20; Class Vice-President, '20-'21; Wrestling, '19-'20; Track, '19-'20.

Julian is a member of Bel, Duval and Lombard, Inc. Despite that he is a good boy, a good student, and well liked by the class, some day Julian will be dean—we know it. Dr. Duval's right-hand man and, of course, Julian knows all of the doctors personally, especially the instructors. Julian has worked conscientiously in his medical course, and has done well. Touro will have a capable intern in Dr. Lombard next year. Here's success to you, Lombard.

"Flock and side go bare, go bare,
Both foot and hand go cold;
But, belly, God send thee good ale enough,
Whether it be new or old."

Square and Compass.

His dignified bearing belies the love of life in this young man. Lount believes that "all work and no play makes Jack a dull boy," and lives accordingly. He has been a success at Tulane and will be so in the years out of school.

Lester McGary, B.S. Norwalk, Miss.

Φ X

"He draweth out the thread of his verbosity
Finer than the staple of his argument."

Works hard. "Mac" is one of the serious boys of the class, however, he cracks a good one once in a while. All his time goes on his work. Has he succeeded? We'll say he has.
Daniel Roy McIntyre . . . . . . . . . . . Mississippi

"Mac" came to us from "ole Miss" two years ago, and has shown himself to be a capable man in his short stay here. We feel that he will always do his work as efficiently as he has done it here at Tulane.

Manly Mason . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . North Carolina

Tall and handsome, and just as studious as he is handsome. Mason is a very retiring sort of fellow, but is well liked by every one in the class. Tulane can be justly proud to turn out men like this.

Miss Jessie Mauney . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . Mississippi

"Here comes a lady, O so light of foot,
Will never wear out the everlasting flint."

Here's the kind of a girl medical student that boys like in the class. Quiet and capable, she has won the respect and friendship of us all. Her medical career will be a useful as well as a successful one, and we regret that her path must lead in a different direction from ours.

Edwin Albert Moers, B.A. . . . . . . . . . Houston, Texas

"If you want anything done right, do it yourself."

Moers has only been with us two years, but has won many friends in that time. He believes in standing up for his opinion, and does it ably. He is thorough in his work and will make good. Go to it, Moers, get Houston by the ears.

Aaron Moore . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . Connecticut

The Moore brothers came to us from Yale last year, and have shown themselves to be a credit to their Alma Mater. Keeping much to themselves, we know little about them, except of their high grade of classroom work. Of success we wish them Moore & Moore.

He has been very active in student affairs, and is one of the "ward bosses" for the "Old Regular Party." We are not predicting a bright future for him, because we are sure he will have one. Gosh! The "Sarge" is known far and wide for his prowess in the "Battle of San Jacinto": "Sarge" mixes his work and play, but so carefully does he mix them that there is a proper amount of each. With his personality and ability, he will make us all proud of him.

Saloman y Regalado Paredes, B.S. . . . . Trinidad, Honduras, C. A.

Having acquired his Bachelor's Degree at the National Institute of Honduras, Paredes came to the United States in search of medical knowledge. At Tulane, during the course of his work, he became a happy married man, and now he is "papa." Next year he goes back to Honduras, and our best wishes follow him.

Φ Α Θ, Φ Α E, Τ Ν E

"The people's prayer, the glad diviner's theme, The young girl's vision, her everlasting dream."

The pride of Texas is now before you! With a smile that radiates like a Colorado sunrise, Parsons has nonetheless broken many a heart. We wish to inform you that he is called "Preacher" because of his name. He's called "Ivy," too, but we won't tell you why. At least we wish we could. He can wrestle, he plays golf, and pours tea like a movie hero. "Preacher" likes the ladies occasionally, but only with the proper environment. In the classroom he is one of our best students, and his grades are well above the average. With his personality and knowledge of medicine, "Preacher" will be one of the best men Tulane has ever turned out, and his friends, the entire class, will be justly proud of him.
Henry Wynne Pearce . . . . . . . Orange, Texas
K Σ, Φ X

"Papa" Pearce, the pride of Kappa Sigma, the joy of Newcomb, and the Adonis of the class. Wynne has been in a good humor ever since we have known him, and this, added to an already wonderful personality, has won for him a host of friends here at Tulane. We believe he is going to be a real honest-to-goodness doctor and, a little later, when he becomes a famous pediatrician, we expect to hear of him as an authority on the subject.

Russel Clarke Pigford, B.S. . . . . . Mississippi

"Piggy" began to take life seriously after he came to Tulane, and is one of the hardest working men in the class. For the past year he has been a junior intern at "Hotel Dieu," and next year he goes to Touro. Few men in our class are more popular than "Piggy," and we regret that this is our last year together.

Nathan Hirsch Pulmer . . . . . . Louisiana

Charles Glen Poole . . . . . . North Carolina

Going along in his quiet, unassuming way, Poole has endeared himself to us all. His work here at Tulane has been excellent, and North Carolina will gain a competent physician when he begins his practice there.

Irving Nathaniel Rattner, B.S. . . . . New York, N. Y.

Rattner hails from New York, and though he has been with us only two years, you can always depend upon him to give a good account of himself. He is a real student and, with such a cheerful disposition, we predict a most successful career for Dr. Rattner.

JOSEPH RAOUl RICHARDSON . . . . . . . Mississippi

You can't keep a good man down, and "Richie" as he is known to most of us, is one of those rare personalities that you can't even get down, much less keep down. What he decides to do is usually done, and done well. As a student, "Richie" has a most enviable record, and we were always glad to have him in our quiz sections to stop the onslaught. In student activities his efforts have been untiring, and as editor of the medical section of the "Jambalaya," practically all of this section, except this unworthy article, is the result of "Richie's" toil. There are other things about him, too—several hunting trips, where he has been a real friend and buddy, for he is fond of all kinds of sports, and quite good in many.

HEBER C. RIKE . . . . . . . Dyersburg, Tenn.

"Shorty" has been with us all through our many trying years. In our academic days he was our leader and orator and, indeed, he filled both places nobly. Since our freshman year in medicine only two things have worried him—class histories and the weather—but "Shorty" has braved the storms, and we expect a great deal of our buddy from "Tenn."

MISS MAY CLARE ROBERTSON . . . . . . Mississippi

"He saw her charming, but he saw not half
The charms her downcast modesty concealed."

Another "de Miss" student. Miss Robertson came to us two years ago and brought with her a wholesome stock of good common sense and medical ability. We hear that she is going to Texas next year, and we hope that they appreciate her worth as we do.

WARREN LEUCHT ROSEN, B.S. . . . . . . New Orleans, La.

"What shall I do to be forever known,
And make the age to be mine own?"

Another of the "local boys," Warren is bound to succeed, because he has such high ideals. We can only hope that he realizes them. "Aim high" is his motto, even if you fall short you are still high up in the world. That's the spirit, Rosen; we admire you for it. You have our best wishes. Oh, boy! Listen to that harmony. Besides being a good student and reading the "Journal" every Monday morning, Warren is quite some musician. When it comes to courting—well, Warren has it on us three ways there.

WILLIAM KENT RUBLE, A.B. . . . . . . Wagner, Okla.

"Whatever skeptic could inquire for,
For every why he had wherefore."

Kent is the man of the hour—sportsman, orator, statesman, and student—known and liked by all. He is always busy and right up to the mark. We often wonder how he does so many things and so well. We wish you the best, Kent.

The only requisite for liking "Tommy" is making his acquaintance. He cares little for feminine society and social affairs in general, so devotes most of his time to his work. Occasionally, he imagines he is back on the plains of Texas, and shows a great desire to whoop 'em up a bit, but, as a rule, he is content to stay out of department stores and pursue a quiet unrumpled existence. When he finishes his year at Charity next year, "Tommy" will be one of the prominent physicians of the Lone Star State.

"A Corinthian, a lad of mettle, a good boy."
Owls; Square and Compass; Class President, '20-'21; Business Manager-in-Chief "Jambalaya," '21.

"Tummy" comes from Virginia, but he doesn't say "house" for "house." He has been most active in student affairs and has held most all of the offices in his classes. All kinds of sports interest "Tummy," particularly hunting, baseball, and golf. Lack of time has prevented him from showing his real ability at baseball, but at golf he has become quite an expert. "Tummy's" personality and willingness to help someone else make him easily the best known and best liked man in the class. We wish for him a brilliant future, and feel confident that our wish will be granted. May our paths cross often.

CARLOS Y FERNANDEZ URRUTIA . . . . . . . Texas

This handsome son of Spain comes from Texas. Carlos is following in the footsteps of his father, who is a celebrated physician in San Antonio, and we hope that he will profit much by the example set him. His work at Tulane has been excellent and we feel that his success is assured.

FRANK EARL WERKHEISER . . . . . . . Philadelphia, Miss.

Frank is another Mississippian and does his full part toward maintaining the excellent standards of that state at Tulane, both in a scholastic way and in the way of personal likeableness. Always prompt and attentive in his classes, Frank has won the respect of his instructors and classmates, and we feel that our confidence in his future success is well deserved.

Keith is young in appearance, but has an old head. He is one of the "old regulars" of our four-year bunch, having started with us in 1920. His wonderful mind, practical ability and social standing with the gentler sex, of course will ever be remembered. His success in the future is inevitable. "Yes, I am up, Gurvais, are you up?"

LAZARD LOUIS BAILEY . . . . . . . . New Orleans, La.

Assistant Business Manager "Jambalaya," 1922.

