Foreword

The efforts of the staff have been to objectively portray the various facets of university life. If the student body considers this presentation to be both just and vivid, we, the editors, have achieved our purpose.
The heart of the university since 1894. This portal is both the beginning and end of college life.
It is here that the aspiring student builds the foundation for a career in the field of medical science.
THE COLLEGE OF ENGINEERING, WHERE THE RINGING ANVIL AND THE HUMMING DYNAMO MARK THE PROGRESS OF SCIENCE
Administration Building

This stately hall is a most appropriate setting for the constant activity of Newcomb student life.
Dedication

To Dr. John MacLaren McBryde, Professor of English and Dean of the Graduate School, we dedicate this volume, in recognition of his broad scholarship and in appreciation of his deep interest in student affairs.

In Memory of

ALBERT BLEDSOE DINWIDDIE
PRESIDENT, TULANE UNIVERSITY
1918-1935
Albert Bledsoe Dinwiddie, President of Tulane University since 1918, died at his home in New Orleans on November 21st, 1935, at the age of sixty-four years.

He was born in Lexington, Kentucky, on April 3rd, 1871, of a distinguished Virginia family. His education was obtained at the University of Virginia, from which institution he received his doctorate in 1892; later studying abroad at the University of Goettingen. His early teaching was spent in several university preparatory schools in Virginia; becoming professor of mathematics at Southwestern Presbyterian University in 1896, he remained there for ten years prior to his coming to Tulane.

Dr. Dinwiddie became Assistant Professor of Applied Mathematics and Astronomy at Tulane University in 1906, and, after several promotions in rank, became Dean of the College of Arts and Sciences in 1911, and in 1918 was elected President of the University at a very critical time in its history. As a result of his constructive leadership, the University took on new life and became the fine institution which it is to-day chiefly through his efforts and careful planning.

As director of war training at Tulane in 1917 and in 1918, he made a notable record, and in conducting the 1920 endowment campaign, he accomplished an almost impossible task.

During his administration important donations were received from various sources, many new buildings were erected, and several new and important departments were inaugurated.

Dr. Dinwiddie loved every form of outdoor sports, and was especially interested in all phases of athletics at the University.

His constant interest in, and fatherly solicitude for, the welfare of the faculty, staff, and students of the University endeared him to them to a marked degree.

His eminent leadership in all educational movements and his sound judgment in civic matters, despite his modesty and simplicity, made him a valued citizen to this city and community.

In his death the cause of higher education in general, and in Tulane University in particular, has lost a devoted friend.

In full recognition of his achievements, the 1936 Jambalaya hereby records its sincere appreciation of his life.
The 102nd Academic Year at Tulane University has been marked by decided advancement in all departments of the University despite the serious blow dealt to the school by the untimely death of Dr. Albert Bledsoe Dinwiddie, an able and beloved figure in modern education. Dr. Douglas S. Anderson, dean of the College of Engineering, as acting president has continued the excellent work of Dr. Dinwiddie.

A notable sign of improvement was the addition of forty-nine new faculty members to the various departments of the University. The Schools of Medicine, both graduate and undergraduate, were the chief beneficiaries of this addition. The staff of the undergraduate School of Medicine led the list with twenty-two new members, while the Graduate School of Medicine added eleven.

Designed to give aid to the bewildered freshman, a system of faculty advisers was inaugurated during the past year in the College of Arts and Sciences. This plan was adopted after much thought and consideration on the part of the faculty, as there had long been a feeling that there should be more opportunity for individual advice. Hitherto the student and the faculty met only at the time of registration and in the classroom.

A group of twenty professors volunteered their services and students were assigned to men who taught subjects in which they were most interested. The advice given was primarily of a scholastic nature, but, if so desired, the instructors gave advice on personal matters.

Dr. Frederick Hard of the department of English was appointed Chairman of the Committee. He was assisted by Dr. Marten ten Hoor, Dr. Daniel S. Elliott, Professor Robert L. Menuet, Dr. Herbert E. Buchanan, and Dr. Williams M. Mitchell.

Another innovation was the compulsory intelligence test taken by freshmen in the College of Arts and Sciences. The purpose of such tests is to determine why so large a percentage of students drop out of school in their first or second year due to their inability to meet scholastic requirements. By such examination it is hoped that it will be discovered whether lack of native ability or poor preparation cause the majority of these failures, the idea being to weed out those unable to obtain the full benefit of a college education before they have wasted both their own and the University’s time. However, there is no ruling which provides that the student failing this test shall be compelled to leave school.

The tests have been installed to last for a period of four years, during which time their findings will be correlated with the percentile average of the student and their validity as a source of prediction will be checked.

Dr. John M. Fletcher, head of the Psychology Department, was put in charge of these intelligence tests, aided by his assistant, Dr. George T. Kalif. The intelligence tests were supplemented by placement tests to determine the student’s ability in certain fields, and the extent of knowledge acquired by him in his chosen field.

At the beginning of the school term, a series of radio broadcasts were begun following the suggestion of a committee of the Alumni Association and the Athletic Council. The original plan was for weekly broadcasts, but the first programs were so successful that as many as two or three were broadcast every week. Various members of the University’s faculty, representing all departments, presented fifteen minute talks on educational, but noncontroversial, topics in their respective fields. In this manner, a wide variety of subjects were covered and a good deal of interest was aroused not only in university circles but in the general radio public. The facilities of station WSMB were utilised. Professor George E. Simmons, head of the Journalism Department, was selected as Chairman of the Committee in charge and was assisted by Mr. Joseph Kileen of the Alumni Association and Mr. Albert Wachenheim of the Athletic Council.

A highly prized addition to Tulane’s research facilities was made in the acquisition of a card file catalogue of approximately one million two hundred and eighty thousand volumes contained in the Library of Congress. Tulane is the only depository in this section of the country and was selected over several neighboring universities contending for the honor. By means of the alphabetical filing system, a book may be selected and sent for, the only charge being that of return postage. This system gives the scholar the opportunity of tapping the most extensive source of research material in the country with a minimum of time, effort, and expense. Dr. Harold N. Lee of the Newcomb faculty arranged and filed the cards with the aid of some forty-odd workers from both Newcomb and Tulane.

Tulane University was selected as host for the thirty-third annual meeting of the Association of American Law Schools, which convened at New Orleans on December 27-30, 1935. Dr. Rufus C. Harris, dean of the College of Law, was the presiding officer at this convention. Every member of the college faculty took an active part in the proceedings.

