Secretary and Treasurer
Albert Bledsoe Dinwiddie, Ph.D., LL.D., has been president of Tulane University since October 1, 1918. The great progress of the university in the past few years is due principally to his energy and efforts. Dr. Dinwiddie has not only demonstrated remarkable ability as an educator, but has proven one of the greatest business executives in the field of education. Although his achievements and professional qualities are matters of public knowledge, comparatively few know Dr. Dinwiddie as a man. He is intensely human and possesses a great breadth of interest. Primarily a mathematician, he is also an authority on literature. He is a sports enthusiast, having participated in athletics at college, and a lover of the great outdoors. Fishing and all forms of puzzles are his hobbies. President Dinwiddie is truly a man of great and varied activity.
The School of Medicine

CHARLES CASSEDY BASS, M.D., D.Sc., F.A.C.P.
Dean

The School of Medicine occupies an enviable place among the leading medical schools of the country. Students and doctors from every state in the Union and from many foreign countries come to Tulane for medical training.

The Hutchinson Memorial Clinic in the New Hutchinson Memorial Building provides for the most practical training and experience in actual care of patients. Each senior student has what corresponds to a well-equipped private office where, under the supervision of an instructor, he examines and treats his patients as he should do later in private practice.

The College of Law

RUFUS CARROLLTON HARRIS, A.B., LL.B., Juris.D., LL.D.
Dean

The Tulane College of Law was established in 1847 as the Law Department of the University of Louisiana.

The curriculum of the College has been arranged to provide for the special training of those who intend to practice in Louisiana, and at the same time to afford training to those who may wish to practice in any of the other states. The College owns one of the most complete law libraries in the Southern States. It is a member of the Association of American Law Schools.

It publishes the Tulane Law Review, which affords a medium for the expression of the best thought available on Comparative Jurisprudence.

Newcomb College

PIERCE BUTLER, B.A., M.A., Ph.D.
Dean

Mrs. Josephine Louise Newcomb founded Newcomb College as a memorial to her daughter, Harriott Sophie Newcomb. In fulfillment of Mrs. Newcomb's wish and her profound interest in the people of New Orleans, the College endeavors to equip young women for effective and intelligent service to society. A college of liberal arts offering sound instruction in cultural and scientific fields is the center of Newcomb. For students suited by temperament or by special aptitude to develop a sound culture through Art or Music, the College offers special four-year courses in those subjects, leading to appropriate degrees.
College of Arts and Sciences
Edward A. Bechtel, Ph.D.
Dean

The College of Arts and Sciences is one of the oldest colleges of Tulane University. It offers courses leading to the degrees of Bachelor of Arts, Bachelor of Science, and Bachelor of Education in Physical Education.

The curriculum is planned to give a general education and, at the same time, affords opportunity for specialization in some one group of studies. Special courses offered prepare for the study of Medicine and of Law. Among the elective courses is included the Department of Journalism. The course in Physical Education affords preparation for athletic coaches and directors, together with training in academic subjects.

The College of Engineering
Douglas Smith Anderson, B.A., M.A.
Dean

The College of Engineering offers broad courses of professional training in the fundamental principles of the different branches of Engineering and Architecture, leading to the degrees of Bachelor of Engineering and Bachelor of Architecture, respectively.

The courses offered are Mechanical and Electrical Engineering, Civil Engineering and Chemical Engineering.

Within the past several years extensive additions have been made to the equipment of the engineering laboratories, to the extent that they offer excellent facilities for regular undergraduate instruction, as well as opportunities for the study and investigation of special problems.

For the study of Architecture, New Orleans offers exceptional advantages.

The College of Commerce
Morton Arnold Aldrich, A.B., Ph.D.
Dean

The purpose of this college has been, since its establishment in 1914, to offer substantial professional training preparatory to a business career. The instruction offered is planned for students sufficiently able and mature to do work of university grade, and no student is received unless prepared to do work of this character.

It is essential, also, to the permanent success of the college that its students approach their work in an earnest professional spirit.

In order to make the business courses available for business men and women, classes are also held at night from 8 to 9:45 o'clock. Each course meets one night a week.
The School of Pharmacy

J. F. Simon, M.Ph., Ph.D.

Dean

Established in 1838, the School of Pharmacy, now under the jurisdiction of a Pharmacist Dean, offers a four-year course leading to the degree of Bachelor of Science in Pharmacy; this course is now being administered strictly according to the Pharmaceutical Syllabus, a publication prepared and published by the National Pharmaceutical Syllabus Committee, representing the American Association of Colleges of Pharmacy, the National Association of Boards of Pharmacy, and the American Pharmaceutical Association.

The Graduate School

John MacLaren McBryde, Ph.D., Litt.D.

Dean

The Graduate School offers courses leading to advanced degrees in liberal arts, the sciences, engineering, and in special branches of the medical sciences. For those holding the degrees of Bachelor of Science and Doctor of Medicine, opportunity is afforded for clinical work in the hospitals of the city under the guidance of well-known specialists. Thus the Graduate School presents carefully planned courses for teachers desiring to gain a broader and deeper knowledge of their chosen fields and for graduates in engineering and medicine wishing to specialize in particular lines of work.

Graduate School of Medicine

Hiram Watkins Kostmayer, B.A., M.D., F.A.C.S.

Acting Dean

The Graduate School of Medicine, a department of the College of Medicine of the Tulane University, provides post-graduate instruction to the medical profession. The courses offered are arranged to afford work from October to June of each year, and during that time there may be found medical graduates from all parts of the country who come to avail themselves of the opportunities presented in order to keep abreast with the recent advances in medicine and surgery, or to specialize in the major branches.

Instruction during the forenoon is carried on in the wards and clinics of the Charity Hospital, Touro Infirmary, and the Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat Hospital, and the afternoon and evenings comprise didactic lectures and work in the clinical laboratory at the Hutchinson Memorial Building.
The School of Social Work

GARRETT POLHEMUS WYCKOFF, A.B., LL.D.
Director

The School of Social Work is a graduate school offering professional training for social work. The leading social agencies in New Orleans cooperate in furnishing field work facilities for students. As it is the only member of the American Association of Schools of Professional Social Work in this section of the South, the Tulane University School of Social Work attracts graduates from many of the leading universities of the South.

Courses for Teachers

JAMES ADAIR LYON, A.M., D.Sc.
Chairman

For many years Tulane University has operated a number of courses to meet the need of those whose hours of employment will not permit attendance upon regular classes. The classes are scheduled in the afternoon hours and on Saturdays, thus making it possible for teachers, especially if they so desire, to add to their equipment in many subjects.

These courses are of full college grade, conducted by regular members of the faculty, and in the case of students who have satisfactorily fulfilled the entrance requirements, credits obtained may be applied towards a degree.

Department of Middle American Research

FRANS BLOM, Ph.B., A.M.
Director

The Department of Middle American Research was founded in 1924 to conduct advanced research into the history, archaeology, botany, products and natural resources of Mexico, the Central American republics and the West Indies, as well as to gather and disseminate information about these countries. Five expeditions have been sent into the field. The Fifth Tulane Expedition was financed by the Chicago World's Fair of 1933.

The library of the department ranks among the nation's leading research libraries, containing thousands of rare items, including manuscripts, maps, and volumes on anthropology, archaeology, travel, geography, botany, biology, and cartography of the Middle Americans.

Don Zimmerman
The greatest year in the history of athletics at Tulane ascended to its place in the Valhalla of records when 1932 gave way to 1933 in the chronological system of old Father Time.

Where other universities are curtailing intercollegiate sport to the extinction of several minor branches, Tulane has turned against the stream. Athletic plants for the furtherance of varsity, intramural, interclass, and interfraternity competition have been installed, and student interest has reached a higher pitch than ever before.

Basketball first assumed the spotlight of sportdom, with the Green Wave presenting its strongest five of recent years under the direction of George Rody, newly acquired member of the coaching staff.

Doyless Hill again won the Southern Conference heavyweight title, with his teammates scoring enough to merit Tulane second place in team scoring. Hill later went on to win the national intercollegiate championship and earned a place on the United States Olympic squad.

The Greenies failed to successfully defend their track and field title, but increased student interest and the excellence of several performers made this activity a popular one. Don Zimmerman attained national prominence in the pole vault and just fell short of making the Olympic squad.

1932 saw the return of baseball, but as an intramural ac-activity. The all-stars made a splendid showing in their only intercollegiate series, and baseball, with increased student interest, seems destined to remain as a varsity sport.

Cliff Sutter led Tulane's tennis team to its greatest season under Coach Mercer Beasley, and the new tennis stadium aided materially in the development of the players. Cliff won the Southern and national intercollegiates, and was rated third in the United States and fifth in the world.

Jesse Rainwater closed the 1931-32 school year with a victory in the Southern Conference golf championships, with Tulane in third place for team honors.

The Green Wave slumped a bit on the gridiron because of a poorly-balanced schedule and a series of tough breaks, but the eleven carried on remarkably well, and Don Zimmerman was unanimously selected as all-American.

Intramural, interclass, and interfraternity schedules were completed, with increased enthusiasm evidenced by a 15 per cent gain in student participation.

With the new gymnasium completed and ready for every sort of activity this fall, improved facilities and better equipment available for every branch of endeavor, and student interest on the upgrade, future years promise to be greater than ever in Tulane athletics.
Ted and Lester talk things over with the entire squad.