Now we have a man who has proven himself to be nothing but true blue. He was one of the boys who made the Kaiser hunt a hole. When he came back to the Crescent City from "over there," he waded into dentistry, his chosen profession, with his sleeves rolled up. Not different from the drive he made against the enemy, of course he will succeed. He never fails, But he gives juniors "Hail, Columbia."

JOHN EMIL BATTLE . . . . . . . . . Barcelona, Spain

Square and Compass,

Our good friend from Spain is the wizard. Old "J. E."
makes excellent marks under the professors, because they have to take so much for granted when he attempts to inform them of his learning. He is bound for Paris, so he says. Good-bye, boys, look out, mademoiselle! Best of luck, old boy, and the greatest of success.

SODUS ALEXANDER COLLINS . . . . . . . Winnfield, La.

Those who know Sodus freely predict that the world will beat a pathway to his office door, for he is possessed of those sterling qualities which make success a certainty. Sodus' popularity is shown by the honors he has acquired. He is what we term a "good fellow," and one with whom it has been a pleasure to associate this past four years. Our big friend only has lady patients.

EMILE ARTHUR DAVIDSON . . . . . . . New Orleans, La.

A man of few words and few actions, specializing in prize fights, rotten cigars, and women. He took up dentistry as a side line. As for his personal appearance, he could be readily mistaken for a demon or a judge, or, if seen at a prize fight, a red agitator. "Tassy" was the pride of the army and still has tales to tell of his experiences in the S. A. T. C. Although naturally slow, he is bound to arrive.

"Cajun" is a man versatile and talented—a globe-trotter, a student, a diplomat, and everything. He is small of body, but big of mind and, above all, thoroughly dependable. "Cajun," in the early part of last year, convinced himself that it is not good for a man to live alone; therefore he list him as a brother beneficent. On him who is justly entitled "Uncle Harry" will confer that lasting degree, "Success." Every night of prime fights he goes to Harry's house to study.

We are afraid our outstanding dental operator will not continue his splendid work as a dentist, as "Aunt Lou" has a good hold on him. "Uncle Ed." well known in Tulane as a man of high ideals, a natural leader, wonderful personality, and loved by all. Even his patients love "my doctor." He took the lead in the beginning and, after four years, is found still leading, but going stronger all the time. Birmingham, we are sure, will rejoice to see him come back again. It grieves us classmates to have to part from our good big-hearted "Uncle Ed."

NORMAN FERGUSON . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . Ellisville, Miss.
Ξ Ψ Φ
Class Secretary and Treasurer, '22-'23, '23-'24.
"Fergie" long since gave up the idea that "herpicide will save it," and accepts, with characteristic philosophy, the loss of his crowning glory. It is not often we meet a combination of dental student, poker player, and hallo' delight, and yet to hold certain ideals which characterize the man wherever he is. Although he devotes half his energy to answering telephone calls from the victims of his charms, he has enough left to enable him to overcome all the impediments in the way of a seeker after knowledge.

BENJAMIN MAJOR GENRY . . . . . . . . . . . New Orleans, La.
"B.M." synonym for "Old Reliable." Gentry is the Bolshevik of our class; his social delight seems to be in starting an argument. However, he is a conscientious worker and will do the profession justice. He will be a victim to the salesman of dental apparatus, as he answers all advertisements.

Metz is the gay Lothario of the class. Few are the feminine wishes he cannot gratify. He has a flow of words and a liquid smoothness that would have turned Cicero green with envy. Somewhere in the state of Louisiana is a town called DeRidder, waiting patiently for this brilliant and gifted young man to relieve its toothache. But what of the ladies, when he leaves?
George Dewey McAnally . . . . . . . . . Richmond, Va.

"Mac" has been a great influence among his associates, both in school and out, to do the right thing. His strong determination is characteristic of "Old Mac." His technique and operative will always bear inspection. He has been a credit to us, and will show those aristocrats back in Old Virginia our modern and well-established knowledge of dentistry. "Old Mac" cannot run at all without taking off those shoes, though.

No one in our class can boast of a greater number of friends than the big "Sheik." Quiet, unassuming, pleasant, good-natured, Martin is truly a prince. In the city wherein he chooses to reside, we feel doubly safe in saying that there will be one excellent dentist. God speed you, "Sheik," we feel proud to say we know you.

Otho Messer . . . . . . . . . . . . . . Sumrall, Miss.

Otho possesses that inherent quality of "dry Irish wit," and makes us happy when we are blue. From his knowledge, ability, and willingness he has helped us all. He is a friend indeed. We may well say of him:

"In the doctor we have a friend indeed,
We certainly predict that he will succeed,
His duties he manifests that he enjoys;
In life, for him, are but few decays;
And from the character of work that he has performed,
We may say that in dentistry he is well informed."

Sedgie Lamar Newsome . . . . . . . . . . . . Columbia, Miss.

Π Ω, Σ Π, Δ Π Σ

Sedgie, the boy from Columbia. His departure from New Orleans' bright lights will be accompanied with many regrets. Our little friend should be complimented on the efficiency of his "quill." Of course, he will be among the first to finish his practical work, being one of the shining stars of our class, both practically and theoretically. Just how they will keep him back is beyond us to prophesy.

Soligny Paul Oubre . . . . . . . . . . . . New Iberia, La.

S. P. Oubre. The "S." stands for Soligny. My, what a name! But, as the ancients say, "What is in a name?" Soligny is the hardest worker of the class, slow but sure, and we all take our hats off to the "doctor" who has worked so hard and loves his profession so dearly. Oubre, old pal, we are with you to the man.
EUGENE LUCIAN PAYSEE . . . . . . . . New Orleans, La.

A local boy, but a good boy. His previous experience in pharmacy has made a great deal of his work easy for him. Everyone knows Paysee as the dependable, consistent friend. This gentleman and scholar will have no trouble making good, although he has a competition in Davy, Bellience, and other local boys.

Now here’s to you, pal.

LEROY PINCHBACK . . . . . . . . Fullerton, Miss. Ξ Λ Ψ

"Pinch" was our vice-president of the student body last year. His knowledge, experience, and practical ability will make him a "tip-topper" in dentistry. He has a learning of frankness, and has made friends all the way through school.

Yes, he is married. His wonderful success in New Orleans may be the cause of his remaining here, although DeRidder is expecting the great come-back.

ELLiot SANuel PHILLIPS . . . . . . . New Orleans, La.

Elliot is one of the chosen people, as even a casual glance at his likeness shows. While Elliot is by nature a cheerful and easy-going gentleman, it is only necessary to mention bacteriology and pathology to see the clouds of wrath darken his brow. But, everything considered, "E. S." is pretty good for a home product.

VERGIL HARDIE REITZELL . . . . . . . Riverton, La. Ξ Λ Ψ

"Shine," which we recognize as V. H. Reitzell, hails from the municipality of Riverton, La. Lord knows where that is. "Shine" is the song bird of our class and a social bear. He is a "shining light" in our professional ranks, and we expect great things from him in the gas fields of Louisiana, gas being his greatest asset. The boys of the barnyard understand his brogue.

SELCYR BURDETTE ROBINSON . . . . . . . Lake Charles, La. Λ Σ Λ

Baseball Team, '23; Football, '23; Assistant Business Manager "Jambalaya," '22; Class Poet, '23.

In "Robby" true worth is exemplified, and it is all too seldom that we meet a man who shows such constant and zealous attention to duty. Robinson is a synonym for thoroughness. "Robby" brought an inevitable record with him from Nebraska, and will leave Tulane with another equally as good. "Robby"'s specialty is the care of children’s teeth, though he intends to live and die a bachelor?]. In other ways we find him a good friend and companion to everyone. He is an all-round man and one of our best.

"Tom" came to us in his sophomore year from Atlanta Southern. He is a typical son of Alabama, who could not resist the lure of the ladies of the Creole state. Personality plus his auburn hair knocks 'em dead. But "Tom" is not the type who cannot stand popularity. His record as a student is worthy of the best consideration.

FRED POOLE SETZLER . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . Crossett, Ark.

ζ Φ Φ, Σ Φ, Δ Γ Σ

Class Historian, '21; Class Basketball, '20, '21, '22; Fraternity Basketball, '21-'22; Fraternity Baseball, '21-'22.

When "Setz" returns to the "razorback" state with his modern ideas of dentistry, those good dentists will sit up and take notice. (Five dollars' reward to anyone who catches Fred working on anything but a sixteen or seventeen-year-old good-looking bopper.)

PENDLETON JEFF SLAUGHTER . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . Tuscaloosa, Ala.

Δ Φ Φ, Δ Γ Σ

Square and Compass; Vice-President Class, '22-'23; Honor Council, '20, '21, '22, '23, '24.

"Doctor P. J.," as everyone calls him, is the biggest "little man" of our class. In addition to a punch like Dempsey's, he is blessed with a congenial manner, a vigorous mind and, above all, a wonderful personality. The doctor is also a member of the Benedict Club. So, fair readers, "Still your hearts." "P. J.," through thick and thin, we are behind you. May your success in the future be the greatest. "Yes, that's right, Dr. Ben."

CHARLES LAMAR SMITH . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . Poplarville, Miss.

Student Council; President Law Student Body; Vice-President Y. M. C. A.; Managing Editor Hullabaloo; Sphinx; Olive and Blue; Glendy Burke; Interfraternity Council; Student Senate.

Albert John Pere . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . New Orleans, La.

Nathaniel Pope Phillips . . . . . . . . . . . . . . Torras, La.