These were the highlights of the past academic year, but an advancement that has a perhaps deeper and more significant meaning was the increased interest in the academic side of university life demonstrated on the part of the student body. The student body as a whole directed its effort toward the improvement and the extension of the curricula in several fields, notably in that of the social sciences. Headed by the responsible element among the students, this action could not in any sense be regarded as radical.

In summary, the year may be considered to have been both satisfactory and progressive. There is little doubt that if the second century in the life of Tulane continues as auspiciously as the first two years, the University will retain the high regard held of it in southern and national scholastic circles.

A complete roster of faculty members for the departments whose deans are pictured above will be found immediately following the advertisements.

Activities
To today's collegian—student, leader, and man of affairs; may this book within a book, a record of his achievements on the campus, spur him to a higher ambition in broader fields.
"We, the students of the Tulane University of Louisiana, confident of our ability to conduct satisfactorily our lives and undertakings at the University, but recognizing the value of organization in assisting the fulfillment of our several purposes and in assuring the responsible performance of those functions which concern us as a body, do hereby declare ourselves a body politic and do adopt this constitution."

So reads the preamble of the constitution of the Associated Students of The Tulane University of Louisiana. Under this document has been set up a system of student self-government which, if not ideal, has at least proven adequate in conducting the myriad student affairs.

Selected by student vote, the Tulane Student Council is the supreme student governing body on the campus. This Council is comprised of one representative from each of the five colleges of the University in which members of the student body pay the compulsory student fee, and Newcomb College.

It is this student fee, paid by all except certain exempt students of the University, which makes possible the various student activities, including publications, dramatics, glee club, band, forensic activities, and others.

In order that Tulane's student activities may be conducted in an efficient business-like manner, the office of the graduate manager of student activities was established in 1925, ten years after the organization of the first student council in March, 1915. J. H. Randolph Feltus, LL.B., incumbent, is the fifth to hold the position of graduate manager. His predecessors include Albert E. Holleman, Major Frederick Fox, Captain John Barkley, and Calvert G. de Coligny. The graduate manager is assisted by a secretary. The present secretary, Arlene Zink Martin, A.B., Newcomb, has served under each of the five managers and is the third to hold the position.

The constitution provides that the graduate manager shall act as agent for the council in all matters, act in an advisory capacity to all students and organizations on the campus, follow directions of the council, keep all records and accounts of financial transactions of all organizations drawing funds from the student fee, and provide for the establishment annually of a calendar to contain all important activity dates.

The structure of Tulane student government administration is not unlike that of a modern corporation. The council sits bi-weekly as a board of directors, to discuss policies, make appropriations, etc., with the assistance of reports and advice of the graduate manager. The latter, in turn, devotes his full time to studying the problems of the various campus organizations and activities and of the student body as a whole, conducting their routine business and attempting to improve their functions for the betterment of student life.

THE TULANE UNIVERSITY STUDENT COUNCIL
As a prominent educator once said: "A university can grow no faster than the loving ambition of its sons and daughters. Its successful work may attract admiration. It will enlist friends. But the driving wheel of steady progress is the enthusiastic, untiring ambition of its Alumni."

It is the endeavor of this Association to provide for the University an organized body of alumni which will further all university interests and serve as a means of expression for Alumni who are interested in the forward progress of their Alma Mater.

Alumni Clubs have been formed in various sections of the United States which provide a source of contacts for the young alumnus, a continuing connection with the affairs of the University and prospective students through the prestige of their membership.

Membership in the Association is open to all graduates and ex-students of the University. All loyal Tulanians are urged to become members either through the Annual, Life Membership or Bequest Insurance Plan.

The Bequest Insurance Plan has been in operation for a short period of time. It is designed to provide a means whereby an alumnus can aid his University without placing a financial burden upon himself or his estate. A representative of the Association will fully explain details of the Bequest Insurance Plan to the Graduating Class.

Your "Class Agent" has or will explain more fully the benefits to be derived from your membership and participation in the activities of the Alumni Association.
The Tulane University Rooters' Klub was formed at the University in 1932 for the purpose of furthering school spirit. Membership in the Klub is limited to fifty students, and is granted only to those students elected to the presidency in the Freshman and Sophomore classes of the University, campus leaders, and outstanding students of merit.

During the current football season the Klub carried out, very successfully, card displays at the Auburn, Florida, Colgate, and Louisiana State games. Besides sponsoring these displays, the Klub also aids in pep meetings and the selection of cheerleaders for each season. Another important function of this organization is the meeting and extending of welcomes to all visiting teams, thus forming closer relationships between the rival student bodies and universities. In this way, the Tulane University Rooters' Klub has attained an important and secure position on the campus.
Written and financed by students alone, The Tulane Hullabaloo is the official weekly publication of the Tulane Student Body. Its editor-in-chief and business manager are appointed by a publications board created by the Student Body Constitution, and they in turn appoint their own staffs of assistants.

Two main objectives guided the editors of the thirty-first volume in their daily work; first, complete campus coverage, and, second, fostering of those student activities which contribute to a well-rounded university life. How well and how effectively those objectives were carried out remains for the students themselves to judge.

Through the medium of college news agencies, subscribers were kept informed of what was taking place in other universities of the world, particularly those of the United States. It was felt that no publication catering to college readers could be considered complete otherwise.

In addition to recounting the daily happenings of strictly university life, the editors sought to reflect in their news and editorial columns a cross section of undergraduate thought bearing on questions of social and political significance to the nation as a whole. The increasing weight given to student opinion by high government officials and the public at large was considered reason enough for continuing "The Front Row," a front page column inaugurated last year and devoted primarily to this restricted field.

For the first time, the paper was published on regular newsprint in preference to glazed stock. The money saved by this change was used to brighten the make-up with pictures. New sizes and types of headlines and the use of a slightly more sensational make-up contributed further to the distinctly newspaper appearance the editors sought to attain.

Valuable assistance was rendered the regular staff by students of the Department of Journalism, especially in the field of campus news gathering. Advanced classes in editorial, critical and feature writing were also frequent contributors of material.

The retiring editorial staff relinquishes its place with its first ambition of the year as yet unaccomplished. An early effort to change to a semi-weekly frequency went for naught, and the duty of effecting this improvement must be passed on to the incoming staff. Tulane needs a semi-weekly publication and cannot long be denied that need.

Be it remembered that the task of the editors was by no means an easy one. Attempting to please students, faculty, and alumni, it would certainly be surprising if this goal were achieved to perfection.