The Coaching Staff

"Moxe" Simmons, Trainer;
"Peggy" Fournos, Backfield Coach;
Ted Cox, Head Coach;
Ted Kane, Freshman Coach;
Lester Lautenschlaeger, Backfield Coach.
The greatest Green Wave in the history of Tulane, in spirit if not in record, closed the 1932 season with two defeats—the first Southern Conference losses in four years for the Olive and Blue.

Ineligibility, injuries, and influenza riddled the Wave roster, respecting neither regular nor reserve, but the morale never wavered.

Coach Ted Cox deserves a world of credit for his excellent work in producing one of the strongest elevens in the South from the wreck of the great 1931 squad, and for rebuilding his team so expertly whenever adversities intervened.

With such spirit as the men of Tulane exhibited this year, and with such a coach as Ted Cox at the helm, the Green Wave is destined to swell to its greatest proportions in the future.
"Fanny" Payne skirts the Aggies' right end.

Captain John A. Scafide
All-Southern Guard

"Baby Grand" proved that he could be one of Tulane's best football leaders as well as a terror to all opponents. He will be much missed next year.

Ex-Captain Nollie C. Felts
Fullback

Declared ineligible on the brink of the opening game, "Papa" stuck to the post as a non-playing leader. His spirit and inspiration were always present.

Captain-Elect Floyd B. Roberts
Halfback

"Little Preacher" fills the place next year "Big Preacher" left in '30. Possessed with the same spunk his brother displayed, he should be even more sensational than ever.

Donald G. Zimmerman, Jr.
All-American Halfback

"Biff" Jones said that "Flying Dutchman" was the best running back he had ever seen. Don was also one of the best passers, punters, and tacklers in America.

Tulane, 26; Texas A. & M., 14

Power and versatility, unprecedented in early season football here, featured Tulane's opening game of the 1932 season against the Farmers of Texas A. & M., as the Green Wave picked up where it left off in 1931 and ran its great record of the past three years to 33 games without a defeat in Southern football.

The Greenies played brilliantly that afternoon—played like champions, despite the eleventh hour loss of their great leader, Nollie Felts, who was declared ineligible shortly before game time. And one of the most brilliant was untried Joe Loftin, tossed into the breach at the last minute in Felts' position, who played a game that Nollie would have been proud of.

Tulane scored on marches of 68, 42, 26, and 66 yards, respectively, with Don Zimmerman featuring the offense, and held the Texans to a scant 24 yards, besides passes and a long run in the last quarter.

Coach Ted Cox used his regulars for a short time only, saving them for more important games to come, but the whole squad—sophomores as well as veterans—played fine ball. Loftin, George Tessier, Milto Phillips, and Dick Hardy all played their first games for Tulane as regulars, while the rest of the first-year men showed promise in their initial starts under the Olive and Blue.
"Flying Don" steps away from would-be Bulldog tacklers.

Tulane, 34; Georgia, 25

The age-old axiom that a strong offense is the best defense stood the Wave in good stead against Georgia's tenacious Bulldogs. The offensive power of the great Green machine failed, of course, to stop the Georgians' scoring, but it served its purpose in keeping Tulane ahead from whistle to gun.

The gods of football decreed that the Green Wave was to be deposed from the throne of Southern Conference supremacy that day, by removing Francis Payne, Tulane's great blocking and plunging back, with a broken collar-bone. And the greatest backfield trio in the country—Felts, Payne, Zimmerman—was reduced to one scintillating star, Don Zimmerman, the Flying Dutchman.

Don scored two touchdowns, averaged nine yards per try, and did everything on the field against the Georgians except bring out the water during the time-outs. Following his splendid example, the Green Wave piled up a 34-6 lead by the end of the third quarter.

The Bulldogs, true to their name, fought back fiercely and brought the score up to 34 to 25 near the end of the last quarter, but Tulane's regulars went in to stave off the rally and brought the oval to Georgia's 10-yard line, where the game ended and the Wave victory constituted the fourth time in as many years that Tulane had wrecked Georgia's Conference title hopes.

Will Patten Richardson
Quarterback
Cool-headed and quick to see weaknesses in the opposing team, Pat ended this year with well-deserved laurels. Not only was he a good diagnostician, but a staunch defender of the Tulane goal.

Winnie P. Lodrigues
All-Southern Center, Second Term
Winnie's performance at the pivot position won him a place among Tulane's greatest gridders. Playing out of the line on defense he was invaluable in stopping opponents' aerial attacks.

Francis C. Payne
Halfback
"Fanny" received a broken collar-bone in the Georgia fracas that kept him out till the L. S. U. game. It might have been another Greenie championship but for this misfortune.

Alt. Capt.-Elect Wm. F. Schroeder
Guard
As a running guard "Bill" was one of the best linemen in this section. Playing his second year after a meteoric rise from the scrub ranks he led many successful plays through the opposition.
Joseph E. Loftin
Fullback
When Nollie was declared ineligible this dependable soph stepped in to fill the gap. He proved an ace in both plunging and blocking.

Robert A. Tessier
Tackle
"Bob" displayed unusual ability for a Sophomore and soon won a regular tackle berth. He was one of the big men on the team, scaling well over 200 pounds, and possessed a world of speed. A bright future looms for him.

George D. Tessier
Guard
George, a veritable strong man, was an extremely dependable performer. Making his varsity debut this fall his speed and power contributed greatly to the success of the team. George's earnestness should carry him to the heights of football fame.

Elson M. Delaune
End
Elson came into his own this year, and yardage around his end can be measured in minus quantities. The Kentucky game was his hey-day.

Tulane, 6; Vanderbilt, 6

Tulane's hopes for a fourth consecutive Southern Conference title glimmered in the Greenies' clash with Vanderbilt before 25,000 fans who braved driving rain to see two great teams battle to a standstill at the Tulane stadium. The final whistle found the two elevens in a 6-6 deadlock.

Although the loss of Felts and Payne and the bitter hard-fought games of the two preceding weeks had exacted their toll on the morale of Coach Cox's men, the Wave, still playing on the wrong side of the breaks, looked like the better eleven.

Don Zimmerman made Tulane's score on a beautiful 55-yard return of a vandy punt. He crossed the Commodore goal again, after Vandy had knotted the score, on a 66-yard jaunt from scrimmage, but the play was called back. The same thing happened on "Little Preacher" Roberts' 28-yard dash a few minutes later.

"Pete" Gracey, Vandy's all-American center, was the Commodore's best man, while Bob and George Tessier, Captain John Scafide, and Winnie Lodrigues were splendid in the Tulane line. A try for a field goal by Zimmerman in the fourth period failed to break the tie, and the game ended with Tulane's ball in Vandy territory and the Greenies trying vainly to score.
Tulane, 6; Auburn, 19

The Green Wave's four-year reign over the gridirons of the Southland was brought to a close in the fourth game of the season, when the All-American Jimmy Hitchcock led his Auburn Plainsmen to a 19-6 victory over the Greenies, climaxing Tulane's streak of 35 games without a defeat in Southern football.

The Plainsmen played as brilliant football as has been seen at the Tulane stadium. Outgained by the Green Wave, which fought back, tooth and nail, even to the final whistle, they took advantage of every opportunity and even created a few opportunities themselves to send the great Hitchcock on his way for gain after gain.

"Little Preacher" Roberts was the star ground-gainer of the day, scoring Tulane’s only touchdown on a 30-yard dash; Zimmerman was brilliant in his all-round play; the entire team played well after Hitchcock’s two 65-yard runs and Auburn’s sustained 71-yard march had given the Plainsmen a commanding lead.

Tulane held the Tigers to a lone first down in the last half; the Green Wave surged down the field on two long drives that stopped just short of the Auburn goal; then, a flurry of passes in the closing minutes proving futile, the final whistle sent to the Valhalla of records one of the most brilliant records in football.

Richard E. Bankston
Tackle
Occupying a regular berth most of the season, Dick wound up a colorful football career. His bulk proved an obstacle difficult for opponent backs to pass.

Claude Simons, Jr.
Halfback
When "Little Monk" got his hands on the ball he was hard to stop. His punting ranked along with the best in the South. It looks as if "Big Monk's" dream will come true.

George Westfeldt, Jr.
End
After a year of obscurity among the scrubs “Sonny” came through to win a regular varsity position. His grid career thus far has been marked by steady improvement and another season should see him in top form—a real star.

Milto B. Phillips
End
Originally a back, Milto was converted into an end to fill the gap left by Jerry and Letty. He performed creditably in that capacity.
Zimmerman finds two Gamecocks in his path.

John J. Read
Center
Always backing up the line with plenty of fight, Johnny was a menace to all opponents. He ended his grid career with another season of reliable play.

Thomas J. Cunningham, Jr.
Tackle
Ending his third year of varsity play this year, "Pete" showed his usual dependability. Though not a flashy performer he could always be counted on to bolster the line when the going got tough.

Charles H. Calhoun
Guard
The heaviest man on the team, Charlie's speed and power made him a standout player. He fought his way to the first team in mid-season, and should be even better next year.

John B. McDaniel, Jr.
Back
This rugged soph found a place in the Greenie backfield by virtue of his terrific blocking. Fine punting also featured his play as he alternated between quarter and full.