Κ Α, Φ Δ Φ

From L. S. C. he's got a degree,
Now Tulane gives him an LL.B.,
So, like Alexander, of Macedon,
He's seeking more laurels to be won.
Claire Ernest Loeb Savoy ........... New Orleans, La.
A rakish roadster plus a Peggy Shop hat,
A Lucille gown trimmed with tulle,
Robbed hair, lipstick and all that,
Mrs. Savoy has come to school.
Jambalaya Representative (2); Secretary-Treasurer Class (3).

Daniel Steuer ......... New Orleans, La.
Our Captain and King is Steuer,
In size he is immense;
He goes to sleep in every class,
But mainly in Evidence.

Henry Farrar Stiles ......... New Orleans, La.
(Not in Panel)
B O H, K A F
Harry quotes from Williston,
He states what Minor said;
The reason's very obvious,
'Tis 'cause Harry is well read.
Sphinx; Business Manager Pickaninny.

Walter Carnot Vetsch ........... Fort Necessity, La.
President for a day, the honor was,
But then it couldn't last;
For further particulars we advise you to see
The grandfather of our class.
Square and Compass; Most Court; Glendy Burke.

Richard Brinker Williams ......... Colfax, La.
The dwarf that carried Heinrich's brew
Has here a consumer always true;
His dreams defy instructor's look,
His sleep outlasts the fabled brook.

The bell bell tolls the knell of parting hour,
While one more class of Partnership slowly ends;
But Wilson shakes his head with aspect dear,
"Contrary to Penneyer versus Neff," he still contends.
Class Vice-President (1); Glendy Burke; Most Court.

Abe Melville Wolfson ........... New Orleans, La.

As a clarinet player Mel is a whang,
He always enters after class is begun,
And opens and closes the door with a bang,
Thus disturbing Mr. Leiman.
University Band (2, 3, 4); Interclass Wrestling (1); Most Court (3, 4).

Senior Class
College of Law

"Bill"
Still so young he forgets his key when he goes out at night. But we believe he will grow up to be a big man in the business world.
Chairman Workroom Committee (1).

Chester M. Carre . . . . . . New Orleans, La.

A T Ω
"Chester"
Modest and quiet, quite reserved in all his actions. Fond of Texas and Tennessee, Chester has many friends, and we are sure of his success.
University of Illinois, ’28; Assistant Manager Cafe Brule (2); Class President (5); Glee Club (1); Interfraternity Basketball (3); Tulane Promotion Force (2); Commerce Academic Board (5).

Hooper P. Carter . . . . . New Orleans, La.

A T Ω
"Hooper"
A mischief-maker who turned serious, Hooper was a leader in all the devilment, but now in serious matters. With the help of alarm clocks his success is assured.
Class President (1); Vice-President (2); Thirteen Club; Olive and Blue; Vice-President (11).

II K Λ
"Lynn"
He grew up on a ranch in California, happy and friendly, and stayed that way. He is out to show Harvard and the world what a Tulane man can do.
White Elephants; Olive and Blue; Class Baseball (2); Vice-President College of Commerce (3); Sphinx; Pan-Hellenic Representative (1).

Joe A. Davenport, Jr. . . . . . Mer Rouge, La.

K Ξ
"Joe"
A heavy student of humanity, who never misses an evening class at Broadway. A Math shark of great repute. A friend who will be missed by many.
Class Secretary-Treasurer (1).
Jospeh C. Du Pont, Jr. . Houma, La.

A regular fellow, always happy. A heart-breaker who, like most men, has found the "only girl." We are awaiting the announcement. His many friends wish him success.

Class President (1), President Tulane Club; Captain Tulane Crew; Varsity Football (3); Thirteen Club; Pan-Hellenic Representative (4).

"Gus"

A good fellow and a hard worker. We expect to meet him again, possibly with St. Peter, taking up a collection for some worthy Commerce cause.

Workroom Committee (2); Square and Compass.

David M. Enslen . . . . Wetumpka, Ala.

"David"

The Music Master of the Commerce School. A man whose energy is divided between three things—Music, Commerce, and a commerce student of the fair sex. He will combine music and business, and we wish him success.

Tulane Band (1, 2, 3, 4).

(Miss) Florence B. Fowler . New Orleans, La.

"Flo"

The first girl to graduate from Commerce. Popular with everyone, as shown by the fact that she has always had a class office. We wish you success, Florence.

Secretary Architectural Society (1); Scientific and Professional Women's Club (1, 2, 3); Vice-President (3); Jambalaya Class Representative (3); Dramatic Club (3, 4); Vice-President Student Body (4).

Sigma Alpha Epsilon

"Louis"

The head of the Soviet government at Tulane, who will handle the future business of the Standard Oil in China. He undertakes everything whole-heartedly. Has a way with the ladies. We wish you success, Louis.

Pan-Hellenic Representative (1, 2); Secretary-Treasurer Commerce Student Body (2, 3); Humidifier (2, 3).
PAUL J. HOLSEN .......................... Allendale, III.
“Paul”
We don’t know what made Paul fond of China, but he is going into government service there. He is quiet and reserved, and we feel sure he will get along fine with the “Thinks.”

P. BARNEY HOPKINS ........................ Marion, La.
KA
“Hop”
A good student, a hard football player, and a true friend. Bound to make a success with that combination. We are glad to have known you, “Hop.”
Varsity Football (4).

HUGH B. KOHLMeyer ........................ New Orleans, La.
Z B T
“Hooey”
We wonder why “Hooey” always stops in St. Louis on his way to Chicago. We know he won’t make a salesman, but we feel sure of his success in other lines.
Jambalaya Class Representative (3); Secretary Tulane Club (3); President Tulane Club (4); Scrub Basketball (3); Interfraternity Basketball (2, 3, 4); Tennis (2, 3); Baseball (2); Student Senate (4); Pan-Hellenic Representative (4); Chairman “T” Day Committee (4).

W. RAPPELEYE LAWES ........................ New Orleans, La.
II K A
“Rap”
When we buy that “suburban” lot, we will deal with “Rap” Lawes and Father. That shows “Rap’s” attitude, and we are sure of his success.
Olive and Blue; Jambalaya Class Representative (2); Class Historian (2); Junior Prom Committee (3); Glee Club (3, 4).

HILLMAN W. MADISON ........................ Bastrop, La.
Σ Ν
“Wall”
Isn’t it enough to say that Broadway nearly became Madison boulevard? When his mind is not on “Bugs” in sunny Florida, he is planning the Madison National Bank.
Olive and Blue; Sphinx; Secretary-Treasurer Commerce Student Body (3); Jambalaya Class Representative (4); Pan-Hellenic Representative (4).
FRANK J. MATTHEW, JR. . . . . . . . . . . . . . New Orleans, La.
Σ Α Ε
"Frank"
Quiet and conservative and a hard worker, Frank made the best Jambalaya Tulane ever had. And we wish him as much success in business as he had with it.
University of Virginia (1, 2); Editor-in-Chief Jambalaya (4).

JOHN F. MCCLOSKEY . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . Johnstown, Pa.
Ο Τ Α
"Mac"
Statistician and law-maker. To "Mac" we are indebted for the Commerce Constitution. Now we understand why France made him a Legion of Honor man.
Secretary Commerce Student Body (2); President (3); President Honor Board (4).

THOMAS D. MINGLEDORFF . . . . . . . . . . . . Savannah, Ga.
"Dan"
A busy man, interested in investments. We expect to read where he has been taken in as a junior partner to J. P. Morgan in a few years.
Class Vice-President (1); Columbians.

MAGNUS M. MOODY . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . Poplarville, Miss.
Κ Σ

The Cheer Leaders

"Dickie" McConnell, together with the able assistance of Bennie Benson and Miss Ruth St. Martin of Newcomb, devoted untiring efforts throughout the season towards keeping the stands in one long yell, which did much toward keeping up the morale of the fighting Green Wave on the field.

With the graduation of McConnell, it seems apparent that Benson will lead Tulane's cheers next year. Miss St. Martin will again serve for Newcomb.
Andrews, Bierman, Shaughnessy, Reed, Killeen

The Coaching Staff

Under the excellent guidance of Coach Shaughnessy and his four assistants, the mighty Green Wave, the splashing Little Eileen, and the lowly Scourb, received the best possible coaching that Tulane could procure. Shaughnessy needs no introduction. Bierman, the coach's "right hand," was a star at Minnesota and a successful coach before coming to Tulane. Eddie Reed, All-Southern center, handled the freshmen, assisted by chalborne Andrews.
CAPTAIN "EVA" TALBOT
The 1923 Green Wave

No, Annabel, this is not a picture of the victorious American Army resting on top of Bunker Hill, but merely the Tulane Wave sojourning on Signal Mountain, during its invasion of Tennessee. Contrary to expectations, the week's absence was not a holiday period. Coach Shaughnessy had 'em working every day.
Review of the Season

With six victories, three defeats, and one tie game, the 1923 football team experienced a most successful season. Capably coached and well trained, they displayed wonderful fighting spirit and gave a fine account of themselves, even when in defeat.

The first game resulted in a decisive victory over Southwestern, and the Green Wave started off on the right foot.

Mississippi College came next, and, after leading the Greenbacks 3-0 at the half, finally were defeated by the Shaughnessys, 18-3.

Tulane next invaded the Lone Star State, where they met the Texas Longhorns and received a 33-0 drubbing.

Louisiana Polytech, from Rushton, then came down to New Orleans with the intention of beating Tulane, and they almost did, in a game replete with thrills.

Coach Shaughnessy then took his charges to Tennessee, where, on successive Saturdays, they met Vanderbilt and Tennessee. In a battle of blocked punts, the Commodores downed the Greenies, 17-0. Tennessee also won, 13-2.