Much credit for all that The Tulane Hullabaloo was or might have been devolves of right upon the business staff, whose unfailing efforts provided approximately four-fifths of the paper's income. The cost of publication was far in excess of the sum received from the general student fund, and an efficient business staff is the solid foundation on which the very existence of the publication must depend.
The Jambalaya, official yearbook of the Tulane University of Louisiana, has been published annually by the students since 1896, during which period it has been the aim of the editors to present campus life and activities in a natural and interesting manner. In the forty-one years of the book’s existence, the Jambalaya has changed in its physical make-up to a great extent. One would hardly recognize this volume with its many pages of modern photography and modernistic art as the descendant of the hundred-page folio which made its first appearance on the campus back in the days of bustles and horsecars. Through these artistic innovations and the improved methods of printing and engraving, the editors have been able by a variety of themes to portray more accurately the rapid advancement of the University and the increased activities in the daily lives of the students. In the last decade the Jambalaya has been the recipient of several signal honors, including recognition by national authorities as one of the outstanding yearbooks in its group for the year 1933.

Under the guidance of able business managers, the Jambalaya has remained financially solvent during the past years. A portion of the expenses incurred is paid by allotment from the student fund, but most of the revenue is realized from the selling of fraternity and organization pages and advertisements.

The staff of the Jambalaya is selected from the student body at large. the executive staff being composed of the editor-in-chief, the associate editor, the business manager, various minor editors, and many assistants. The major positions, those of editor-in-chief and business manager, are attained through appointment by the Publications Board. They in turn name the other members of their respective staffs. These selections naturally are placed on a high competitive basis — experience, years of service, and individual merit of the students are all considered before advancements are made.

The Tulane Law Review is a legal periodical, published by the faculty and students of the Tulane College of Law. It is a quarterly devoted primarily to civil law, comparative law, and statutory interpretation.

The Board of Editors is composed of junior and senior students attaining the highest scholastic honors in the College of Law. They are assisted by a Board of Alumni Editors, a Board of Advisory Editors, and a staff of contributing editors, who represent the highest type of lawyers and legal scholars in Louisiana and throughout the world.

The opportunities for free discussion of current legal problems, for scholarly research, and for expository writing based upon statutory interpretation, analysis of decision, and synthesis of doctrine, are invaluable to the serious law student who wishes to ground himself in the principles of juristic thought and expression. The Board of Editors pride themselves upon their use of the comparative method, believing that to reveal the praiseworthy qualities as well as the shortcomings of different systems of law and of judicial technique is an effective check upon the tendency to accept any one system as just and immutable. This method is of particular importance in Louisiana, where the civil and the common law have long vied in a struggle for preeminence.

Since its foundation in 1929, as the successor to the Southern Law Quarterly, the Tulane Law Review has gained prominence both in the United States and abroad as a leading journal of civil and comparative law.

Although most of the student material published in the Tulane Law Review is written by members of the Board of Editors, articles are selected solely upon the basis of merit. The pages of the Review are open to all contributions that meet its standards of scholarship, research, and expression.
The Moot Court system in the College of Law is especially designed to train students in the preparation and argument of cases. Technical training in legal research, brief writing and forensics—ordinary tools in the trade of the lawyer—form the foundation of moot court work, but the system gives in addition an even higher type of training.

The moot court rule abolishes the system of precedents and compels argument of cases on their merits. The student must weigh the social factors and must concentrate upon the functioning of the rule of law. This freedom makes the moot court an excellent laboratory for the testing and comparison of the older theories that the law is deductive, formal and arbitrary with the newer theory that the judge exercises a directive force to make law conform with social needs.

The Moot Court Competition at Tulane was patterned after that of the Ames Competition at Harvard. Originally the club system of competition was used, but in order to encourage individual participation and to incite a keener competitive spirit among the students, a system of team competition was inaugurated two years ago. This innovation has proven highly satisfactory.

An important feature of the Tulane Moot Court system is that it is managed by a board of second and third year students selected on the basis of scholastic standing. The student board works under the supervision and with the advice of a faculty committee. The purpose of student management is to develop a sense of public responsibility and to attend to all of the details of the competition.

In the academic year of 1934-1935, the Tulane Moot Court Competition was won by Miss Juanita P. Tansey and Girard J. Fernandez.
Realizing the need of a means of expression to compensate for the lack of a department of dramatics and public speaking in the University, a few ambitious students combined to form a dramatic club on the campus. That was in 1922. After hard work by students in the successive years of its existence, a permanent organization was established at Tulane. Today the thriving Dramatic Guild, numbering some fifty-odd members, would hardly be recognized as having its origin in a small beginning. The policy of this pioneering group has continued, all presentations being staged entirely by the student members; they design, build and paint scenery, and handle the business affairs of the group, as well as act in the plays. The only outside aid comes from the director, who casts the productions and supervises the rehearsals.

For the 1935-1936 season, the Guild was fortunate enough to secure the services of Walter P. Richardson as director, and the members were able to profit greatly from his instruction. Mr. Richardson has both directed and played on the legitimate stage, in the United States and abroad, and was recently director of Le Petit Théâtre du Vieux Carré in New Orleans.

This year saw the inauguration of two new movements in the Guild, the combination with Newcomb and the admission of students to the productions free of charge. Heretofore the Newcomb and Tulane dramatic organizations had produced plays independently, with Tulane having to "borrow" Newcomb girls for feminine roles. Now the two clubs have cooperated so that the best talent from each group can be cast in one production. In the past students were required, along with the general public, to pay a small admission fee to the plays; now a student needs but to present his athletic book to be admitted without any charge. Both these actions met with general approval.

On March 23 of last year, the Guild closed the season with two plays. "Moonshine," by Arthur Hopkins, directed by Thomas J.
Thrifthley, Jr., was a one-act drama of mountaineer folk in which an illiterate old backwoodsman, Luke, feeds and cares for his sworn enemy, who was fleeing from the police. The mountaineer is unaware of the identity of his guest until after his departure, when Luke laboriously spells out the name left by his visitor. A three-act comedy thriller, "Spooks," by Robert J. Sherman, directed by Dan S. Moore, was presented on the same night. It concerned the queer will of an eccentric individual who demands that his heirs remain under his roof three nights in order to share in his fortune. The eerie developments with panels opening, vases falling and breaking, and mysterious voices instructing the dumb maid, provided a spine-tingling effect. The stuttering hero and his embarrassed lovemaking furnished the comic effect. These two offerings were well received by a small but appreciative audience.