---

Tulane, 6; South Carolina, 0

A terrific let-down was in order for the Green Wave after the trying ordeals of the previous four Saturdays, and 14,000 Homecoming Day fans witnessed the Greenies play slipshod football in downing South Carolina, 6 to 0.

Don Zimmerman scored Tulane's tally in the first two minutes of play, on a beautiful 34-yard run through the entire Gamecock eleven, but the ensuing 58 minutes presented a dreary exhibition of football, with the Greenies marching down to South Carolina's goal time and again, only to lose the ball on downs.

On defense Tulane showed considerable improvement, holding the visitors to a net 25 yards in 40 plays. Even when Coach Cox started sending in substitutes, the Gamecocks were unable to gain. "Sonny" Westfeldt's fine play at end merited him the flank position for the remainder of the season, while the Tessiers and Charlie Calhoun were towers of strength.

The Green Wave at times assumed tidal proportions, but diminished to a mere ripple when scoring opportunities presented themselves. However, 370 yards from scrimmage and 21 first downs really indicated Tulane's strength. Zimmerman and Roberts were as usual the leading ground gainers of the day.
Tulane, 20; Georgia Tech, 14

Tulane’s annual march through Georgia became something of tradition with the Greenies’ 20-14 victory over Georgia Tech on the first road game of the 1932 season. This triumph gave the Green Wave a record of eight straight over Tech and Georgia during a period of four years.

Resolving itself into a bitter duel between Don Zimmerman and Pat Barron, the scion of a truly great football family, the issue was ever in doubt. Don scored all of Tulane’s points, while Pat made both touchdowns for the Technicians.

The powerful Wave quartette of Zimmerman, Richardson, Roberts, and Loftin tore the Tech defense into shreds in the first quarter for two touchdowns on drives of 55 and 90 yards. Then Barron started his pyrotechnics with some brilliant ball-carrying and two extra points which gave the Georgians a 14-13 margin.

Then Tulane, led by the mighty Zimmerman, came out of their second- and third-quarter lethargy, and four times battled to within Tech’s 20-yard line. The fifth time the Greenies were not to be denied, and Zimmerman smashed through the center of the line for the final score of the game. Roberts added the extra point.

Richard N. Hardy
End
With a year of varsity experience behind him, “Red” should be an outstanding wingman next fall. He is big and rangy, an excellent end type, and plays a splendid defensive game.

James H. Hodgins
Halfback
Jim is an elusive back who saw plenty of service on the pony backfield for two years, and this year he proved that he could be depended upon for considerable yardage in varsity play.

Harold F. Lemmon
Fullback
The powerful drive and the defensive ability of this big fullback made him one of the sparklings of the team whenever he was in the game, and he was in there often.

Farrel B. Thomas
Halfback
Sacrificing a year of play to fill in the floundering team, Farrel emerged the big Greenie gainer of the day. He is also a tackler of no mean ability.
The Greenie inter-ferers open a gap in the Wildcat line for Don.

Charles A. Kyle
End
Charley was thought to be too light for varsity play, but, in the L. S. U. game, he not only did most of the punting, but turned in a game at end that was reminiscent of "Jerry."

Francis E. Menge
Halfback
"Pete" is another of the reserve backfield who burst through from the ranks of obscurity to gather laurels for Tulane and for himself in the L. S. U. game. He has two more years to play.

Robert L. Simon
End
Although Bob is an end, he was switched over to play a tackle position in the L. S. U. game, and his filling of that position is still a cause of admiration and wonder.

Homer R. Robinson
Guard
Though a sophomore guard, Homer played a veteran's game at center against L. S. U., when he plucked hit for the ill pivot-men. Light but fast, he has a brilliant gridiron future.

Tulane, 6; Kentucky, 3

Frozen for 56 minutes by zero weather and an impregnable Wildcat defense, the Green Wave broke loose from its shackles and surged the entire length of the field in the closing minutes of play to down Kentucky, 6 to 3. The two teams had battled on even terms, without even a semblance of a scoring threat occurring before the last quarter.

The Greenies outplayed the Colonels throughout the game, gaining 235 yards to 106 for their adversaries, and chalking up 12 first downs to Kentucky's two. But the scoring was lacking until a Kentucky score awakened the dormant Wave and sent it 97 yards down the field to a brilliant victory.

Ralph Kercheval had just kicked a field goal to give Kentucky a lead of three points. On the kick-off following the score, his accurate toe, which had kept the ball away from Zimmerman all afternoon, sent the oval straight into the arms of the Flying Dutchman, who drove and twisted down the field for 65 yards.

The rest of the drive was a matter of form. Don, Roberts, and Harold Lemmon battered through the rest of the way, Zimmerman taking the ball over. Elson Delaune and "Sonny" Westfeldt were splendid at the flanks, while the rest of the line, particularly Charlie Calhoun and John Read, played equally well.
Tulane, 26; Sewanee, 0

The reserves vied with the regulars for glory in the final home game of the season, practically the entire squad figuring in the Wave's submersion of Sewanee's fighting Tiger eleven by the overwhelming score of 26 to 0, before 7500 spectators.

While the score was in no way indicative of Tulane's superiority over the team from the University of the South, the Green Wave showed a world of power at all times. The first-stringers entered the game only in the third quarter, and were brilliant in their final bow before New Orleans fans.

Tulane chalked up two touchdowns in the second quarter, on a 57-yard dash by Bill Schroeder, one of the fastest linemen in the South, after intercepting a Sewanee pass, and on a beautiful 68-yard sprint by "Little Monk" Simons, versatile sophomore halfback.

Zimmerman and Loftin contributed the other two scores in the third quarter. Jim Hodgins, Pete Menge and John McDaniel also showed up well in the backfield, while regular and reserve linemen were equally proficient.

Doyless L. Hill
Center
Doyless was a valuable reserve. Though primarily a boxer he frequently displayed real football ability. He will be among those graduates missed next year.

Eugene Simon
Guard
Gene was not a starting player, but the brand of football he showed when he did get in the game promise him a splendid future as a Wave gridder.

Augustus H. Clark
End
"Gas" played in several games, and his defensive play and exceptional ability as a pass receiver mark him as a fine prospect for the Wave in the next two seasons.

Louis M. Boasberg
Tackle
Although Louis was crowded from the regular ranks by the newcomers, he played brilliantly when in the game. Next year should hold big things for him.
Tulane, 0; L. S. U., 14

Sheer guts was the dominating feature of the annual L. S. U. classic—unmitigated courage expressed in action by a handful of Greenie reserves who played the Tigers off their feet, upholding the Green Wave's reputation, if not its record, in a bitter battle at Baton Rouge.

Pat Richardson, the Tessiers, and Bill Schroeder were the only experienced Greenies who were neither sick nor injured. They played splendidly. Francis Payne, whose shoulder had not healed; Dick Bankston, with a useless arm; and Joe Loftin, with a broken rib, fought nobly until they had to be removed. "Sonny" Westfeldt, Winnie Lodrigues, and Elson Delaune, sick with flu, played as long as they could.

The subs stole the show. Charlie Kyle, third string end, did the punting and was the star of the game. Bob Simon, another sub end, played tackle and played it well. Homer Robinson, a reserve guard, held down the pivot post. Farrell Thomas, in his first varsity game, Pete Menge, and John McDaniel were splendid in the backfield.

L. S. U. scored twice in the first half. Those inexperienced Greenies fought back fiercely, even forcing the battle in the last half. The Tigers won, 14 to 0, but if nerve and spirit were the measuring stick, the Olive and Blue carried the day.
Prospectus

Despite the loss of many stars of 1932, including Don Zimmerman, John Scafide, Winnie Lodrigues, and others who have achieved the heights of intercollegiate gridiron fame, prospects are excellent for another fine season at Tulane.

Captain-elect "Preacher" Roberts, with Joe Loftin, "Monk" Simons, and John McDaniel, will form the nucleus for a splendid backfield, with Farrel Thomas, Pete Menge, Buck Bryan, and others ready to see service.

"Wu" Poitevent, out because of injuries this season, Homer Robinson, and Gould, a freshman, seem to be the outstanding candidates for center, while Alternate Captain-elect Bill Schroeder and George Tessier look like probable starters at the guard positions.

Charlie Calhoun and Bob Tessier, regular tackles of the past season, should retain their posts during the coming year, with Louis Boasberg, varsity man, and Joe Costanza, freshman, among the more promising competitors for tackle berths.

"Sonny" Westfeldt, Charlie Kyle, Gus Clark, Dick Hardy, and Mitlo Phillips are several of the many end candidates returning, while Louis Thames and Frederick Preisser are two fine frosh aspirants.

Richard M. Page

Halfback

"Dick's" speed and agility as a ball carrier made the coaches save him for future seasons. He should be a flash in the years to come.

Carl O. Hill

Guard

Arkansas sent another prodigal son to Tulane when Carl came down. Always ready to do his best, he kept up the spirit of his state.

Rayford C. Mullins

End

"Moon" came up from the freshman team this year with the same good spirit he showed on the Baby Billow. An early injury is all that kept him off the first string.

Thomas F. Hall

End

Another holdout for future play is "Whitney." His pass snatching is reminiscent of "Lefty" Haynes and will stand the '33 Wave in good stead.

Greenies and Gamecocks stretch for a high lobbed pass. It was incomplete.