The next opponent was Auburn, and Tulane left town for its third consecutive road game. In an exciting game the Greenies fought the Tiger of the Plains to a standstill, holding the score to a 6-6 tie.
Back home again to meet Ole Miss, L. S. U., and Washington University of St. Louis, in the order named. Ole Miss proved easy, and Tulane walked off with a 19-0 victory.

Then came the "Battle of the Century," with Tulane face to face with the Upstate Tiger—60 minutes of thrills, crowded with action, resulted in a 20-0 victory over Tulane's age-old and time-worn rivals.

On Turkey Day, Tulane played host to Washington U., and closed the season with a victory.

CAPTAIN HARRY TALBOT—The House of Talbot has long been represented on Tulane football teams, and from all indications the passing of Harry will not be the passing of the Talbots. Harry's "little" brother, Horace, is slated to come up from the freshmen next season, and if Horace is anything like Harry, then we have no fear for the future of the Talbots in football. Captain "Little Eva" was handicapped throughout the season with a bad leg, but he rounded to form at the close of the season like a true veteran, and played the game of his life against the Tigers.

EUGENE BERGERET—Gene is the sort of fellow who responds just when one thinks that he is ready to blow. Last season he came through in the pinches admirably and played one of the best games on the line. Just a smooth, easy going sort of fellow, Gene is a veritable fighting tiger when aroused in a game. He is one of the fellows who truly has worked his way from obscurity to one of the brightest spots in the firmament. Gene has another season with us also, if he cares to return to school.

BILL BESSELMAN—Coach Shaughnessy was not forced to look around very much to find a worthy man to fill the center's position when Eddie Reed graduated. Bill has filled the position well. He was handicapped by going into the hole left vacant by one of the greatest pivot men in the South. Bill set about his task with a determination that was to bring great success. Bill will return next season and we look for an even greater center than finished the year.
CAPTAIN-ELECT ALFRED BROWN—"Brother" Brown has now become famous throughout the South. The name of Brown, like the name of Talbot, has long been synonymous with Tulane's football teams. "Brother" upheld the brilliant record set by his brother, "Benny," and perhaps added even more laurel wreaths to the old name of Brown. It is said that there is a great contest on between the Browns, Smiths and Jones as to which name will reach the million mark first. If fame means anything, "Brother" will certainly do his share. His game last season was the most outstanding of the entire team, and the pigskin chasers certainly made no mistake when they elected Alfred to lead them next season. He will round out his fourth year with Tulane, and they indeed were four years well spent on the gridiron.

JUNIOR HENICAN—"Lily-of-the-Valley" did not allow a broken ankle his first year out to discourage him in football. He came back this season and had the distinction of being credited with the most football sense on the field. Coach Shaughnessy felt such confidence in Junior that he allowed him to run the team at times, and once had him calling signals when he had never called a signal before in his life. "Bugs" will be back again and we look for a great year from him.

SELMER ROBINSON—While not pulling teeth at his clinic, Selzer was pulling down would-be ground gainers on the opposition. Selzer played both in the backfield and the line, and played a consistent game at both positions. It is a source of regret that Selzer will not be back with us next season. We will certainly regret him.
Lester Lautenschlaeger—Here is the little big noise of the team. Lester was set back during his first year in school with a broken leg, but he showed the stuff that he was made of by coming round like a real honest-to-goodness hero, and during his first year as quarterback was given honorable mention by Walter Camp on his All-American team. Lester is one of the hardest driving quarterbacks in this part of the woods. He is a real little field general, and much of Tulane’s success during the past season has been due to the efforts of Lester.

Howard Roehl—Besides being the largest man on the team, “Brute” was one of the hardest fighters. Howard took extreme pleasure in bumping off the biggest man. The referee caught Howard trying to take a real big bird at Knoxville, and both Howard and his friend were relieved of further playing responsibilities.

Ellis Henican—Just when you least expect it, this great equestrian football player is liable to pull it. “Red” Rountree, of Vanderbilt, did not expect Ellis to take the ball away from him in midfield, nor did anybody expect him to run from behind his own goal and save a touchdown on a fumble. As a matter of fact, Coach Shaughnessy did not expect Ellis to go out horseback riding on Signal Mountain, nor did Ellis expect to be introduced to the terra cotta. But the unexpected in Ellis’ life is his chief pleasure. He recovered a fumble in the L. S. U. game and scored the touchdown that took all the life out of the scared Bengal. Ellis also will have two years with us.

Fred Hoffman—Freddie came to the varsity with a reputation of being one of the best independent players in New Orleans, and when he left he had added more color to the reputation. Freddie was one of the best all-round men on the entire squad. He played at fullback and end and played both positions well. Freddie has two more seasons on the squad, if he cares to return to it. It is said that he is going after rolling pills instead of footballs. Besides being a really good football player, Freddie was the leading baseball pitcher of the Southern Conference.
Priestley Flournoy—Here is the Adonis of the football team. Built of perfect proportions, Priestley has long been the center of many glances of admiration from the fair sex. However, instead of devoting his time to the ladies fair, he gives everything to athletics, and is undoubtedly one of the outstanding athletes at Tulane today. His punting in football won high praise from sport writers over the South. With two years more on the varsity, he is certain to develop into one of the greatest stars ever at Tulane.

George Tunstall—Bay Minette claims George as one of its most illustrious sons, and George has done everything in his power to establish his home town as one of the leading cities of the Southland. George never saw a football before he came to Tulane, but by last season he was looked upon as one of the hardest plugging warhorses on the entire squad.

Frank Phillips—"Hank" is Freddie Lamprechtl's side-kick, though we do not hold that against him. Phillips has spread from one side of the line to the other, and has even had a fling at the pivot position. If there were just a few more men of the type of Phillips, Tulane would soon be in the Southern championship berth. "Hank" has another year with us, and we are expecting great things from him and are taking his word for it. At Coach Shaughnessy's football party, "Hank" declared that next year would be his year, and we believe him.

Barney Hopkins—Here is another product of hard work. "Hoppy" brought attention one day in scrimmage when he was smashing through and nailing the varsity players at will. Coach Shaughnessy immediately brought him around to the top squad and he remained there the rest of the season, and finally ended up by making his letter.
Fred Lamprecht—Besides being the Louisiana State and Gulf States golf champion, Freddie is one of the most versatile footballers on the squad. He has played everything from water-boy to star fullback. “Limber” won his fame at Auburn two years ago when he tore the famous Plainsmen’s line to shreds, and has lived up to the reputation ever since. Freddie, besides worrying about getting a letter every day, will have another season to put in at Tulane, and, judging from the past, he should be a real hummer in the future.

Virgil Robinson—Virgil, the boy of the smile and few words, played one of the guards on the team, and he played it well. Virgil was on the squad a number of years ago, but he left school. He heard the call of the wild, though, and returned this season and brought his big brother along with him. Both the Robinson boys are as conscientious players as ever played for Tulane. Virgil has two more years with us.

Benny Goldsmith—Benny is one of the finds of the season. He went out on the field unheralded, but by the close of the year he was looked upon as one of the most consistent and fastest linemen on the entire squad. Benny is very adept and will be in there fighting again next season, between operations down at the clinic. Benny is said to be a direct descendant of the illustrious Oliver, and for that reason indulges in writing to a great extent—no, not books.

Milton Levy—Every team has its merry-maker, and the Tulane football team was no exception. Milton could honestly see a joke in L. S. U. beating Tulane. His witty remarks and good natured smile kept the team in high spirits all the time, and especially when he espoused the cause of his native Ireland. So insistent was Milton during the year on the freedom of Ireland that he has been dubbed “Irish” by his teammates. It is a source of satisfaction to realize that “Irish” has two more years on the squad. If there is a fellow who can rush Milton off his feet, we have failed to see him.
Freshman Football

The freshman football team of 1923 was out for an early start under Coaches Reed and Andrews, determined to outdo the freshman team of 1922, the first one turned out in the history of the university. Although there were but a few experienced men out for the squad, they soon developed into an aggressive and scrappy machine, as their record of one victory, three ties, and no defeats indicates.

The first game was with the “Rockahawks” of the Bay City, which, despite, the freshies’ inexperience, ended with a 6-6 score.

The second game was the freshies’ best offensive game of the year, defeating the State Normal team 21-0.

The hardest game of the season was at Poplarville, with the Poplarville Aggies, which came near terminating in a defeat for the frosh. But their fighting spirit once more earned them a tie. The score was 7-7.

The final game of the year was with the “Baby Tigers,” which, despite the hardest efforts of both teams to score, ended in a 0-0 tie.

As to whether the freshman season was a success will be decided next fall, when Coach Shaughnessy calls upon the freshies to fill the gaps vacant on the varsity.
1924 Basketball Review

O say that Tulane's 1924 basketball team had a very successful season would be hardly expressing the glory and reputation that this season's quintette heaped on the Alma Mater. The Tulane cagers, led this year by Captain Pratt Martin, went through the whole season and suffered but one defeat. It was not until at the termination of this official season that the Greenies were beaten. This unfortunate happening took place at the annual Southern Intercollegiate Conference meet, held in Atlanta, Ga., on February 29 and March 1, 3 and 4. The Greenies were beaten by the powerful Mississippi A. and M. team to the tune of 38 to 30. It was a game in which the real science and strategy of basketball had but little to do with the outcome, but where uncommon luck at long shots spelled defeat for the well-oiled Olive and Blue machine. In the qualifying game for the second round of the tournament, the Greenies romped unmercifully over the University of South Carolina, scoring a 60-23 victory over the Carolinians.