On January 4 of this year, the season was opened with the presentation of George Kelly's satire, "The Torch-Bearers," directed by Walter P. Richardson. It was a take-off on the pseudo little theatre movement in which Mrs. J. Duro Pampinelli, the social leader of the community, raises the "torch of essential culture on high" to the tantalizing notes of a cuckoo clock. The characters enact a play within the play, missing cues and entrances, and forgetting lines with amusing nonchalance. It was well performed to an enthusiastic audience.

On February 21, both the Tulane and Newcomb organizations sponsored a lecture by John Mason Brown, a prominent dramatic critic. His subject was "Broadway in Review," in which Mr. Brown cleverly and judiciously criticized current plays on the New York stage, to the delight and edification of a responsive audience.

The Tulane Greenbackers, an organization formed by an energetic group on the Tulane campus in the spring of 1935 for the purpose of actually creating a greater school spirit in the student body at large, were recognized as an official activity by the Student Council on October 29, 1935, and entered upon their task of reawakening the dormant interest of the students. During the current football season they rendered much service to the Tulane University Rooters' Klub by aiding them in their card displays and in supporting the cheer leaders as an organized group instead of as scattered individuals. By sponsoring a huge bonfire, they greatly increased the student enthusiasm at the Homecoming football game with Colgate. At all athletic contests the Greenbackers wear a green sweater with a blue "T" on the left shoulder. These methods were instrumental in bringing about a higher degree of school spirit than ever before attained.

The club this year has a membership of over fifty, a representative group of the student body being obtained by the selection of three men from each academic fraternity and not more than ten non-fraternity men. This system of selecting the members also succeeded in knitting rival fraternities together in a closer union of harmony and friendship.

With its largest enrollment in history, the Band took part in many activities, both within and outside of the University. However, no trips were made, as in previous years, due to an adverse football schedule. Members of the Band deeply regret that this is the last year Dr. Frederick Hard, one of the greatest of Tulane University band leaders, will direct the band.

AT TULANE

As widely varied as the types of the eight sports officially recognized by the Tulane Athletic Council was the degree of success which the individual teams and stars attained during 1934-1935.

FOOTBALL—In a hectic season which culminated with a crushing, record-breaking defeat at the hands of L. S. U.'s Tigers and the appointment of an entirely new coaching staff, Tulane's football team underwent its leanest season in many years, losing four of ten scheduled contests.

BASKETBALL—Brilliant at times, the Greenie basketball squad seemed jinxed from the outset of the season, and, despite the services of several top-notch performers, closed the season near the foot of the conference rating.

BOXING—Atonement came for the lean year experienced in other departments as Tulane's boxers, bolstered greatly by several first-class newcomers, emerged from a very creditable season with a high rating in the conference.

TENNIS—The year's "high" in athletic competition came with the tennis team, which lost only one match during the entire schedule.

GOLF—Captained by Bob Daray, and aided by the stellar performances of Monsied, Budreau, and others, Tulane's golf squad ended the season in a very creditable fashion.

TRACK—Although the track team was unable to attain high ranking honors in the conference, Herman Neugass, through outstanding performances in the 100 and 220-yard dashes, achieved nation-wide recognition both for himself and the University.

BASEBALL—The Physical Ed nine carried top honors in the intramural baseball competition by besting teams from each of the five other schools in the university.
Julane’s 1935 Green Wave, strong in spirit but weak in experience, concluded one of the most difficult schedules in University history, carding six victories and four defeats. In spite of injuries and unforeseen events, the Greenies gave their best; and, with excellent coaching, were able to finish in the first group of the Southeastern Conference.

THE STARTING TEAM

Backfield—Mintz (Captain), Page, Andrews, and Johnson.

On the Line—Preisser, Ary, Buckner, Smither, Loftin, Moss, and Memtsas.
The Greenie linemen spent long afternoons on fundamentals. And how they loved it!
TULANE, 44; VIRGINIA MILITARY INSTITUTE, 0

In their first appearance of the 1935 season, Tulane’s vaunted Green Wave surged over the plucky but much lighter team bailing from Virginia Military Institute. The Greenies brought back memories of Notre Dame, as on several occasions full teams were substituted. There seemed to be no end to green-clad boys, and from their showing, the fans were assured of a team with great reserve strength.

A crowd of 12,000 saw Dougie Johnson set off the spark with brilliant runs of 26 and 38 yards, each directly leading to a touchdown. They saw Tulane score virtually through sheer power, six touchdowns, and a seventh through a lucky break—Ray Nussbaum, sophomore tackle, recovering a bad V. M. I. pass from center over the goal. However, the Flying Squadron played bang-up football, making six first downs and maintaining splendid morale. Too much Greenie power and reserve strength spelled their defeat. The Squadron had a potential ball carrier in Wayt Clark, reputed to be the best in years at V. M. I. It was this boy, together with his running mate, Beard, who accounted for most of the V. M. I. first downs.

Big John Andrews played impressively at fullback, showing power and speed, and bade fair to give Stanley Lodrigues, first-string fullback, a run for his position. Time and again Andrews crashed through the line for substantial gains. One weak spot displayed by the Greenie eleven was a lack of punting ability. This was well in evidence throughout the game, and, coupled with fumbles, might have proved disastrous in the face of a stronger opponent.

The Greenies showed great promise, considering that the game was the first of the season; and before the 1935 football curtain dropped, they had ironed out many difficulties which became apparent during this initial contest.

"Four more laps," shouts "Big Monk" on opening day

TULANE, 0; AUBURN, 10

Upholding something of a tradition, the Auburn Plainsmen for the second time in three years wrecked Tulane’s hopes for a Southeastern Conference championship in a game that was a thriller from the first to the last whistle. It was an alert, aggressive team as usual, with a fast backfield and a charging line that subdued the Wave, bracing itself to stop the Green surges and rising to take advantage of all opportunities to score.

Inexperience, emphasized by fumbling and loose tackling, was Tulane’s greatest difficulty. The Wave’s inability to hold the ball proved most costly. Led by Captain Barney Mintz, John Andrews, and Dougie Johnson, and fighting every inch of the way, the Greenies consistently reeled off first downs on running plays only to have sustained drives broken up by the ever present bugaboo, fumbling. Andrews, sophomore fullback, stole the show in the second half with a one-man powerhouse drive which, in five consecutive plays, carried the ball to the ten-yard line. Auburn stiffened and took the ball on downs on the three-yard line.
That was the closest the Wave came to scoring.

Auburn's scoring came as a result of a place-kick by Paterson in the second quarter, and a neat touchdown pass following the costliest fumble of all late in the game. Tulane tried frantically to pass its way to a score but failed to click on any.

With the final whistle ending the game, the Auburn Tigers became the first team since 1932 to hold the Wave scoreless.