The Greenie backfield sweeps away all obstacles in the Flying Dutchman's path.
TULANE'S YEARLING GRIDDERS

One of the most promising groups of freshman football players ever developed at Tulane will be graduated to the varsity squad from this season's Baby Billow. Coach Ted Bank, in uncovering these potential greats, also accomplished the unusual feat of winning a game, the first time this has been done in several years.

Injuries handicapped the freshmen through the season, and in neither of the two games which were lost was Coach Ted Bank able to present his strongest line-up.

The Green Ripple opened its season inauspiciously against a powerful Alabama team, losing by a 33-6 score. In the backfield, "Tex" Linam featured for the Frosh with a forty-yard run, after which "Buck" Bryan went over for the only score. Joe Costanza, giant tackle, turned in a fine defensive performance.

The Wavelet found itself in the Auburn game, as "Buck" Bryan led the way to an 18-6 victory. Bryan developed as an outstanding triple-threat performer, and was ably assisted in the backfield by Lodrigues, Linam, and Rau. In the line, Thames, Preisser, Hobbs, and Ernie Gould were shining lights, along with Costanza, who played with an injured leg.

On Thanksgiving Day the Baby Bengals of L. S. U. administered a 14-0 defeat to the injury-riddled Billow. It was the ninth straight victory for the Cadets over the Tulane freshmen. The game was played in a driving rain, and the revamped frosh line-up acquitted itself nobly. A blocked punt accounted for the first L. S. U. score, and the second came as the result of a fumble recovered on the one-yard line. Lodrigues, Henderson and Burke were the backfield stars for the Billow, and Preisser, Ary, Thames, and Gould were the best of the linemen.

The principal functions of the freshman team are the development of players and working with the varsity squad. The long scrimmages between freshmen and varsity were invaluable in the conditioning of the Tulane regulars, and offered opportunities for ironing out the rough spots of both offensive and defensive play.

Coaches Bank and "Red" McCormick developed a large number of players of ability, including Bryan, Linam, Rau, Nichols, Lodrigues, Lillich, Henderson, Runyan, Burke, Costanza, Thames, Ary, Hobbs, Gould, Nance, Preisser, Richarme, Smither, Verlander, Paillet, and Lawson.
completing a season which was rather unsuccessful from the record of games won and lost, Coach George Rody's Tulane cagers were entered in the Southeastern Conference basketball tournament when the Jam-balaya went to press, scheduled to meet Georgia, last year's Southern champion, in the first round, February 24th.

Off to an auspicious start by virtue of a victory over the New Orleans Athletic Club, the Wave journeyed to Lexington to meet Kentucky's great team. The Colonels, in top form, swamped the Wave in both games. Georgia downed the Greenies, 28 to 20, in the first intercollegiate game in New Orleans, but Ernie Beck and Murray Cleveland led the way to a 41-39 triumph over the Bulldogs in the second contest.

Tennessee conquered the Rodymen in two bitterly fought games, 31 to 23, and 34 to 33, and Alabama, second ranking team in the Conference, also defeated the Wave twice. The first engagement was close, 28 to 26, but Alabama romped in the second, 55 to 23.

Vanderbilt next took the Greenies' measure, 35 to 21 and 39 to 22, to increase the streak to six straight losses, but brilliant play eked out a victory over Mississippi State to break the chain. State won the second fray, 40 to 29.

On the road again, Co-captains Beck and Cleveland, aided materially by Joe Davies, "Slim" Taylor, and "Monk" Simons, led the Wave to split series with Auburn and Ole Miss, and Tulane returned for the annual L. S. U. series.

The Greenies were in top form the first night, running rampant over the Tigers, 44 to 31, but slumped in the second game as "Sparky" Wade, high scorer in the Conference, figured in a 42-28 Tiger victory.

With the series knotted, the scene shifted to the large L. S. U. court in Baton Rouge. "Slim" Taylor played the games of his life in Tigertown, but the Bengals swept both games, 50 to 38 and 51 to 37.

VARSITY BASKETBALL SQUAD
Standing: Vorhies, Mullins, Clark, Davies, Manager Huntress.
Kneeling: Cleveland, Hall, LeBlanc, Simons, Schneidau.
Sitting: Page, Cram, Beck, Harvey, Roberts.

Coach
George
Rody
Co-Captain Ernest Beck
Forward
Playing his second season, "Junior" became one of the leading scorers of the Southeastern Conference. Though small, he possessed a world of speed and fight which contributed greatly to his all-around brilliance as an offensive and defensive performer.

Co-Captain Murray Cleveland
Guard
Murray was the back-bone of the Wave defense. He displayed a finesse in floor play and in working the ball through the opposing defense, as well as accounting for a goodly portion of the Tulane scores. Murray has another season to play.

Harry Vorhagen
Forward and Center
A rangy player with an accurate eye for the basket, Harry was a valuable member of the Greenie quintet. His stellar performance of the past season bespeaks a colorful future as a cager.

Claude Simons, Jr.
Guard
"Little Monk" was a strong and agile basketeer, a close guarder and exceedingly accurate on long shots. With two more years of varsity play, Monk should achieve the heights of basketball fame.

Floyd Roberts
Guard and Forward
Demonstrating just as much ability on the court as he did on the gridiron, "Little Preacher" was invaluable to the Rodymen. A versatile man, playing both guard and forward, he should be a star in his final year at Tulane.

Thomas Hall
Forward
Big and fast, "Whitey" was an important cog in the Wave offense. Plenty of drive and accuracy were his principal attributes in his first season of college basketball, and his "follow up" shots counted for many a score.
Arthur Taylor
Center
"Slim" was the most improved man on the Tulane five during the past season. As a regular pivot man, he showed plenty of class, and his great height and keen eye contributed many a basket to the Wave cause.

Frank Huntress
Manager
Acting in the capacity of manager of the Greenie cagers, Frank was invaluable as an aide to Coach Rody. His untiring industry throughout the season made him indispensable to the squad.

James Harvey
Forward
A remarkable eye for the basket made Jimmy a valuable man to send in when the going got tough. With two years of college basketball ahead of him, this lad should be a prominent figure in Southeastern cage play.

Joseph Davies
Forward
Eligible after mid-term, Joe's presence provided the spark hitherto lacking in the Greenie lineup. A great competitive player, Joe could be counted on to score repeatedly against even the best guards in the Conference.

Kendall Cram
Forward
The smallest man on the team, but the fastest as well, Ken was among the hardest to guard. He proved an accurate shot as well as an excellent floor man. His dribbling was a feature of the games.

Cornelius Schneidau
Forward
Playing his final season with the Greenies, Connie was a dependable and experienced performer. A fighter under the basket, he was a good man in getting the ball away from the opposition, and had an excellent eye for the hoop.

Augustus Clark
Center
Though he played little this season, the future holds bright things for Gus. With a polish acquired by experience, he should develop into a real star.

Rayford Mullins
Guard
"Moon" had to divide his time between basketball and boxing, and consequently did not see much service during the season. A great defensive player and a fine floor man, "Moon" has a good future.

1932 Varsity Track Squad

Fritz Oakes,
Track Coach
While Tulane’s track and field representatives failed to defend successfully their 1931 title last year, the Greenies nevertheless had another good season on the cinders, which was fittingly climaxed by Don Zimmerman’s fine showing in the national A. A. U. championships.

The Green Wave made its first appearance at the Southern Conference indoor meet at Chapel Hill, March 12, capturing fourth place in the team scoring, although only four men represented Tulane.

Zimmerman shattered his first record of the season by vaulting 13 feet 2 1/2 inches, while Captain "Foots" de Coligny captured second place in the high hurdles and fourth place in the lows, and Nick Bouzon was fourth in the quarter mile. "Nebby" Miller, who had not rounded into his best form, failed to place.

Alabama met the Greenies in the first dual meet at the Tulane oval, held in conjunction with the Tulane Interscholastic Relays, and performed splendidly before the large gathering which turned out to witness this double attraction.

Zimmerman broad-jumped over 24 feet, besides winning the pole vault, and de Coligny and Darrell Pischoff also won two events each. The final score was 60 to 52, with the Greenies on the long end.

Auburn’s fleet-footed Plainsmen gave Coach Oakes’ proteges their worst defeat of the season the following week, running away with the meet, 70 1/2 to 41 1/2. Captain de Coligny had the misfortune to trip over a high hurdle while leading in his special event, but the race had no particular bearing on the final outcome.

Mississippi A. and M. next opposed the Greenies at Tulane’s stadium, but Zimmerman, de Coligny, and Pischoff, each with a pair of victories, featured a 61-51 victory over the Aggies.

A meet between the varsity and the freshmen featured the preparations for the annual Tulane-L. S. U. track
Don Zimmerman flies again, sans pole.

Rivalry. Francis Payne was the big star of the afternoon, winning the shot put and the discus as the varsity swept almost every event on the card.

Adrien Maught, Nick Bouzon, and "Nebby" Miller showed their best form of the year, while Zimmerman turned into a dash man to win the hundred in fast time.

The clash with the Tigers found the upstate team, with their strongest squad in years, set to avenge the Greenies' victory of last year. Sensational finishes were the order of the day, in the field events as well as on the cinders.

64 to 48 was the Tigers' final margin of victory, but that is only half the story. Don Zimmerman was high point scorer of the afternoon, winning the pole vault and placing second in the javelin and the broad jump. Don surpassed the Conference vault record by three inches.