Perhaps what Tulane points to with most pride in its cage team of the past season is the fact that, for the second time straight, Tulane made a clean sweep of the four-game series with L. S. U. To beat the Tigers in the annual basketball season has always been the sign of a successful season, and the Martin cagers did this to the following scores:

<thead>
<tr>
<th>Tulane</th>
<th>L. S. U.</th>

For the whole season Tulane played twenty-three games, winning all but the ill-fated twenty-third. This is a record to be proud of by any team of goal shooters. In individual scoring the team was led by Captain Ellis Henican, Eddie Morgan, Junior Henican, Eddie Davidson, and Hooks Lind, followed in the order written. An amusing light was cast on nearly all of the basketball games played at home, when Coach Simons would send in his second team, led by Peggy Flournoy and Lester Lautenschlager. This pair, with Wittenberg, Odum and Heiman, earned the well-applied appellation of "The Wrecking Crew." At the end of the season, when the final count came, Lester had a slight edge over Peggy in fouls called.

1924 Basketball Players

Pratt Martin, Captain

One of the hardest workers on the squad is the real veteran, having made his letter four successive years in basketball. Martin proved his ability as captain when he led his team in point scoring and piloted it through the most successful season in the history of the institution.

J. Henican

Junior proved that it is possible for a football player to be a good basketball player. He is the most graceful man on the Tulane team, besides being one of the most aggressive men ever to wear a Tulane uniform.

E. Morgan

Eddie, who hails from Kenner, and is better known as "Sheik," was the real find of the season. Eddie transformed from a mediocre player of last season into a real star. He is an excellent pivot man.

Carl Lind

The elongated blond, better known as "Hooks," has proven his worth as a basketball player more than once, and if he lives up to present predictions will be honored by an All-Southern next year.

E. Henican

The youngest man on the squad has time and time again baffled the opponents by his scintillating speed in dribbling the ball. It is a pleasure to know that Ellis has two more years to play for Tulane. A great future is predicted for him.
1924 Basketball Players

EDDIE DAVIDSON

Although Eddie has played basketball for several seasons, this will be the first time he has made his letter at Tulane. Eddie is always there with a smile, willing and ready to work.

DOUGLAS O'KELLEY

The most collegiate man on the squad, but whose dressing in no way hinders him from playing a consistent game of basketball, "Doug" has proven his value all season. However, his accomplishment at Atlanta "capped" the climax.

SANFORD ROY

Is the smallest man to ever don a Tulane uniform and his stature has won for him the very appropriate name of "Skeeter." Although "Skeeter" was hard pressed with his medical work, he managed to sacrifice sufficient time to aid Tulane in establishing the wonderful record she did.

"CUTIE" RIVES, Manager

When one hears a voice say, "What ho, men!" you know that "Cutie" is around, anxious to do something for the team's welfare. "Cutie" is the ladies' man of the team and is often found reposing on the Newcomb campus.

MONK SIMONS

To Coach Simons goes most of the credit for Tulane's wonderful season. "Monk" always kept his charges in condition, and not once during the whole season was a man absent due to sickness. We feel sure that "Monk" will win the championship next year.
1923 Tennis

Tulane's tennis season of 1923 was a great success from every angle. The team, ably captained and managed by Dan Murray, fought its way through three intercollegiate matches and ended the season with the singles championship of the Southern Intercollegiate Conference.

The local tournament was begun April 4th, on the university courts. Thirty-two men competed for the cups and the local championships, and the finalists were Dan K. Murray and Ellis Henican, with Murray the victor.

The matches with the University of Alabama were played April 13 and 14, at the New Orleans Lawn Tennis Club courts, and Tulane easily emerged the victor. Murray and Barrett defeated the Alabama doubles team 5-7, 6-4, 6-3, 6-2; Marks and Saunders lost, 5-7, 5-7. In singles Saunders was defeated 6-1, 6-4. Marks won his match 6-3, 6-4; Barrett beat his opponent 6-2, 6-2, while Murray defeated his 10-8, 6-4.

The second meet of the year, with Mississippi A. and M., was held April 15th. Barrett and Murray won the doubles match; Murray won his singles 6-1, 6-4, 6-2.

Barrett and Murray again represented Tulane at the S. I. C. meet in Atlanta. The doubles team was eliminated after a hard fight. Murray won the championship title when he defeated Jernigen of North Carolina in straight sets, 6-2, 6-0, 6-4.

The Tulane team was composed of Dan Murray, captain and manager; Bill Barrett, Garvin Saunders, and Sidney Marks.
1923 Baseball

In the spring of 1923, Tulane presented the first baseball team since 1920. During the three-year period there was no semblance of a baseball squad in evidence at all on the campus, except in the annual interfraternity baseball series. However, last year the Tulane Athletic Association obtained the services of Bruce Hays, a well-known baseball coach, to bring back the national pastime at Tulane. This Coach Hays did; and, although the team turned out was not a championship nine, it reflected considerable credit on the university. Had not Coach Hays been compelled to pick his squad from a great number of inexperienced men, there remains no doubt that the Olive and Blue would have stood high in Southern intercollegiate baseball circles.

In the beginning of the season, after the squad had been chosen, the team elected Carl "Hooks" Lind to the captainship. With a leader chosen, the team began work. The season started with a bang when the Greenies trounced the powerful St. Stanislaus team to the tune of 5-0. Then followed two defeats to the nationally famous Illinois team. Springhill then managed to slip over a fluke victory when in the ninth inning rally the Hillians came back and won the game 9-8. The following two games with Alabama ended victoriously for the "Thin Red Line." It was just at this point that "Dutch" Hoffman, the star Tulane twirler, became ill and forced the greater part of the pitching burden on the shoulders of "Less" Lautenschlaeger. After the Bama games came the first two-game series with L. S. U. It was in the second game of this series that Tulane broke her losing streak by beating the Tigers 6-3. Then followed a series with Springhill, in which the Greenies broke even. The season ended with the final meeting with L. S. U. The Tigers won the first game, while the second contest resulted in a 6-6 tie.

At the banquet tendered the squad at the close of the year, the choice for captain of the 1924 squad was presented to Ed Morgan.

The following men were awarded letters: Lind, Morgan, Baughman, Robinson, Hoffman, Lautenschlaeger, Williams, Dutour, Martin, Houtchins, Reed, and Manager Wiggins.

Track

For the first time in several years Tulane put out, in 1924, a representative track team, under the able direction of Coach Bernie Bierman.

The Greenie spikemen started the season with a victory over the University of Alabama.

Journeying up to Baton Rouge, the Greenies suffered a defeat at the hands of L. S. U.

Auburn next came to the home stadium and eked out a 61½-50½ victory of Bierman's men.

Tulane's next and last dual meet, with "Ole Miss," resulted in a victory for the Green Wave.

The following men made their letter in track this season: Brown, Cobb, Davidson, Duren, Hay, Roy, DeGorno, Phillips, Lind.

Sitting: Cobb, Duren, Baldwin, Davidson, Roy, Rogers.
Golf, 1924

For the first time in Tulane's history a golf team was turned out at the institution. By an elimination tournament process, a foursome was selected to represent the University at Atlanta, and the following men were chosen: Fred Lämprech, Junior Henican, Hough Kohlmeyer, and Irving Weil.

With the single exception of Lamprecht the Tulane representatives all fell by the roadside. "Limber," however, entered the finals for the second straight year and was nosed out of the championship by Cranshaw, of Alabama.

Wrestling

Wrestling, in 1924, witnessed a great year at the University. The Tulane grapplers, ably led by Captain H. Barkley, gained second place in the Southern Olympic tryouts.

Captain, who won the 145-pound championship, journeyed to New York city for the Olympic finals, but was defeated.
Newcomb Basketball

For the fourth time in their career the Seniors won Newcomb basketball. Again they played off finals with the Juniors and only after a hard fought game were able to claim the right to hang their banner in the place of honor.

The line-ups were:

Seniors—Ellis, Sonneman, Ross, Lanphier, Lester, Carriere, Livaudais.
Juniors—Adams, Scharff, Bass, Collins, Gates.
Sophomores—Cornelson, Lester, Lewis, Hardesty, Cherbonnier, Moog, Bayle.
Freshmen—Carre, Moise, Heaslip, Root, Parker, Hands, Beer.
Volley Ball

Finals were played off by the Juniors and Seniors in a very close and exciting game. The first half called out every bit of energy on the part of both teams. The Seniors, laboring under the handicap of the absence of one of their stars, played their usual good game, and were in the lead at the end of the first half. The Juniors ran up the score in the second half against splendid opposition and with many brilliant plays won the game.

The line-ups were:

Seniors—Talmage, Blain, Story, Hain, Lester, Davis, Kastler, Hall, Brickell.
Juniors—Wise, Davis, St. Martin, Reeves, Moore, Keesler, Harris.
Sophomores—Simmons, Talmage, Meyer, Pollack, Cornelson, Montgomery, Mars.
Freshmen—Carre, Renaud, Thompson, Pateen, Kaufman, Laporte, Mulqueen, Osborne, Wolt.
Spaulding Basketball

Spaulding arouses, perhaps, the most interest of all Newcomb's athletics. This season the finals were played by the Juniors and Seniors, and after the most thrilling game of the season, during which several of the stars fainted, the score resulted in a tie. In playing off the tie the audience went through equally as many thrills, for never have Priestley and Sonneman and Christenberry played a better game. When time was called on the last quarter the score stood 28-27 in favor of the Seniors.