TULANE, 19; FLORIDA, 7

The third game of the season found the Greenies back in the win column at the expense of the 'Gators from Florida. Showing a greatly improved team all around, the Wave, after a slow start, completely outplayed Florida, beating them even at their own game, passing.

The big Green line, made up of a number of sophomores, appeared invulnerable on defense and on offense swung beautifully into the interference, making possible many long runs by the Tulane backs. However, the work of the line was great not only in stopping Florida's running attack but also in pass defense. Time after time Friedrichs, Pace, Memtsas, and other forwards broke through to spill Billy Chase, 'Gator Captain and expert passer, before he could even get rid of the ball. When Chase did get the ball off, his passes were so rushed that many were inaccurate. On the other hand, Tulane completed several throws for much yardage.

On running plays, the Greenie offense looked particularly great. Blocking was excellent, and Mintz, Johnson, and Odom got loose for many gains off tackle and on sweeping end runs. The Tulane passing attack was successful with Odom throwing the ball and Pete Dalovisio receiving.

The 'Gators were first to score, clicking on one of Chase's passes; but their lead was shortlived. Soon after, Tulane scored on a pass from Thames to Henderson, and then on a run by Mintz. Barney broke loose again after the half to clinch the game for the Wave.
THE OCTOBER GAMES

TULANE, 0; MINNESOTA, 20

Before one of the largest crowds of their 1935 season, the Greenies bowed in defeat to the Minnesota powerhouse, led by George Roscoe and Sheldon Beise, in their first intersectional meeting. The Gophers, under the tutelage of Bernie Bierman, former Tulane mentor, forced the attack, blocking hard and swarming the Greenie passers. Eleven "giants" were on the field for Minnesota and many more were ready for the call.

On straight power plays, the Wave made little headway; but, on end sweeps and broken field running, speedy little Louis Thames, Dougie Johnson, and Barney Mintz gave the larger and stronger Gophers considerable trouble. It was chiefly on plays of this type that the Greenies made their first downs, ten in all, which was considerably more than other opponents of the Gophers succeeded in making.

However, the Gophers, led by big Bill Wilkinson, smothered the Greenies for severe losses on several occasions, so that very little total yardage was gained. Ernie Gould was outstanding on defense for the Wave. Time and again he broke up Minnesota's running attack and intercepted several passes. Other Greenies to turn in good performances were Bill Moss, John Andrews, Barney Mintz, and Louis Thames.

The Greenies gave the Gophers one scare in the second half, when Barney Mintz, after a nice run, was forced out of bounds on the Minnesota one-yard stripe. They failed to score, however, and did not threaten again.

Minnesota was later to complete her second "perfect" season, and, instead of this defeat hurting the Wave's final average, the latter was boosted through comparison with other Gopher victories.

TULANE, 33; SEWANEE, 0

Tulane's Green Wave took "revenge" for their defeat at the hands of Minnesota's Gophers by rolling over Sewanee in a game during which, despite the one-sided score, there was no lack of thrills. Tulane's offense, throttled by the Gophers, broke loose against the Tigers and despite the entire Greenie roster's taking part in the game, the Tigers made no serious scoring threats. However, time and again the stubborn Tiger defense halted Greenie touchdown marches and throughout the game their well-known fighting spirit was much in evidence.

Tulane's John Andrews, ably assisted by such speedsters as Dick Watson, Henderson, and Thames, plunged through time after time for long gains. The Greenie offense opened up with all the tricks they had in the bag, reverses, laterals, and numerous forward passes keeping the game wide open.

The Greenies, scoring at least once in every period, gained 384 yards from scrimmage to the Tiger's 45 and held a decided edge in first downs, making 19 to Sewanee's two. No one man was outstanding in scoring honors, as Henderson, Andrews, Watson, Flett- rich, and Ary each scored one touchdown, with Bill Flowers, Watson, and Ary converting for three extra points. Barney Mintz and Dougie Johnson, though neither was able to score, were important factors in placing the ball in scoring position. The game was hard-played and clean and undoubtedly was a great prep for the approaching invasion of the highly-touted Red Raiders of Colgate.

TULANE, 14; COLGATE, 6

Before a large Homecoming crowd, the Green Wave functioned with a grim determination to engulf in its path the Red Raiders of Colgate. With all the trickery in Andy Kerr’s repertoire, Colgate could make little headway against Tulane’s "stonewall" defense. The Greenie forwards had been taught to tackle hard and high to prevent lateral passes, and they did so expertly. Although the Raiders tried a few laterals in spite of the vigilance of the Wave, none succeeded for a substantial gain.

Tulane scored first after a prolonged drive early in the second quarter. Mintz and Johnson gave an exhibition of a brilliant offense, but the "profit" was taken off the score by the loss for the remainder of the season of Johnson, who broke his leg after carrying the ball to the five-yard line.

Colgate came back with the famous "razzle-dazzle" play, and scored one touchdown on a pass but failed to kick the extra point. Trailing by one point late in the last period, the Raiders thrilled and chilled the spectators with a march that seemed to indicate an inevitable touchdown. A pass play, however, went haywire for the Raiders when Mintz intercepted the ball and raced eighty yards for the touchdown that clinched the game for Tulane.

John Dirmann, soph end, starred in his first game as a Greenie, and Colgate’s star tackle, Wasicek, upheld his reputation in fine style.

TULANE, 13; GEORGIA, 26

Against Georgia, Tulane was clearly flat. Georgia, on the other hand, seeking revenge for many stinging defeats at the hands of the Wave, was "high." Consequently, Tulane lost and Georgia won in the roughest, yet slowest, battle seen here in some time.

Fumbles early in the game gave Georgia a lead of two touchdowns, and the Wave’s cause seemed lost until in the third quarter the Greenies overcame their lethargy for five dazzling minutes and tied the score in a spectacular, exciting drive for two touchdowns. The first came when Mintz took a long pass and raced for fifty yards, and the second resulted shortly after Pace blocked a punt and recovered for the Wave. Loftin dived over the line for the score.

The Wave was headed for a third touchdown but injuries forced Ott, Friedichts, Page, and Mintz from the game, and an intercepted pass gave Georgia the ball. The Bulldogs proceeded to romp for two more touchdowns before the end of the game.
THE FINAL GAMES

TULANE, 20; KENTUCKY, 13

-Staging another "comeback," the Greenies took to the air to trounce Kentucky in a clean, hard-fought battle. Three bullet-like passes from southpaw Troy Odom in the second period brought two of the Tulane scores. The first was taken in by Dick Watson for a touchdown; the second, a forty-yard toss, was caught by "Doc" Schneidau, who had a broken hand at the time. After one incomplete pass, the third "strike" found Memtsas for the second score. The third Greenie touchdown came as a result of running plays, Andrews taking the ball over.