"Foots" de Coligny ran superbly against the Conference hurdle champion, Al Moreau, finishing in a dead heat in the high sticks, and defeating his rival in the lows. Darrell Pischoff ran beautifully to nose out L. S. U.'s Holderman in the two-mile race, but was himself nosed out in the one-mile.

"Nebby" Miller ran around the field to win the 440 in splendid time; "Lefty" Haynes triumphed in the javelin, and Garland Taylor tied for first in the high jump. Francis Payne broke the Conference discus record, but Jack Torrance, L. S. U. man-mountain, heaved the platter even further to win.

Sixth place was the best the Greenies could garner in defense of their Conference title. L. S. U., with 38 points, led the field, while Tulane scored 16 points.

Zimmerman won the pole vault, as expected, and came fifth in the broad jump, but the rest of the team fared much worse.
Miller and Haynes were fourth in the 440 and javelin, respectively; de Coligny fourth in both hurdle races; Taylor tied for fourth in the high jump; and Payne was fifth in the discus.

The freshman meet with the Tigers turned out to be a landslide for L. S. U., although Tulane eked out one lone first place in the day's activities.

The Interscholastic Relays, an annual event staged each year by Tulane, assembled a record gathering of the South's outstanding high school athletes. Seven records were broken in 1931, the third time the meet has been staged.

Beta Theta Pi was again winner of the Pan-Hellenic trophy in the interfraternity track and field championships. Charlie Thorne, Delta Tau Delta, was high point scorer of the meet.

Participating in the Olympic try-outs against the greatest field of pole vaulters ever assembled, Zimmerman soared over the bar at 13 feet 10½ inches to tie for third place. In the jump-off, Don failed to make the Olympic team.
A brilliant team, a marvelous coach, and a splendid new stadium conspired in 1931 to definitely establish Tulane, and New Orleans, as one of the tennis centers of the world.

Cliff Sutter, better than ever in his final season of intercollegiate play, returned to Coach Mercer Beasley’s fold to lead the Greenies to their most successful season, and climaxed his career as Tulane’s premier net ace with victories in the Southern and national intercollegiate championships.

While not on a par with its spectacular captain and ranking star, the remainder of the Wave net squad comprised as formidable a team as the country has ever seen, with Charlie Hume, Ed Sutter, Perry Eastman, Warren Doyle, and Harry de Buys exacting heavy toll in the eight matches played.

The frowns of Jupiter Pluvius cast something of a gloom on the scheduled dedication of the new net stadium—a gloom summarily obliterated by the brilliant play of Captain Cliff Sutter in his defeat of Karl Kamrath, Texas star, and of Ed Sutter, Hume, and Eastman, who swept their matches with a team from City Park.

As a result of the inclement weather, the stadium was formally opened the following week with the final match of a “Round Robin” tournament, in which some of the country’s leading players participated, and a series of matches with L. S. U. featuring the day’s play.

Wilmer Allison defeated Cliff Sutter for the “Round Robin” championship, after weathering a hard-fought match with Charlie Hume in the preliminary round. Sutter had defeated Frankie Parker and J. Gilbert Hall to reach the finals. The remainder of the Greenie squad succeeded in defeating the Tigers, 6 to 3.

A strong team from the University of Illinois met the Tulane stars in their next intercollegiate event, but proved an easy victim for Coach Beasley’s aces, who swept all six matches. Cliff Sutter trailed Ed Lejeck, ranking Western player, at 5-6 in the first set, but took the next nine games to win.

The following week the Greenies dropped one match of six to the Piedmont Driving Club of Atlanta, an unbeaten aggregation of Southern stars.

An assembly of nationally ranking players featured the invitational tournament staged by the newly organized Tulane Tennis Club, when the varsity was engaging the University of Texas and Rice Institute on a Southwestern tour.

Wilmer Allison upset the national champion, Ellsworth Vines, in the finals of the tourney, while the two paired to capture the doubles title. Ken Cram, frosh captain, Harry de Buys, Winnie Lodrigues, and Ashton Phelps were Tulanians who participated.

The varsity, with Cliff Sutter and Charlie Hume particularly brilliant, met and conquered their toughest opposition of the season in the Texas and Rice matches, winning four out of six from each team. Cliff won from two of the finest intercollegiate players, Karl Kamrath and Jake Hess, while Charlie won both of his matches.

Journeying to Baton Rouge the following week, the Greenies trounced L. S. U., six matches to none, and then repeated their performance by whitewashing Alabama at Tuscaloosa with similar ease.

The Southern Conference championships were contested at Tulane’s tennis stadium May 11, 12, 13, and 14, with the singles finals at the New Orleans Country Club courts. Cliff Sutter swept through a fine field to win the singles and paired with his brother, Ed, to capture the doubles title.

Cliff defeated Teddy Burwell, defending champion, 6-4, 7-5, 6-3 in the final round. Burwell had previously defeated Ed in five hard sets in the semifinals. Charlie Hume was the victim of an upset, while Perry Eastman played brilliantly before losing to Burwell in an early round.

The doubles final was all Tulane, the Sutter brothers winning in straight sets from Hume and Eastman. And Tulane’s most successful season closed with the Greenies Southern Conference champions for the sixth time in ten years.

The frosh netmen, who practiced with the varsity at the new stadium, gave considerable promise of upholding Tulane tennis tradition, if their play last season can be considered an accurate criterion.

Led by Ken Cram, Nashville star and brother of a former Conference titleholder, the Wavelets won all three matches scheduled, defeating L. S. U. twice and the Gulfport Tennis Club.

The freshmen won three out of four matches from the Tigers at Baton Rouge, and five out of seven matches on the Tulane courts. The Gulfport team met with even worse luck, losing seven out of nine matches to the Greenies.

Captain Ken Cram, Dick Haspel, Ashton Phelps, Louis Cohen, and "Pete" Peterson were the foremost freshman stars, with Cram standing out as a probable Conference champion before he leaves Tulane.

The season was not completed for many of the varsity and freshman players at the close of the school year. Southern tournaments saw quite a few of Coach Beasley's proteges as formidable contenders, while Cliff and Ed Sutter went on to gather national honors.

Cliff, especially, leaving a brilliant series of triumphs in his wake, merited a ranking as the fifth greatest player in the world at the close of the country's tennis wars, and his splendid play in the National Lawn Tennis Championships won him a rating as number three among the United States net aces.

Losing to his great little Southern rival, Bryan Grant, in the national Clay Court Championships, Cliff went on to win the national intercollegiate and Southern titles, defeating Grant both times.

Ed paired with Cliff to win the Southern doubles title, and the two went far in the national Clay Court and intercollegiate championships. The pair won the Delaware State doubles, with Cliff winning the singles.

Cliff went on without Ed to the more important net events. Battling the cream of the country in these major events, the Tulane star won the Atlantic City Invitation, the Huntington Invitation, and the Eastern Grass Court Championships, losing close matches at Southampton and Newport.

Sutter played the best tennis of his career in the National Lawn Tennis Tournament, upon which the national rankings are principally based. Reaching the semi-finals without the loss of a set, and after defeating George Lott and Bunny Austin, among other international stars, Cliff met Ellsworth Vines, now champion of the world.

Cliff was within two points of victory, but Vines rallied to win in one of the longest and hardest matches ever played in this country's championships, 4-6, 8-10, 12-10, 10-8, 6-1. Sutter's magnificent play stamps him as one of Uncle Sam's best bets to bring the Davis Cup back across the ocean.
The return of baseball into Tulane’s athletic repertoire was celebrated last spring, and met with great success despite the fact that the Greenies lost the three scheduled intercollegiate games.

Baseball was abandoned in 1930, after a poor season, because of lack of student interest, and was reinstated last year in the guise of an intramural league, from which fifteen players were chosen to meet L. S. U. in a three-game series at Baton Rouge.

The league, which was more successful, as far as interest is concerned, than varsity baseball had been in several years, was comprised of six teams, each representing a school in the University.

The Physical Education School was the winner, dropping one game out of five played. Medicine, Arts and Sciences, and Engineering finished in a deadlock for the runner-up position, with Law and Commerce trailing.

The all-stars, chosen from the entire league, but selected with regard to intercollegiate regulations, had but two weeks of practice together when they met L. S. U., one of the strongest teams in the Southern Conference.

Defeated, 6 to 2, 5 to 2, and 11 to 10, Coach Ted Bank’s boys performed splendidly. Charlie Kyle and Jimmy Hodgins outpitched the Tiger twirlers, suffering heart-breaking losses which would never have occurred had the Greenies been afforded adequate opportunity to practice as a team.

Other members of the team were Captain “Pinkey” Burvant, Gus Flach, Harold Lemmon, “Peggy” O’Neill, Larry Parker, Winnie Lodrigues, Jose Rodrigues, “Babe” Baker, Dean Allen, Charlie Simon, “Dynamite” Dunn, Louis Boasberg, Leo Ferber, and Charlie Grey. Allain Andry and Joe McCloskey managed the intramural league and the all-star team in fine fashion.

The 1932 Golf Team, captained for the second successive year by Jesse Rainwater, brought new honors to Tulane. The highlights of the season were the defeat of L. S. U. by the most decisive margin in the history of the competition between the Wave and the Tiger, and Captain Rainwater's victory in the Southern Conference championship tournament.