The line-ups were:

Seniors—Ellis, Talmage, Ross, Sonneman, Priestley, Lanphier, Kastler.
Juniors—Adams, St. Martin, Christenberry, Cartlege, Gates.
Sophomores—Talmage, Fentress, Eskrigge, Bisso, Cornelson, Meyers.
Newcomb Ball

The Newcomb athletic season opened with the Newcomb ball contests, the Sophomores playing the Seniors and the Freshmen playing the Juniors, according to custom. The Seniors won in the finals, for the first time in their college career, for the Class of 1923 had been victors for several years. Immediately after the game the Seniors rushed to the gym to put their banner in the coveted place of honor where the champion’s banner hangs. Thus started the 1923-1924 season.

The line-ups on the various teams were as follows:

Seniors—Livaudais, Kraft, Lanphier, Sonneman, Ujjéy, Dixon, Ross, Godelpher, Hartson, Milner, Waters.

Sophomores—Bayle, Bisse, Fentress, Gotten, Lewis, Lobrano, Myers, Robin, Santord, Cherbonnier.

Varsity Newcomb Basketball

The personnel of the alumnae team made the varsity-alumnae game exciting and uncertain throughout, for some of 1923's best players were on the team. The victory of the varsity proves that even a good alumnae team is no match for our Bronze and Blue.

The line-ups were:

Varsity—Ellis, Ross, Sonneman, Adams, Scharff, Lester, Pugh.

Alumnae—Schuler, Sherman, Dreyfous, Debuys, Kastler, Odenheimer, Stratton.
The varsity again won against the alumnæ in a memorable hockey game. Although the struggled bravely, and time and time again turned the opponent's ball from the goal, the varsity scored a big victory.

The line-ups were:

Varsity—Sonneman, Ross, Harris, Christenberry, Gates, Fitzpatrick, Schreiber, Scharff, Desporte, Reeves, Story.

Alumnae—Schuler, Sherman, Dreyfous, Debuys, Odenheimer, Aldrich, Moses, Callinlar, Craig, Odenheimer.
Newcomb Swimming Pool

On May 5, at 4:30 o'clock, there occurred the formal opening of Newcomb's newest and best recreational feature. Under the direction of Miss Hay every girl in Newcomb is to learn how to swim. Life guards are provided for every moment the pool will be in use, and all standard swimming tests will be given. Among the life guards are Eleanor Garrard, the Southern champion; Pat Thompson, Rose Cornelson, and Wirth Dinwiddie.

Baseball

The Juniors have won the baseball championship, after defeating the Freshmen and the Seniors. Never has a better balanced and organized baseball team been assembled on Newcomb campus. Especially has the work of Janice Scharff and Sara Rives stood out. They are good varsity material. The varsity-faculty game will be played as soon as varsity is chosen. It is hoped that the team can win, even against the handicap of Mr. Maxwell's long legs.

Rho Phi

New Orleans. Founded 1924. Tulane.

This fraternity, the mental foetus of a group of serious-minded students, was born overnight, the inevitable result of certain common ties which bound them together.

Rho Phi elects each year those students who by their efforts have carved for themselves a niche in Tulane's hall of fame. Also it rewards with membership figures of national and facultorial import.

Kappa Delta Phi is an honorary fraternity for the promotion of Tulane spirit. It selects each year from the Junior and Senior classes men who have been conspicuous for school spirit during their university careers. It seeks to obtain its object in two ways: First, by holding forth membership as a reward to those who have done more than the average man for their university; and, secondly, by binding together those who have made unusual effort, thus becoming a force for great good by securing unity of action.
Alpha Sigma Sigma

Alpha Sigma Sigma is a senior society organized to promote college spirit and fellowship. Election is based upon past work for college and class, a certain scholarship being the prerequisite. This society is at present petitioning Mortar Board, national senior honorary society.

Debating, 1924

As each year passes debating is assuming more and more of an important position at Tulane and is gradually climbing to the position it held when Tulane debated universities of the calibre of Penn State and Harvard.

The season of 1924 was a most successful one from every debating standpoint.

Tulane engaged in two triangular debates, one with North Carolina and Sewanee, and the other with Texas and Vanderbilt. Of these debates Tulane won two and lost two.

J. Hamilton Basso and Leon Cahn completely submerged the representatives of Vanderbilt and came home bearing a unanimous victory over the Nashville school.

At home Edmund Cahn and George Segel lost to Texas.

In the second triangular Valentine Irion and Lawrence Martin kept up the winning streak of Tulane on the road by beating the exceptionally strong Sewanee team by a count of two to one.

The same night, Lloyd Cobb and J. J. Davidson, although presenting an excellent argument, lost to North Carolina by the same score.

Debating authorities on the campus have promised even a more successful year for forensic activities in 1925.

Tulane's great year of 1923-24 has nowhere a better example of its greatness than the Tulane Band. With a half-dozen of last year's men as a nucleus, a musical unit was formed this year that was well suited to carry on the traditions of Tulane University. The largest band in the history of the university; its uniformed musical organization; a band representing Tulane in the carnival parades for the first time; and being, in short, one of the most truly representative activities of the entire school, are a few of the distinctions of which not only the Band, but the whole of Tulane as well, is proud.

A trip to Montgomery, for the Tulane-Auburn football game, was made by the full Band as its first real activity. Heretofore, at the close of the football season, the previous Bands have gone out of existence; but, consistent with its program of being a better Tulane Band, the musicians performed upon various occasions throughout the year.

Under the able direction of Professor Paoletti, the Band has made wonderful strides along musical lines, and the untiring efforts of Albert E. Holleman, drum-major, and both Manager Robert G. Polack and his successor, Bennie Cohn, have assured its success.

This Society was founded in the School of Architecture in the year nineteen fourteen, with Frederick Parham, '14, as president. Its constitution and by-laws were drawn up, in which were stated the ideals and standards to be set up and followed for the good of the school and university. In its ten years of existence, the Society has done wonders; it has not only helped the School of Architecture as a unit, but has tended to promote a more friendly and brotherly feeling among its members and faculty. With this idea foremost, many most enjoyable lectures and "get-togethers" were held during the past year. Looking forward to a few more activities yet to be held and back to those we have already so much enjoyed, the year 1923-24 can be called a most successful one.

The Tulane Y. M. C. A.

The Tulane "Y"—or, as those who are more closely connected with its management prefer to call it, the "Y Hut"—stands in a central part of the campus, between Stanley Thomas Hall and the academic dormitories. In many respects, it occupies, too, a central position in student life. Here is held, a few days after the beginning of every session, a reception for the university's "babies" —the Freshmen of both Tulane and Newcomb. Here the "Fep" meetings of the football season are held and here the band generally meets for its practices. Then, again, the "Y" is several times a session, the familiar scene of a friendly social evening for Newcomb and Tulane and their friends, when all who care to accept its invitation gather to enjoy a carefully prepared program of the university's musical and theatrical talent.

The building is also used for many other purposes. There are games of several kinds (including that ancient and intellectual sport known as checkers and that scientifically metaphysical occupation called by the ridiculously short name of chess), with which the students may while away pleasant recreation hours. The secretary, Mr. Addison, is in his office regularly, ready with help and advice of all kinds, particularly for students who want to earn money to help themselves through college. Who that has been to Tulane will not take away with him some pleasant memories of the "Y"—that big wooden building left us by Camp Martin?

Newcomb, it is to be remembered, is a part of Tulane, and we believe the pleasant memories and warm recollections are shared by our Newcomb sisters. At least, we remember telephoning to several of them on different occasions from the "Y."

Alumni Association of Tulane University of Louisiana

The Alumni Association of Tulane University of Louisiana is the general association of the Alumni of all departments of the University.

The association is active in all things which work for the good of the University in any of its departments. The association, in recent years, has been particularly active in student affairs. The association prides itself in never having refused to aid, financially or otherwise, any worthy Tulane activity.

Any graduate of the University, or any former student of the University, who withdrew in good standing after having attended during one session, is eligible for membership in the association. There are three forms of membership: Annual (dues $2.00 yearly); Life (dues $25.00 for life); Honorary. Every Tulane Alumnus ought to be a member.

The business of the association is carried on through the Executive Committee, which is composed of the officers and two representatives from each department of the University.

The Executive Committee for 1923-1924 is as follows:

Officers
- Charles E. Dunbar, President
- Monte M. Lemann, Vice-President
- Lucien H. Landry, Secretary
- Henry F. Scherer, Treasurer
- Lewis F. Wakeman, Assistant Secretary

A Model Love Letter

DEAR SUE:

Every time I think of you, my heart flops up and down like a churn-dasher. Sensations of unutterable joy caper over it like young goats on a stable roof, and thrill through it like Spanish needles through a pair of linen trousers. As a gosling swimmeth in a mud puddle, so I swim in the sea of glory. Visions of ecstatic rapture, thicker than the hairs of a blacking brush, brighter than the eyes of a humming bird, visit me in my slumber, and your image stands before me and I reach out to grasp it like a pointer snapping at a blue-bottle.

When I first beheld your angelic perfections, I was bewildered, and my brain whirled around me like a bumblebee under a glass tumbler. My eyes stood open like the cellar doors of a country town, and I lifted up my ears to catch the silvery accents of your voice. My tongue refused to wag, and in silent adoration I drank in the sweet infection of love as a thirsty man swalloweth a tumbler of cold beer.

Since the light of your face fell upon my life, I sometimes feel as if I could lift myself up by my shoestrings to the top of the church steeple and pull the bell rope for singing school. Day and night you are in my thoughts. When Aurora, blushing like the bride, rises from her saffron-colored couch; when the jaybird pipes his tuneful lay in the apple tree by the spring-house; when the awakening pig arises and grunteth; when the drowsy beetle wheels his droning flight at sultry noon-tide, and when the lowing herds come home at milking time, I think of thee, and like a piece of gum elastic, my heart seems stretched clear across my bosom.