Kentucky's touchdown twins, Davis and Johnson, scored twice for the Wildcats, and would have done more damage had the Greenie line played anything but heads-up football. Once again the sophomores stood out in the line. This time it was LaRocca, Hall, Goll, and McGrath.

The game ended the present series with Kentucky, but it has been indicated that relations will be resumed in the near future.

TULANE, 13; LOUISIANA NORMAL, 0

A scant week before the great L. S. U. conflict, after displaying a versatile offense and a stubborn defense in soundly drubbing the Kentucky Wildcats, Tulane's Green Wave surprised with a bare 13-0 victory over Normal.

The Demons, although outweighed considerably, outdid themselves and turned in their best performance of the year. In the early stages of the fourth quarter, trailing 6-0, the Demons almost tied the score; and in that event, the game, heralded as a mere workout for the Greenies, would have been the year's most stunning upset.

Every man on the Greenie squad got into the game, but coordination was lacking and no successful combination could be found. Fumbles galore and various other miscues were in evidence. The number of opportunities which Tulane lightly threw away is evidenced by Tulane's amassing 318 yards from scrimmage as compared to Normal's 29, and fourteen first downs to three for the visitors. Tulane was guilty of eleven fumbles, ten of which were recovered by Normal. The Demons played bang-up ball throughout the game, and it was only through sheer power that Tulane scored their first touchdown and through sheer luck their second.

TULANE, 0; L. S. U., 41

Louisiana State's vaunted Tigers ran riot in the season's finale at the Tulane Stadium before a record-breaking crowd of 31,000 as the Green Wave bowed to the tune of 41-0.

The first period saw eleven gallant Greenies take possession of the ball to fight and claw their way deep into L. S. U. territory, led by the spectacular runs of Watson, Mintz, and Lofton. No fumbles marred the Greenie offense. They were fighting and playing heads-up football and held the Tigers at bay throughout the period. Thus the game rocked on, hard-fought on both sides until, finally, on a well executed short side pass, Bill Grass to Jeff Barrett, the Tigers began their march.

Then came that disastrous third period which marked the downfall of the outweighed and perhaps outclassed Greenies. Touchdowns in quick succession by Abe Mickal, Jeff Barrett, "Pinky" Rohm, and "Junior" Bowman left the crowd electrified.

Tulane was not without her heroes. Ernie Gould completed his career by turning in a brilliant sixty minute performance. Troy Odom likewise covered himself with glory, making two of the three Greenie first downs and playing excellently on the defense.

Watson completely outshone Abe Mickal in the distance of his punts, getting off several spirals which averaged nearly twice as far as those of L. S. U.'s star. The Greenies lead also in another department, that of fumbles, being guilty of only two against five for the Tigers. Lack of good reserve strength, the result of many mid-season injuries which deprived the Wave of the stellar services of Dougie Johnson, Stanley Lodrigues, Wiltz Ott, and others, was probably the reason for this disastrous defeat.

The Tigers made 23 first downs to three for the Greenies, eight of them on passes. Jeff Barrett was a sensation on the receiving end of the heaves of Mickal and Grass, while Mickal, Fatherree and Rohm did most of the ball-toting for L. S. U. Despite the fact that the affair was the most one-sided in the history of the rivalry of the two schools, it provided constant thrills in almost every department of the game.

Confronted with the problem of molding a team from an unusually small squad, Coach Ray Dauber and his assistants succeeded in developing a hard-fighting Wavelet made up of players many of whom seem sure to be valuable assets to future Green Waves.

The Billow was unique this year in that it comprised three "little Brothers" of former Wave stars, each of whom played the same position his brother had played several years ago. These men were: Buddy Banker, brother of the immortal "Bill"; Ned Richardson, Pat Richardson's little brother; and "Fanny" Payne's youngest brother, Tom.

Only two games were played by the Frosh, and both were lost by the scant margin of seven points. In the first, with Alabama, the little Greenies played hard, aggressive football against a much heavier 'Bama eleven, but lost 13-6. A pass which followed a march down the field brought the Tulane score. Smith at center and the ends, Kirchem and Brechtel, played well in the line, while Overdyke and Payne stood out in the backfield.

On Thanksgiving Day, in Baton Rouge, the Wavelet lost for the eleventh consecutive year to the baby L. S. U. Tigers. Playing on the defensive throughout the game, the Wave staved off all Tiger thrusts until late in the game when an intercepted pass followed by a 32-yard run by Milner gave L. S. U. the game, 7-0. The whole line played excellently in repelling the strong Tiger attack, and, in the backfield, Tom Payne was a stand-out.

ON THE COURT

Coach Ray Dauber in his third year with Tulane succeeded in producing a basketball team which the consensus of opinion shows to be a great deal improved over the Greenie "quintet" of last year.

The eagle eye and sterling defensive play of Kendall Cram was sorely missed this year as well as the smashing and alert play of Captain Claude Simons, Jr. However, the improved play of the returning veterans and the addition of Sophomore Dietrich Neyland at the center position more than made up for the several losses. Neyland, a long, lanky boy, showed a fine eye for the basket and a fine all-round brand of play.

Many times during the past season the team flashed great form, but a lack of good reserve strength seemed always to take its toll. The Greenie aggregation lacked nothing in the way of spirit, but the absence of numerous reserves was the chief reason for the unsuccessful season. Bobby Lockett was one of the league leaders in points and the individual performances of Abbie Norwood, Norman Buckner, Bill Flowers and others could in no way be criticized.

Also characteristic of the season was the Wave's poor luck on the outcome of close games. Several times excellent team work and snappy playing at the start would give the Greenies a substantial lead. It seemed, however, that the opposition would every time gradually wear down this margin to eke out a heart-breaking victory at the last minute.

Another vital factor in the final standing of the Wave in wins and losses was the competition against which they proved generally ineffective. In three cases, especially, was this true—L. S. U., Pittsburgh, and Vanderbilt. The Tigers of Pitt and of L. S. U., during the previous year, rated at the top nationally and had retained much of their expertness.

Despite their relatively poor showing during this season, the Greenies bid fair to be a leading contender in the conference in the forthcoming year. Most of the outstanding members of this year's squad are returning, and, bolstered by the season's experience and a promising group of freshmen, Tulane's cagers should emerge from all competition at or near the top.