In March the Tulane golfing candidates competed in a 72-hole medal play tournament which was held for the purpose of measuring the ability of the various candidates for the team. The tournament was won by Jack Schwab. Captain Rainwater and Russell Welch did not finish the play in this tournament, while another veteran, Rudolph “Red” Schulze, was unable to participate because of an injured arm.

In the first of the two dual matches on the schedule, Tulane’s club-swingers defeated the L. S. U. team at the Hammond Country Club by the overwhelming score of 17½ to ½. In this match the cards of the four Tulane contestants, Rainwater, Welch, Schulze and Schwab, were each better than the best score turned in by the L. S. U. team.

Two weeks later the team journeyed to Atlanta to meet Georgia Tech, and was defeated by a score of 12½ to 5½. Captain Rainwater continued his fine golf in this match, defeating Frank Ridley of Tech to remain unbeaten in competition. The Tulane team for this match was composed of Captain Rainwater, Jack Schwab, S. C. Collins, Russell Welch, and “Red” Schulze.

In the Southern Conference championships held at Atlanta, Tulane’s defending champions were nosed out by North Carolina and Duke in the team play to finish in third place. Captain Rainwater won the individual title.

Rainwater was runner-up for medalist honors in the tournament. He was forced to display wonderful golf and fine perseverance to overcome the extremely stiff competition which he met in the course of his championship march. Two of his matches went to twenty holes, and he staged a magnificent come-back to defeat McWilliams of Georgia in the finals, one up.

In capturing the championship, Rainwater disposed of, in the order named, Ridley of Georgia Tech, Allen Smith of North Carolina, Merrill of Florida, and Ripley McWilliams of Georgia.

The other Tulanians who played in the tournament were Russell Welch, Rudy Schulze, Jack Schwab, Shelby Friedrichs, and S. C. Collins.

Dr. Frederick Hard, faculty director of golf, was in charge of the team throughout the year, and the success of the season was largely due to his efforts. He afforded the team excellent and efficient management, and his assistance was of material value to the players.

Although several members of the team were scheduled to participate in the national intercollegiate championships at Hot Springs, Virginia, early in the summer, they did not make the trip.

Letters were awarded to Captain Rainwater, Schulze, and Welch.

THIS AND THAT

Intramural Athletics met with great success during the past year. Silver basketballs were awarded, as well as cross-country medals, on a competitive basis.

Interclass Competition for the D. H. Holmes trophy was won by the freshmen in 1932, who downed their sophomore rivals in the first five of the nine events carded.

Interscholastic Relays, held annually at the Tulane track, brought together high school athletes from all over the South in one of the finest Southern prep school exhibitions.

Interfraternity Activities were more popular than ever. Beta Theta Pi took top honors in track, tennis and basketball.

CAPTAIN DOYLESS HILL

National Collegiate Heavyweight Champion and Member U. S. Olympic Boxing Team.

COACH TED BANK

The success of this great team was largely the result of his energy and efforts.
The best-balanced squad of boxers that ever represented Tulane in the ring loomed as strong contenders for the Southeastern Conference championships, after slashing victories in the first four bouts of the season.

The Greenie mittmen had defeated Florida, Mississippi State, the New Orleans Athletic Club, and Alabama when the JAMALAYA went to press, and, with two matches remaining before the Southeastern championships held at the Auditorium March 11 and 12, seemed potential favorites to capture the first Southeastern boxing title.

Captain Doyless Hill, national intercollegiate champion and member of the United States Olympic team, clinched the Florida bouts with a slashing knockout victory over Leo Balinski, 'Gator heavyweight.

"Ding-Dong" Jacobs and Page Tharp, both Southeastern title aspirants, scored easy victories over tough opponents, while Calvin Kissgen, bantamweight, and Gilbert Stancliffe, lightweight, newcomers to the squad, also chalked up victories for the Wave.

Stan Peckham of Florida out-pointed Joe McCloskey in a fine fight, Don Williams defeated John Weed, and "Flash" Miller was kayoed by "Red" Cobbe for the three Florida victories.

The Mississippi State bouts were the closest of the season, Tulane eking out a four-three triumph at Starkville. Joe McCloskey drew with his opponent to reduce the scoring to seven bouts.

Kissgen and Weed won for the Wave, while Hill won by forfeit in the heavyweight class. George Tes-sier clinched the match for Tulane by out-punching "K. O." Bullard, light-heavy slugging ace of the Aggies.

Charlie Houlgrave lost a close decision in his initial start of the season in the lightweight division, while Chandler Page, Southern middleweight champ, and "Battling" Jones were given referee's decisions over Tharp and Jacobs, respectively.

Kissgen and Tharp were the only Greenie losers in the N. O. A. C. bouts, Houlgrave, Jacobs, Weed, and Hill coming through in fine style, as well as Alwyn Justrabo, fighting his first bout in the featherweight class.

The Greenies,fighting three more new men, were in top form for the Alabama bouts, swamping the boys from the Capstone seven to one. The lone Tulane loser was McCloskey, who dropped a close decision to Bama's Stricklen.

Doyless Hill again won by default, while Tharp and Jacobs scored knockouts to establish strong claims. to Southeastern titles. Kissgen was the other veteran to win, easily out-pointing his opponent in the first bout of the evening.

"Putt" Porter, lightweight, Adrien Maught, Junior middleweight, and "Moon" Mullins, light-heavy, were the three newcomers who won.

Coach Ted Bank and his able red-headed assistants, John DeBuys and Henry Menge, each a former Tulane captain, deserve a world of credit for producing such an excellent team as that which represented Tulane in 1933. With bouts against Ole Miss and L. S. U. remaining on the schedule, the Wave seemed, when the JAMBALAYA went to press, to be the team to beat for the Southeastern championship.
Athletics at Newcomb

The Athletic Department of Newcomb includes in its enrollment the entire student body of the college, six hundred and forty-two girls. Its aim is to interest every girl in some form of athletics, and to further this end it presents a wide variety of sports ranging from very strenuous games to the newly installed "rest gymnasium" and sun baths. This year the department has also added two new sports which have caused considerable interest, badminton and deck tennis. They are both variations of the old game of tennis, and have proved very successful.

The official schedule of the Athletic Department opens in the fall with Newcomb basketball, which occupies the attention of the girls all the first term. This game holds special interest for Newcomb because it has won interest not only for the college but also for Miss Baer, who invented it, among other colleges over the country. At the beginning of the second semester, the hockey season commences, affording plenty of excitement for girls who enjoy swift movement and real exercise.

Hockey is followed by the equally zestful Spalding basketball, in which Newcomb's aspiring young Amazons participate until March, when the champions are rewarded with the coveted banner.

For the Newcombine who can resist the lure of the field, the Athletic Department offers dancing classes in which she may appear either in delightfully colored and abbreviated costumes for training and practice in aesthetic dancing, or in the more plebeian regulation shirt and bloomers to clog and tap, as the spirit moves. In the Junior dancing class the Juniors are trained for the most colorful event in their year, the May Day pageant they present annually to the Seniors.

Swimming and diving classes are a regular event in the Newcomb Pool, and their final event, the swimming meet in May, with its characteristic grace and skill, is one of the highlights of the athletic year.

March ends on a triumphant note with the well-known Gym Night, wherein the stars and champions of every phase of gymnastics, fencing, dancing, and apparatus work perform for the combined entertainment and amazement of the New Orleans public. A unique feature of the evening is found in the antics of the clowns chosen from each class who, spurred on by the amusement and appreciation of their audience, add much to the evening. There is a further reason for the personal interest Newcomb feels in Gym Night: each class presents a stunt in competition for a prize, which is awarded at the end of the evening, and the competitive spirit is felt keenly both by the participants and by the audience.

The Varsity-Alumnae tennis match is always of interest to the whole school, and is followed by the famous Tennis Tea, a social climax.

After the excitement of the Varsity-Alumnae tennis games, the Varsity baseball team challenges the Faculty to one of the season's most stirring games. This event presents a really remarkable opportunity of seeing representatives of our estimable and usually dignified faculty hitting on all eight.

The track meet is the last event on the athletic schedule. It is the culmination of every athletic event, and proclaims the championships in jumping, shotput, the dash, discus-throwing, and the minor sports of bowling, of the now socially correct ping-pong, of horseshoes, archery, and tennis.

The track meet is held on Field Day, and marks the end of the year's activities of the Athletic Department. The awards and prizes for the winners of the games and events are presented on Tulane Trophy Night in the latter part of May, which marks the formal closing of the Department of Physical Education.

We believe in the tenets of abiding truth, which is the guiding star of our order. We believe in the helping hand which is the bar which binds us in our calling. We believe in the unity of service to one another which lends to the weary a word of cheer, to the poor a portion of our share, to the weak a need of pity, to the stricken a voice of comfort, to the old a memory of youth, and to the wayfarer a help along to the journey's end.

Our emblem will always be an inspiration to duty, remembering it stands for excellence in all things, purity of purpose and honesty of method and effort, with the blessing of an Alma Mater upon each who wears her badge of honor. May our lives lie among the stars which light the way to the great mystery and may we so live that when we reach the end of the road we may find the veil, which parted, leads to the height of everlasting peace.

The Alumni are the life blood of the University. It is the endeavor of this Association to further all University interests and to maintain a contact between the alumni and their Alma Mater.