Your hair is like the mane of a sorrel horse powdered with gold, and the graceful manner in which you catch your train on the fly fills me with unbounded awe. Your forehead is smoother than the elbow of an old coat. Your eyes are glorious to behold, and in their liquid depths I see legions of little Cupids bathing like a cohort of ants in a piece of old cheese. When their fire hit me upon my manly chest, it penetrated my whole anatomy like a load of buckshot through a rotten apple. Your nose is like a chunk of Parian marble, and your mouth is puckered with sweetness. Nectar lingers on your lips like honey on a bear’s paw, and myriad of unfeathered kisses are there ready to fly out and light somewhere like bluebirds out of their parents’ nest. Your laugh rings in my ears like the wild harp’s strain or the bleat of a lost nanny-goat. The dimples in your cheeks are like bowers in beds of roses or holes in cakes of home-made sugar.

I am dying to pour out the burning eloquence of my love as thrifty housewives pour out hot coffee. Away from you, I am as melancholy as a sick rat. Sometimes, I hear the June-bugs of despondency buzzing in my ears, and feel the cold lizards of despair buzzing down my back. My love for you is stronger than the smell of Limburger cheese or the kick of a young cow, and more unselfish than a kitten’s first cater-wauld. As the songbird hankers for the light of day, the cautious mouse for the fresh bacon in the trap, as a mean pup hankers for new milk, so I long for thee.
You are fairer than the speckled pullet, sweeter than a Yankee doughnut fried in sorghum molasses. If these few remarks will enable you to see the inside of my soul and me to win your affection, I shall be as happy as a jay-bird in a cheery tree or a stage-horse in a green pasture. If you cannot reciprocate my thrilling passion, I will pine away like a poisoned bedbug, and in coming years, when the philosophical frog sings his cheerful evening hymns, then may you, happy in another's love, come and drop a tear and catch a cold on the last resting place of Yours affectionately.

"Push," said the button.
"Never be led," said the pencil.
"Take pains," said the window.
"Always keep cool," said the ice.
"Be up to date," said the calendar.
"Never lose your head," said the barrel.
"Make light of everything," said the fire.
"Do a driving business," said the hammer.
"Aspire to greater things," said the nutmeg.
"Be sharp in all your dealings," said the knife.
"Find a good thing and stick to it," said the glue.
"Do the work you are suited for," said the chimney.
Greek Mythology

Bacchus, the god of drink, fell desperately in love with the fair Helen of Troy, and decided to have a date with her. She gladly accepted and, shortly after leaving her home, Bacchus suggested a drink.

“What will we have?” said Helen.
“Whisky,” replied Bacchus.
“Oh, I couldn’t think of it,” returned Helen. “I am not that kind of a girl.”

So Bacchus took her to one of the near-by soda fountains, and gave her sandwiches and nectar.

When you turn down your glass it’s a sign
That you’re not going to take any wine.
So turn down your plate
When they serve you things you hate.
And you’ll often be asked out to dine.

Betas Attack All-Night Revelers

An indignation meeting was held last night by the members of Beta Theta Pi fraternity to protest against the holding of all-night dances by some of the other academic fraternities. The majority of the chapter supported Oscar Bienvenu, who advocated avoidance of feminine company. Efforts of Priestly Flournoy, avowed lady-killer, toward instituting daily teas, were almost unanimously voted down.

Kappa Sigmas To New House

Real estate agents have chalked up the biggest sale of the year in the purchase of the Italian Hall by the Kappa Sigma fraternity. Dan Murray (who was "traveled with" again this year) negotiated the deal in order that "Buddy" Roberts be given a permanent home from which he would not be forced to leave suddenly. Several rooms will be used as beauty parlors for Clement Moss.

Benedict Exposes Sigma Nu Secrets

Somer Benedict, chaplain of the Sigma Nu fraternity, has announced the completion of "The Frat," a volume dealing with all the secrets of his fraternity. The work was written in order to reach a larger public, after Benedict had disclosed the innermost workings of his chapter to all casual acquaintances.

Pi Kappa Alphas Burn Down House

All efforts to create some notice of their existence on the campus having failed, the members of the Pi Kappa Alpha fraternity deliberately set fire to their handsome home last winter. A shirt of Charlie Morton's, saturated in Garry Lon's hair pomade, was ignited by the young fire-bugs. Carron Ball and the Fire Department were immediately summoned.
The Daily Fratricide

Dekes Will Not Run For Office

Louis Garrard, speaking officially for Delta Kappa Epsilon, has announced that, due to the signal success of the Deke candidates in the student body presidential elections, the fraternity will not put up any men next year. The entire time of the chapter will be spent in maintaining their splendid scholastic record.

O.T.A. To Become National in 1950

Word has been received by the oldest local on the campus that Sigma Phi Epsilon will consider granting a charter to O. T. A. as soon as the standard set by the national is reached. This, it was indicated, will not be until every one of the present members graduate.

Sigma Chi Fraternity Graduates This Year

News has been received on the campus that the Sigma Chi fraternity will receive his degree in June. Mr. Pratt Martin will then enter the insurance business.

A. & S. Man Pledged By Dental Fraternity

Sigma Pi, Dental and Pharmaceutical fraternity, broke all precedent by pledging an Arts and Sciences student. The move is said to be an attempt to mollify their lone faculty member, who has stopped wearing his frat pin on his coat lapel and is threatening to join Xi Psi Phi.

P.D.T. Coach Calls Football Practice

Robert Emmet Kerrigan, famous law athletic mentor, has called the State Street boys out for spring practice daily in front of their beautiful house. "Hank" Phillips sells boots between halves. Lamprecht kicks goal with a niblick. Score 0-0.

K. A.s Entertain
At Big Barn Dance

The Kappa Alpha fraternity entertained at a barn dance in the chapter's home on State Street. No decorations were needed to carry out the desired effects. Murph Snelling endeavored to get up an election among the guests. Clarence came in third.

Kappa Nu's Year's Achievements

Sigma Chapter, Kappa Nu, takes pleasure in publishing the list of its achievements during the past year, as follows:

"Much" Less Heiter
Is Finally Placed

"Don't swap your horses in the middle of the stream," is the motto by which "Much" Less Heiter, Sigma Alpha Epsilon athlete, was finally placed on the winning ticket in the last election. Less is now a "regular" fellow.

Delta Tau Deltas Enter Politics!

Tulane's campus was shocked to hear that the Delta Tau Delta fraternity had entered into a political combine, despite the untiring efforts of W. C. Frue, whose motto is "The Best Man for the Best Place." Johnny Wight's little brother, decked out in Doug O'Kelley's cap, was the first sacrifice on the altar of political ambition.

D. S. P.s Subscribe
To "Daily States"

Perhaps the greatest fraternal publicity move of the year was accomplished by the shifting of "Moral Victory" Hebert from the T.-P. to the "States." Readers of the morning paper having been informed of the athletic prowess of Lind, Morgan and Duffy, the Delta Sig bard now seeks to enlighten the readers of the evening sheet.
Zetas Celebrate Holleman’s Election

“Drum-Major” Holleman was guest of honor at a lavish banquet given by the Zeta Beta Tau fraternity on his re-election. The speakers of the evening stressed his good work for the "Hullabaloo" and band. Spencer McNair, another guest, laid emphasis on the friendly relations between the chapter and the student council.

More Phi Kappa Sigs Make Varsity Teams

Phi Kappa Sigma cut another notch in their campus fame when half a dozen of its members were awarded football letters. The fraternity is the most prominent on the campus, having six football stars, basketball and baseball men, editors of the various college publications, and four varsity debaters.

A. T. O. Advocates Expedient Plan

In order that the Freshmen may be given as little opportunity as possible to learn the true nature of the chapter, the Alpha Tau Omegas are sponsoring a move to shorten the fraternity rushing season to one week. The members explained that if they could get a pledge pin on quickly the victims could hardly escape.

Pi Kaps Establish Several Chapters

University officials expressed their satisfaction at the splendid "colonization" work done by the newest fraternity on the campus. The Pi Kappa Phis have, in little over a year, founded their mother chapter and the now famous Sigma Delta, a creature of the brain of the great Pi Kappa Phi leader.
To Willie

You could tell poor Willie was dying
By the color of his breath.
And the flowers, they were drooping
In the mud.
So the doctors all agreed,
Just to save poor Willie's life,
That they'd stop the circulation
Of his blood.

Then they gently laid his head
In a pot of boiling lead;
Then we laid our Willie down to rest.
But the burglars came that night,
And they came without a light,
And they stole the mustard plaster
Off his chest.

So they filled him up with glue
Just to try to bring him to,
But they found that all their efforts
Were in vain.
So he turned upon his side
And he blew his nose and died,
And sneezed and blew his nose
And died again.

It was on the third of May
That poor Willie passed away,
So they thought they'd grant the last request
He made.
So they took him to the barbers,
Where he used to shoot the marbles,
And they planted a bunch of whiskers on his grave.
Half an inch, half an inch,
Half an inch shorter—
Whether the skirts
Are for mother or daughter.
Briefer the dresses grow,
 Fuller the ripples now,
While the whisking glimpses show
More than they oughter.

Forward the dress parade,
Is there a man dismayed?
No, from the sight displayed
None could be sundered.
Their’s not to make remark,
Clergyman, clubman, clerk,
Gaping from noon ’till dark
At the four hundred.

Short skirts to the right of them,
Shorter to the left of them,
Shortest in front of them,
Flaunted and flirted.

In hose of flesh and nude,
Oh, most exceeding hued,
Sporting in spats run mad,
Come the short skirted.