A RÉSUMÉ OF THE

BASKETBALL SEASON

The opening game of the Basketball season was with Southwestern, a non-conference opponent. Neyland dropped 8 field goals and 1 by the free throw route for a total of 17 points, leading all scorers, as Tulane won, 44-28. The Wave dropped the second contest, 41-28, the following night, "Huck" Lockett starring for the losers with 8 points.

Georgia's fighting Bulldogs were the next foes. Led by Frank Johnson, the Bulldogs overcame a Tulane lead at half time and nosed out the Greenies, 34-26, in a terrific battle. The Wave, led by Ernie Carrere, showed flashes of old form; but in the second half, although under the basket time after time, almost always failed to score. The Greenies retaliated in the second game, however, and with Bobby Lockett sinking them left and right came out on top, 34-26. The game was fiercely fought, numerous Georgians leaving via the four-foul route.

The Wave next played two games during the Christmas holidays with the Pitt Panthers, one of the toughest teams in Eastern loops. The Panthers defeated Tulane decisively in both games, taking the first 48-25 and the second 48-13, Bobby Monsted was at top form, leading the Greenie point-getters in both contests.

Following the disastrous encounters with Pittsburgh the Wavemen journeyed to Tuscaloosa to vie with Alabama's undefeated Crimson Tide. The Wave made a fine showing in both games, losing a heart-breaker in the first half, 26-20, and playing the Tide to a close 34-25 battle in the second half. Bobby Lockett again led Greenie scorers with Ernie Carrere and Bobby Monsted taking second and third honors, respectively.

From Tuscaloosa the Greenie "quintet" went north to engage the Commodores at Vanderbilt. Vandy took Tulane's measure, 44-31, in a close battle. It was "Boisey" McCloskey who stole the show, amassing 10 points from the guard position. Neyland ran McCloskey a close second with 9 markers but was ejected after four fouls.

Kentucky's highly touted Wildcats in turn played hosts to the Wave at Lexington. The Kentuckians were just naturally "on" in the opener, and despite all efforts of Coach Dauber's boys, the Wave bowed, 49-24, the outcome never being in doubt. In the second encounter the final whistle again found the Greenies on the short end of the score when they blew a small lead which they enjoyed at half time, the final score being 39-21.

It was about two weeks before the Wave cagers returned to action, this time before the home fans. The Red and Blue sharpshooters of Ole Miss were their first opponents, and although the Wave made things hot for the Mississippians throughout, the locals trailed 41-30 at the final whistle. "Bonnie" Graham, Ole Miss forward, led the scorers with 19 points, and "Huck" Lockett and "Buck" Buckner took Wave honors, the latter making the game interesting with numerous long shots. Ole Miss led at the half 23-18, and when Buckner, shortly after the start of the second period, rang in a long one, the fans went wild. That was as close as the Greenies ever got, although they fought to the very end. In the second game of the series the Red and Blue repeated to the tune of 41-16. The game was not nearly as interesting as the opener, and, except for Captain Carrere's first quarter scoring spree, was entirely devoid of thrill for Wave supporters.

The L. S. U. Tiger played unmerciful host to the Wave at the Tiger gym, and 52-27 was the final tabulation of the first game. Bryan led the Bengal's attack, scoring 17 points, while Neyland of Tulane netted 12 for the second honors. Eight of these were free throws. The Bengal's led all the way, the half time score being 24-13. After a brilliant first half exhibition in holding the Tigers 23-23, the Wave weakened in the second and dropped the game, 49-26. Carrere and Neyland this time led the Wave attack with 11 and 10 points, respectively.

The next series was with the Mississippi State Maroons, who defeated the Wave 45-31 in the opener of the two-game series and came right back in the second with a 45-32 decision. Captain Carrere was easily the star of the opener, breaking through time and again with flurries of field goals. The second tilt was a thriller throughout and was anybody's game until late in the last quarter.

The Greenies were beginning to look good and high hopes were cherished for the home series with the L. S. U. Tigers, but the Tigers played their best ball of the year and took the games, 50-30, and 46-22, to bring the season to a close.

Coach Ray Dauber
Lacking a sufficient number of experienced men and hampered by makeshift teams occasioned by frequent illness of regular track men, the 1935 edition of the Tulane track team found the opposition in six cinder path encounters too stiff to overcome. Captain Herman Neugass, however, was the outstanding man in the Southeastern Conference, one of the leading 100-yard dash men in the country, and perhaps the greatest track man in all Tulane history.

Beating by two weeks the gun signalling the start of conference competition, Coach Fritz Oakes and fourteen Greenies traveled to Lafayette for the Southwestern relays in which they finished an unofficial third. The Wave set two new records, tied one, and won altogether four first places. Neugass started his season of record-breaking dashes by setting a meet record of 9.9 seconds in the century. The 440-yard relay team, composed of Barney Mintz, Louis Cohen, John Davis, and Herman Neugass, clipped two-tenths of a second from the old record and covered the distance in 42.9 seconds. Howard K. Smith's mark of 15 seconds in the high hurdles tied the meet record and made the third Tulane first place. The fourth was taken by Charles Peres and Stan Lodrigues, who tied for the pole vault honors at 11 feet, 6 inches. Other point scorers for the Wave were Sam Freese, who took third in the shot-put and fourth in the discus; Barney Mintz, who broad-jumped into fourth place; the half-mile and the mile relay teams, both of which took third place.

One week later, at the Texas relays in Austin, Texas, Neugass saved Tulane from an otherwise poor showing and brought the attention of the sports world on himself by equalling the world's record of 9.4 seconds in the 100-yard sprint. With a brisk wind aiding, Herman got off to a perfect start, led the entire distance, and beat the Texas ace, "Chink" Wallender, by a comfortable margin. The quarter and half-mile relay teams failed to place; a sixth place in the javelin toss by Simons completed Tulane's point scoring for the afternoon.
Tulane's first encounter with a Southeastern Conference opponent was lost to Alabama at Birmingham. In spite of the one-sidedness of the score, 86\% to 24\%, the patched-up Greenie team made a creditable score, considering the inexperience of the men. Neugass was again the star of the meet, breaking existing Southeastern Conference records in the 100 and the 220-yard dashes. "Neugie" ran the former in 9.5 seconds, and the latter in 20.9. Incidentally, three official A. A. U. timers clocked the Greenie flash in his races. Barney Mintz leaped 21 feet, 11\% inches to take the broad jump, the only other Tulane first place. McCloskey, running for the first time in varsity track competition, placed third in the high hurdles and, only a few minutes later, almost placed in the half-mile. The usual quarter-miler, Eddie Marks, ran second in the mile, and John Davis, who never before ran over 220 yards, finished second in the two-mile run. Bill Nichols tied for second place in the high jump, and Sam Freese, up-and-coming sophomore, was second in the shot-put.