Aside from the New Orleans organization, our alumni clubs are formed to give us concentrated strength in various sections of the country, and through the prestige of this membership, influence prospective students favorably toward Tulane.

Membership in the Association is open to all graduates and ex-students of the University. All loyal Tulanians are urged to become members of the Association either through the Annual or better still the Life Membership plan.

The Bequest Insurance Plan will be presented to the graduating classes for their approval. The benefits to be derived by you through your participation therein will be explained in due course, by the representatives of this Association.

The Tulane Student Council is composed of the student body presidents of the various colleges of the University. These officials, elected every spring, come into office at Commencement and remain until the next Commencement. The council was organized in March, 1915, at the inception of student government at Tulane, and has functioned for eighteen years as the supreme law-making and judicial body relative to all phases of student affairs.

The purpose of the Student Council is "To promote among the students a loyalty to the ideals and traditions of the University; to promote a spirit of cooperation among the several colleges and departments of the University; and to give the University a definite and concrete basis upon which a representative form of Student Government may be built and maintained."

The Moot Court Competition is the medium through which law students receive practice in brief-writing and argument. It also teaches the use of a legal library and makes the study of law more real and more dramatic. The competition is, to a certain extent, modeled after the Ames Competition at the Harvard Law School, in that the entire student body is divided into clubs. At the present there are four clubs composed of seniors and juniors. New members are elected from the Freshman Class during the second semester, but the points earned by them do not count in the competition. Only the points earned by the teams composed of senior and junior members when they argue against teams from other clubs determine the standing of the clubs which they represent. It takes two years to complete a competition, the points made during the preceding year being added to the senior points of the current year. The two clubs having the greatest number of points argue in the final round, and the name of the winning club with all its members is placed on the marble plaque in the law library. The Martin Club, represented by Jack Williamson and Morris Shapiro, was the winner of the 1931-32 final competition.

The Moot Court Board of Advisers has exclusive jurisdiction of Moot Court work. It is composed of seniors and juniors of the College of Law, chosen by the faculty because of their rank as honor students in their respective classes. Under their direction, work which has received the approval and praise of some of the leading members of the Louisiana Bar has been accomplished.

A SLIGHT MESSAGE TO YOU TULANEITES

From that Old Slight-Message Senderer

COLONEL
JAMBUEL Q. STOOPALAYA

It seems to me that in times like these there is nothing worse than a message of cheer and good will. So mine follows, and may you make the most of it, the devil snatching the hindmost.

Several years later, many of you lads will be cast out upon the world to do or die. The benign influence of your college course will suddenly disappear from your curriculum. But there is an antidote, boys, there is indeed an antidote. Buy a bottle of Stoopnagle’s Benign Influence Saver and your curriculum will be as good as new.

After reading the first two paragraphs of this Message-to-the-Students, I suppose you’re about ready to think that I’m just kidding. Well, I am. But you just hold your horses, lads, and out of the maelstrom of uncertainty and the labyrinth of un-easiness will come Dawn,—that pleasing dawn from which there is no solace. Solace, get together and pull for dear old Tulane before its Tulate. (Care for that nifty?)

Sooner or later, there’s going to come something out of this message which will actually astound you. But not until I’m warmed up, though, mind you. All this riff-raff and folderol is sort of like the cart before the horse. Now I’m getting to a point where my real message comes in. Listen:

You seniors, you have nearly completed your college course. You’re either better for it or worse in spite of it. You have been brought face to face with everything but realism. You have seen theories day in and day out. When you go out looking for a job, remember that all the Latin and Greek and Roumanian and calculus and stuff that you were exposed to won’t help you one single bit.

Take me, for instance. I took an arts course in college and turned out to be a comedian. That shows you can never tell whether your college course is going to have a good or a bad influence on you. You can see what it did to me. But please remember just one thing before you present yourself to a waiting world. I repeat—I took an arts course and turned out to be a radio comedian. Just be sure that you don’t take a comedian’s course and turn out to be an art.

And before I close entirely, I simply want to say to Mr. F. R. Q. J. H. Feltoph Randus that I appreciate his kindness in inviting me to advise you lads the way I have, but just let me suggest that you take it all with a grain of salt, two aspirin tablets and a dose of Bromo Seltzer named Herman.

If they print the picture they asked me to send along and you like it, it’s me. If you don’t like it, it’s Bud.

Well, goodbye, I’m sure.

COL. LEMUEL Q. STOOPNAGLE.
Every bank has a personality. A character different from all other banks. It may be size. It may be tradition. It may be age. It may be one of a number of things or a combination of all of them.

At the American Bank it is the spirit of friendly service. Here is how one man described it: "When you walk into the American Bank you can sense the atmosphere of friendliness. The officers are not secluded behind railings. The tellers are not behind wire cages. Every employee and every officer you meet knows you by name and seems glad to be of service."

Years ago we adopted the slogan "That Friendly Bank." Now, day in and day out we enjoy the privilege of living up to it. New accounts can be opened at any desk. Our officers are always directly available to the public. For this reason our customers feel free to ask advice and counsel whenever they need it.

The American Bank IS a Friendly Bank. We should like you to come in and see for yourself. Remember, new accounts can be opened at any desk and you will receive 4% interest on your savings. We have no branches.

THE FRATERNITIES GO COMMUNISTIC

War banners gleamed in the bright Southern sunshine as the various squadrons composed of Tulane's best and most virile manhood marked time to the strains of the olive and blue clad band, now a gorgeous contingent of the great university's contribution to a noble cause—"Communism." Every head in the fairly bristling ranks was tilted to a proud angle.

Had not Tulane a right to be proud when her noble son "Windy" Whitten was the instigator of it all? Had not that great comrade, whose monstrous communistic present was born of an humble socialist origin, shown student and faculty alike that bloodshed is a noble thing and that Tulane must revolt if the world be saved?

Cries of, "O Kay, Comrade," sung out with Winchellian vigor, rocked the campus as the various fraternities and organizations assembled their fighting arrays.

The resounding battle cry of "Woogla" called attention to the Beta regiment over which flowed the fierce Pink and Blue. There the great Colonels Don Zimmerman and Snick Schneidau stood resplendently impatient while the dignant Corporal Jebby Davidson tried to instil order in the DeBuys platoon.

An inhuman sound from the Sigma Chi ranks turned all attention in that direction. Everyone wondered whether the Sig War Eagle was loose or whether it was just the orchestra-leading group on another jag. "Newsie" Burke, however, soon spread the story that the noise was merely induced by news that Colonel Nollie Felts was declared ineligible to fight because he once won some candy in a shooting gallery.

A great cloud of dust heralded the approach of the Phi Delt contingent. Fagged by their long journey from the Ursuline Wilds the entire group was supported by the Tessier brothers. Each carried eighteen weary comrades while "Tough John" O'Connor led the way. The veteran Evans of Rugby tagged along several miles back.

With this last arrival in camp, the procession began to move past the reviewing stand on Gibson Hall steps. There sat General Whitten among his aides. There were: Buck Private "Dicky" Stephenson; Eddie Bechtel, better known as "The Massive Corporal"; Bonart; a guy named Willmer; and several admirals named Jahnke.

A blare of boy scout bugles announced each division as it filed past and took its place to await

"UP and OVER"
IN A BIG WAY

- Smart young men who are economically minded but who place style above everything else, take to Godchaux's Hot Spell Suits with a speed that's staggeringly complimentary to Godchaux's.

GODCHAUX'S "HOT SPELL" SUITS

Good looking... comfortable... tailored in our own factory in New Orleans to retain their shape and distinctive appearance, these Hot Spell Suits have practically become a by-word among well-groomed young men.

the final commands. The general greeted each with a hearty "Whatta y' say?"

The band struck the tune "Violets" (Editor's Note: Not "Sweet Violets") as the first group came up. Crooning lustily, the disciples of Vallee marched by, only occasionally interrupted by that decided private, Milto Phillips, who couldn't follow the intricate 1-2-3-4 of marching time. "Lookit all our football players," delightedly screamed the handsome Sergeant Chambers as they went by.

Next came the Dekes, each wearing a corsage of their national flower—the pansy. "Rock" Isacks led the way with the same dash characteristic of him in all conquests—whether of heart or Communism. The great rushers, Cleveland and Bartlett, herded along a group of short-pants rushees and a solid McCloskey phalanx brought up the rear.

Noise attended the passage of the drawling and brawling Kappa Sigs. Gigolos, country boys, and an Athlete composed the ranks, and they filed by supporting each other. Lieutenant Habans, alone, walked without a lurch. Posters carried high, told the world "108 Chapters"; "Biggest Lodge Going"; "Safety in Numbers," etc.

The rhythmic click of castinets accompanied by the swish of gourds introduced the Phi Iota Alpha caballeros. They were worked into a Latin frenzy at the very thought of a revolution, for some of Cuba's best insurgents were numbered among them. Rene Martinez, Julio Castellanos, and Alvarado each led a faction and vied for leadership. Internal strife prevailed and for the moment Communism was forgotten.

At this point, Lieutenant Bonart stepped from the stand—inspiration was needed, that was certain, the spirit must be kept up. He led a cheer of "Yea Communism, Nice Work" and resumed his seat with the placid smile of one who knows he has come through.

Swelling with pride for their illustrious brother, the S. A. M.'s glided by. They were proud of other things too—a house, after years of homelessness; membership in Old Regulars; the Mintz boys, and Kierr. Happily, they smiled on.