Flashed all their ankles there,
Flashed as they turned in air,
What will not woman dare?
(Though the exhibits show
Some of them blundered).

All sorts of shapes and pegs,
Broom-sticks and piano-legs.
Here and there fairy shapes
Just built to walk on eggs,
Come by the hundred.

When can their glory fade;
Oh, the wild show they made
All the world wondered.
Grande Dame and demoiselle,
Show girl and Bowery belle.
Four Hundred—oh, well,
Any old hundred.

THE SLEEK
A "Treat-is" on Fashionable Feminine Fraternities

FOREWORDS

THE writer, while thoroughly conscientious in the endeavor to sing the praises of the Greek letter ladies of Newcomb, craves pardon if the chant echoes any strain from the anvil chorus. Punk punctuation, of course, will be attributed to the printer's devil. The following articles, though intended as a parody outline of sororities, may also reflect many truths, and so justify their excuse for being.

Pi Beta Phi (Feminine B. P. O. E.)

Founded at Moonsmouth College in 1867. The Civil War just being over, and there being a dearth of excitement, the Neighborhood Sewing Circle and Chorus Girls' Union consolidated to form the nucleus of Pi Beta Phi (F. B. P. O. E.). From the growth of this organization one might term it "The Birth of a Nation." This chapter was installed at Newcomb in 1891, and has been stalled ever since.

The meaning of the Greek cognomen, translated into unintelligible French, is "Elles saisent ses oeufs."

Colors: Old wine and morning-after blues.

The chapter prides itself on the number of its initiates that conclude more than a year and a half of school work. This accounts for the number of "post-graduates" on the roster. The chapter is very much delighted that the honor of being selected "The Biggest Flapper" was bestowed on Virginia Fenner. A splendid system of collecting back dues without establishing a banking system has been evolved by the chapter. The more sprightly members are married off at a tender age, and their unfortunate grooms are compelled to come across with the cash. All treasurers interested in this may apply for further information.

This chapter was awarded the Balfour cup for being the best jewelry customers (next to Woolworth and Kress). Of course, ordering in thirties does reduce the price of arrows!

Alpha Omicron Pi

This bogus bunch was founded at Barnyard College, a couple of decades back. The local chapter of Alpha Omi-Gawd Pi boasts of two of Newcomb's best, according to results of the recent campus selection.
Best liked, Betty Bethea.
Best loving, Mary Bolton.

Due to the untiring efforts of Emily Slack and Nora O'Neill, this fraternity is fast becoming known on the campus for its representative and college-spirited girls. One wonders why the former wasn't this year's student body president and the latter next year's. It is said that Nora ever takes Paynes that the interests of the college be furthered.

This religious fraternity is the only one at Newcomb that has a Church of its own. We had a real feast of rare scandal, mostly roast, for A. O. Pi; however Dot Weston censored the menu.

Chi Omega

Organized by the Pharmaceutical Society of Arkansas for promoting sales of Omega oil—Ah! There's the rub!

The local unit—Roe chapter—a collection of fish, hold meetings near the aquarium in Audubon Park. Seeking local color, no doubt.

The future of this flock of frozen-faced flappers is now assured by their unexpected acquisition of a dark horse with a palatial yacht and the ten promises gained surreptiously by Beans Snyder and Tippy Pool.

Phyllis Reeves would have tied Betty Bethea in the popularity contest had she been better known; while the dainty dentrifice dame, Mary Louise Dodds, has consented that her smiling picture be used by Pepsodent or Colgates in their advertisement puzzles of "Find the Missing Molars."

For a glance at the chapter as a whole, come to any election where a sister might get an office and behold!

Kappa Kappa Gamma

Foundlings at Down-in-Mouth College in 1870. High sign for non-members is the convex snoot. They stand high on the campus, as is evidenced by Bea Ford. The local lodge, "The March Wind Chapped-her," specializes in debutantes and debutante-annoyers, such as Lynn Robinson. Every member carries a key, but judging from the avoirdupois of Georgia Seago, hers doesn't fit the pantry lock.

Advertised in all snappy journals, "Sweet Caps—Ask Sweet Daddy—He Knows!"

Phi Mu

The faithful sisters were welded at Wesleyawn in 1852. After fifty years of struggle on the ragged edge—upon the acceptance of the Wilsonian Doctrine of the self-determination of peoples they were made national in 1904. Newcomb was Delta chapter in 1906.

This little band is known for its well-balanced personnel. They range from the flipperest of flappers, such as Bessie Monroe, to sisters bowed down under the weight of grey mater, as Dot Collins; the other sex’s last heart throb!

Phi Mu has appropriated funds for the purchase of aromatic spirits of ammonia and smelling salts to revive any stricken sisters on day of announcement of Phi Beta Kappa election.

Fie—Fie—Fie! Mew—Mew—Mew!

Alpha Delta Pi

For historical beginnings, refer to data on Phi Mu.

The Epsom Salts chapter was corroded in 1906. The prowess of the chapter was substantiated by the student body election of Alice Tankersley as best athlete. They can also boast of the best weeper in the state. Fair Gonzalez is known to have changed a "2" report to a "1" simply by dissolving into a liquid stream of reproach, and most instructors, not knowing how to swim, follow the line of least resistance and yield to her pleas.

Another attractive feature of the chapter is their room, where it is said that parties doing credit to "Flaming Youth" are flung.

The motto blazoned on the shield of the order, "Live for Each Other," is their only visible sign of support.

The serenity of the chapter is ordered by the cool leadership of "Chill" Blain.

Kappa Alpha Theta

These feline femmes were founded at De Paw University in 1870. Reasons not ascertainable.

Fraternity song, "Has Anybody Seen My Kitty—Has Anybody Seen My K. A. T.?"

One member holds the distinction of being the best-dressed student in college, namely, Maude Ellis. Lucille, of London, has sent modistes to study her creations.

The colors of the fraternity are Black and Blue—after rushing season.

The chloratura soprano voice of Charlotte Price will probably call Alpha Fine chapter to order next year, unless Lillian "Some" Evans bring to bear superior weight. Mamie Sizzling Sinkit keeps the members posted on the frills and foibles of the infra-fashionable set and the pseudo-select. They are training Mildred Christian to fill a needed niche for concerning faculty representatives. K. A. T. has not scratched yet.
Alpha Epsilon Phi

Founded in Killarney for the purpose of breaking up the Pork Trust. Emblem, Crossed Ham Bones.

Judging from the number of initiates of this year it would seem as though they had found one of the lost tribes.

They all seem to be in Arcadia. Unfortunately, the fair fabric of their fame will be marred next year when they drop a Stitch.

Sorority Dope

I once knew a girl who went Kappa,
A man-loving, gum-chewing flapper.
She drank like a fool,
And she was kicked out of school.
If I were a Kappa I'd slap her.

I was crazy about a Pi Phi,
With love and affection I'd sigh,
Thought I'd marry her later,
She eloped with a Beta.
Oh misery, Oh misery, Oh my.

The latest's a little Phi Mu,
And, say, what that woman can do;
Though she looks rather meek,
She can outkiss the sheik,
No girl for a young Sigma Nu.

I fell for a Chi O, by heck;
That woman has made me a wreck;
I gave her my pin,
And thought I would win.
A giraffe took the prize by a neck.

A. O. Pi's—all your money they seek.
I kept one alive for a week,
They want all your jack,
And, perhaps, I'll go back,
When K. A.'s start rushing for Deke.

An A. D. Pi ruined him, yeth, yeth;
I knew he was wild about Beth.
As he took off his pin,
She said, with a grin:
"That makes seven, but yours is the beth."

I'll tell you the truth, she's a Theta,
And all of the other girls hate her.
Through her hunger and wiles
I've been keeping up Child's;
She'll probably marry a waiter.

When the east and the west start to blend,
When the frats all their differences mend,
When the Pi Phis so snappy,
Hope the Kappas are happy,
You may safely conclude 'tis

(Another Foolish Fraternity)

Colors: Pinks (the only color which has not yet been used on the campus).
Motto: "Campus life is just one damn ribbon after another."
Poem: Another frat pin now and then
Is relished by the best of men.

This fraternity was organized in February, 1924, in order to satisfy a long-felt need. Only men who already belong to two fraternities are eligible, the idea being that if a man is a member of two fraternities there is no reason why he should not belong to three.

The 1924 Jambalaya Staff wishes to make the following acknowledgments to those who have so materially aided us in the production of this volume:

The Benson Printing Company for their real friendship, advice, and co-operation, which was ever at our service.

The Jahn and Oliver Engraving Company, whose excellent workmanship was such an improvement to the book.

The Student Council, whose authority expedited many phases of our work.

The Class Representatives, who showed an active interest in the annual and compiled their share of the data promptly.

The Student Body as a whole for their encouragement.

On the following pages we wish to introduce some of the most loyal supporters of Tulane.

ACHIEVEMENT

The goal of every ambitious man and firm is typified in the rapid growth of the John & Ollier Engraving Company—the universal esteem in which their art and plates are held by the large national advertisers and the enviable reputation for prompt deliveries which they enjoy.

The mission of all advertising illustrations is to produce sales and the growth of this firm has been measured by the success its customers have had in obtaining new business thru using "J&O picture salesmen."

Thirty thousand square feet of floor space (4 floors) and over two hundred and fifty skilled employees are required to meet the constant demand for "J&O" commercial photographs, art, color process plates and photo engraving. (One complete floor is devoted to color process work).

Intelligent supervision of all work by many skillful office service men eliminates your troubles. Sales service men sent everywhere.