"Hail, the Dramatic Guild," shouted General Whitten, greeting the next group. Then blushing he corrected, "I mean the Glee Club." His face now a fiery red, he mumbled, "Aw hell, it's A. T. O." "Tha's O. K., comrade," boomed the resounding voice of Major Charles Marshall as the splendid soldiers flashed by; "Joe Gum" Kammer was resplendent in a purple and red uniform—no somber khaiki for him.

A stalwart group, toughened by a nomadic life (for they change abode yearly), came into view. It was the Pi K. A. contingent and was headed by the stern Colonel Red Williamson. "How ya like this snappy crew?" asked Red. "They're trained

There'd be NO NEED FOR A & P
If you could deal direct with the farmer

In the "good old days" what the farmer received for the food he raised, and what the housewife paid for it, were exactly equal.

But as towns and cities grew, it became impossible for the farmer to sell direct to you and methods of handling food became complex.

There grew up a clumsy, round-about system with many unnecessary expenses and profits.

The result—The farmer received less but you paid more.

This gave A & P its opportunity—to bring food direct from food producers to you for one small profit.

By cutting out numerous wastes A & P is able to charge the housewife less, and pay the farmer a larger share of the retail price.

A & P bridges the gap between the farmer and you.

the Marine way—like I got mine in the Resoives!” Despite the rigid discipline, Dave McNeill and Lee Nesbitt were somewhat unruly.

A monstrous banner hid the oncoming Phi Kappa Sig crew. “We pledged thirty men once” read the bold print, while scratched in small letters by some candid and conscience-stricken member were the words “Nobody else wanted them.” “Cheese” Keith, perennial Phi Kap, and Little Monk Simons kept the boys in order until the stand was passed. Then they were allowed their usual rowdiness.

Clad in tattered Confederate uniforms, the K. A.’s, gentlemen of the South, paraded. Sticklers for tradition, they were led by Fanny Payne disguised as General Robert E. Lee. Their gentle birth was reflected in the songs they sang: “Little Red Wing”; “Drink, Chug-A-Lug,” etc. Private Sonny Westfeldt and Dicky Kehoe led the singing.

Kappa Nu was the next to pass, but the scintillating Major “Sam” Shinbaum was the only one noticed. He eclipsed all others in his splendour.

A dull murmur of discontent came from the approaching Sigma Nu ranks. They formed a snake dance and were led by Captain Eric Guilbeau, but his “cajun” orders could not be understood. So K. K. Miazza, rear rank private, was politicking for command and at the same time Corporal Johnny Everett was trying to make some of the brothers march near “Gigolo” Muth. The general and his aides sighed with profound relief when the bedlam had passed.

Lending local color to the magnificent scene, the Lambda Phi’s swaggered by the stand. They brandished all manner of athletic equipment and carried their leader, Major Doyless Hill, on their shoulders. Hill wore Olympic garb and Rudy Mc-Bride and Whitey Hall fanned him as they passed.

Straggling alone came Mallory Read—the only Sigma Pi not in the band. He wore the happy grin of all Sigma Pi’s for they no longer wicked Arthurians but real frat boys.

A squadron of all privates next approached the stand. They all flipped nickels with one hand and carried racing forms in the other. Finally, Stanford Hyman won all the money so they just read the racing forms. The ranks abounded with Friedmans.

Unnoticed until they had almost passed, the meek little Delta Sigma Phi’s were stopped abruptly by the general. Colonel Preacher Roberts plead for the group to be allowed to return to their books. “We don’t countenance such vulgar pursuits,” he said. “What would our illustrious alumni think? Take Pizzano, for instance.”

General Whitten turned the next squadron back for “total lack of military appearance or bearing.” So, dejected, the S. P. E.’s went home—just a bunch of Joe Colleges. Captain Lottinger and Goldman led the way.

An engineering battalion, Sigma Phi Delta, was the last arrival and they were severely reprimanded by the general. “Don’t you know engineers lead armies?” he asked. Insulted by the harsh words, the whole bunch harmonized on a loud razzberry and departed.

After waiting twenty minutes for the Deltas to show up, General Whitten decided that his good brothers were drinking beer and proceeded with the final commands. “Stand up for your rights,” he bellowed, amid loud “tsk-tsk’s” from the Y. M. C. A. “Down with everything! Now go out and fight.” With this dismissal, the General left to join his Delta brethren.

TULANE UNIVERSITY OF LOUISIANA

1430 TULANE AVENUE
NEW ORLEANS, LA.
Float No. 1. Aesculapius.

The Greek God of Healing, but as this same float is used every year, nobody pays any attention to it.

Float No. 2. Progress.

Showing the magnitude of growth of medical science in the last few years, but nobody pays any attention to it either.

Float No. 3. Phi Chi.

This float depicts the New Orleans Auditorium, thus representing the size of the Phi Chi house, if they had any. (Even then only a few of the members could get in.) Also, (men are known to have made their way through school by introducing brothers of this order to each other). Leland Johnston stands at the front, dictating messages on postcards to O. K. DuBoise. David Thornhill and Jimmy Webb are placed in a prominent anterior position so that the crowd may cheer them. Through the windows can be seen a carnival ball in progress, and the debutantes are thronged about Frank Ogden. Carl Wahl and Piggy Thigpen have large Newcomb badges on, and Jocko Giles stands at the door so that nobody can carry anything intoxicating in.

Float No. 4. Alpha Kappa Kappa.

A miniature Southport Club is the theme of this float, and many games of chance can be seen in progress. Pee-Wee Sellers, Volney Liddell, and L. D. Newman are seen arguing violently over a pachesi game, and Shrimp Mason, Perry Melvin, and Grandma Siler blushingly play dominoes. (What kind?) Huey (W. M.) Long works crossword puzzles, (while the multitude cheers). Ben Morrison, Henry Gahagan, and Johnny Bostick wear Newcomb banners.

AESCULAPIUS

Its Mardi Gras Parade

Float No. 5. Theta Kappa Psi.

A huge barn, without lights, water or heat, and with several hundred partitions in it, is the representation of their lodge hall. They have one, and own it. (Nobody else would.) Eldredge Carroll was supposed to be on the float, but got on the A. D. Pi's by mistake. The float is managed by James Hutchins, and Euclid Isbell and J. D. Thames give it an air of distinction. Roy Roberts, Gregory Smith, and Doc White tied for first in the chapter's own Newcomb contest.

Float No. 6. Nu Sigma Nu

This is the only float that has horsepower furnished actually by horses and in order to carry out the motif, the figure is a huge horse, as they used in the Trojan war. No word of explanation is offered, though on the platform may be seen Ed Cailleteau, Ed Meek, Brig Craft, Ham Davis, Carl Hartung, and Berry Bowman, who stroll about nonchalantly. The Oklahoma trio: Carlock, Johnson, and McCurdy ride the steeds in true buccaroo fashion.

Float No. 7. Phi Rho Sigma.

For economy’s sake, this organization did not have a float made, but instead had their big chapter-owned Cadillac, with the entire chapter (of about twenty-five) in it. It is just as big as the floats, though. Various anatomical parts may be seen projecting from every crack, and while Hume Thomason pilots the craft, Red Stritzinger holds his hand over the license plate.

Float No. 8. Phi Delta Epsilon.

By some mistake this float is marked Sigma Alpha Mu, but it’s probably all right. The thought of this seems to be a huge harp (type played in the mouth), Harpo Marx David Monsky plays, and Meyer Gurdin and Harold Rothlendler and Oscar Blitz sing.

Float No. 9. Phi Lambda Kappa.

Three large, golden balls, suspended from a central stand, stands out on this, and on them sit, respectively (the word is used here meaning in order), Irving Machlin, Solomon Winokur, and Robert Segal. They throw out little tickets to the populace.

Float No. 10. Alpha Epsilon Iota.

This order has no float, either. Irma Henderson pushes a small wheelbarrow upon which sit all the other four members of the lodge. One is strongly reminded of Float No. 3, Phi Chi, and cries of “Copy Cat, Copy Cat” ring out in the chilly February air.

Float No. 11.

A little old two-bit wagon with some brushes painted on the side of it, and a huge placard which boldly proclaims, “These were NOT designed by Soule.”

Two bands, Celestin playing “Nearer to Thee,” and Piron playing Chopin’s funeral dirge, end the parade.

SOPHIE ROLLINS

“The word ‘Council’... ain’t it pretty... I sure belong to lots of ‘em, too... and A. O. Pi... an activity gal... that’s me.”

JEBBY DAVIDSON

“Who’s a politician... why, I’m the Pride of Lafayette... well, maybe I pull strings... but all Betas do that... I’m student body presy... Law Review... N. S. F. A. secretary... O. D. K... etc.”

JACK SCHWAB

EN years of service represents quite a record, when it is satisfactory service. And the record which Molloy Made Covers have established for service on the Jambalaya is a record of satisfactory service.

The last ten issues of the Jambalaya, beginning with the 1923 issue, have been cased in a Molloy Made Cover. The 1933 book repeats this same record.

This service to the Jambalaya staff during these past ten years is an indication of the flexibility of this organization. No matter what your problem may be from a standpoint of design, from a standpoint of budgetary limitations, from a standpoint of material and workmanship, the Molloy organization is prepared to meet your requirements.

Complete information and data will be furnished you on request.