Shortly after the meet with Alabama, Captain Neugass left for Philadelphia and the Penn relays, where he competed in the 100 meters dash with the fastest of American track men.

The Varsity Track Squad
Standing—Lottinger (Mgr.), Freese, McCloskey, Riorda, Thorn, Billet, Marks, Oates (Coach).
Kneeling—Witherspoon, Davis, Peres, Neugass (Captain), Cohen, Smith.

Perhaps it was fate that intervened and kept Herman from taking first place. Although he was suffering with a bad cold, he had won two preliminary heats in 10.8 seconds and had reached the finals. On the first start, Widmyer broke the gun; on the second start, Neugass started beautifully ahead of the field but the gun failed to go off; and on the third and final start, he got away poorly, failing by five inches to catch the Temple negro, Euclace Peacock, who ran the distance in 10.6 seconds.

The Wave's next dual meet was held in the Old Tulane stadium, where 5,000 spectators gathered to see L. S. U. swamp the Greenies 88 to 29. Tulane won in the 100, 220, high hurdles and mile relay, and the Tigers won the others, coming in one-two on eight occasions. As usual, Captain Neugass took the 100 and 200 dashes; his time was 10.2 and 22.2 seconds, respectively. In the high hurdles, Howard Smith led the way in 15.2 seconds, with Charlie Thorn just missing second place, being nosed out by Clabo Roberts of L. S. U.

The mile relay team, composed of Davis, Marks, Riorda, and Billet, was unopposed, and waltzed around the track oval in 3:37 flat. In a 480-yard shuttle hurdle-relay, Kohl and Carson of Tulane, Flower of Fortier, and Roberts of L. S. U., won from Thorn and Smith of Tulane, Kirchem of Warren Easton, and Witherspoon of Fortier.
The Southeastern Conference Meet, held in Birmingham, was won for the fourth consecutive year by L. S. U. Three Greenies out of eight who were entered in the meet scored 15 points to place Tulane fifth. Neugass won the 100 and the 220, making excellent time of 9.8 and 21.7 seconds, respectively against a strong head wind. Smith, third in the high hurdles, and Simons, fourth in the javelin, were the other point scorers.

In the A. A. U. Meet, the Wave made its best showing of the year, placing second in the Junior meet and fourth in the Senior meet. In the former, Neugass won the 100 and 200 meters in 10.4 and 21.2, breaking meet records in both, and coming within one-tenth second of the world’s record in the 100-meter dash. However, there was a strong wind aiding, and none of the marks were accepted as official. In the Senior meet, he again ran the 100 in 10.4 and the 200 meters in 20.7 seconds. Smith won the Junior high hurdles, and Davis tied with three others in the pole vault. With the A. A. U. meet, the varsity track season of 1935 was brought to an end.

FRESHMAN TRACK

Tulane’s yearling track men met two opponents in the Old Stadium, winning both meets and displaying many potential stars for the varsity. In a dual meet with Warren Easton High School, the Freshmen won 74 to 45. The two “Ray’s,” Nussbaum and Miller, came one-two in the shot-put and discus. Vincent and Pluskat tied in the pole vault, and Pluskat won the broad jump and the hop, step, and jump. The individual star of the meet, however, was Bill Kirchem, of Easton, who scored 16 points, winning the 440 and 220-yard dashes, and coming in second in the hurdles, the hop, step, and jump, and the javelin.

The Freshmen won their second meet by beating their arch-rivals, the Sophomores, in the annual Frosh-Soph track meet. Dart took first in the 100 and the 220-yard dashes and Payne won the 440. Hayward Vincent and Osterman and Monroe did likewise in the mile. Monroe and Jovovitch were unquestioned in the two-mile run. Kohl and Nelson swept the 120-yard high hurdles, and Kohl and Vincent repeated in the 220-yard low hurdles. Ray Nussbaum took second place in both the discus and the shot, ending the scoring and leaving the Freshmen conquerors of the Sophomores.

THE GOLF SEASON

Tulane's 1935 golf team, though not of the highest caliber, gave a very creditable account of itself. The team was under the able direction of George E. Simmons, who succeeded Dr. Frederick Hard as coach.

The 1935 season marked the inauguration of golf as an official sport at Tulane. Mr. Simmons and the golf team were greatly handicapped by the loss of Jack O'Connor due to graduation and John Blair and Charlie Moore due to ineligibility. Blair was a consistent performer on last year's team, and Moore, a junior, was No. 1 player on the '34 team. Tryouts at the Audubon Golf Club, a second round at the N. O. Country Club, and the finals at the Metairie Club formally ushered in the season. Bob Daray, captain last year, and Charlie Moore were selected co-captains, while Bob Monsted, Lindly Budreau, Ray Salmen, Kenneth Gonzales, and McVeal Oliver succeeded in eliminating all other contenders.

The first opponents to face the Greenie linksmen were Ole Miss' stellar group who defeated the Greenie team composed of Monsted and Daray, 7 1/2 to 1 1/2. Monsted played spectacularly to win the outgoing round by one stroke but yielded to Layden of Ole Miss by the same count in the second nine. Captain Daray bowed to Walter Welty 30 to 37 and 33 to 34.

Tulane showed improved form in its next encounter, taking the measure of Louisiana Tech by a 13 to 5 count. Monsted, only a sophomore, was again the star, earning an easy 3 to 0 victory over Jim Cole. Captain Daray defeated John Thurman 3 to 0 and "Pinky" Budreau won his match over B. F. Bolin by the same score. Armstrong took Oliver, and the team of Cole and Thurman won over Monsted and Daray, 2 to 1, and Budreau and Oliver defeated Bolin and Armstrong.

In the Southern Intercollegiate Golf Tournament held at Athens, Georgia, Tulane, decidedly handicapped by the loss of their No. 1 man, Bob Monsted, was not at its best. Gonzales was defeated in the first flight and Daray, after bowing to Dempsey Weaver in the second flight, shot the fine score of 75 to 76 to capture the second flight Consol out Tourney.

Louisiana State scored a 12 1/2 to 5 1/2 victory over Tulane despite the excellent golf played by "Pinky" Oliver. Kenneth Gonzales met too much opposition in Fred Haas, Southern Amateur and Western Junior Title holder, and lost 3 to 0. "Pinky" Oliver, shooting a 75, and the doubles team of Monsted and Oliver were the only Greenies to win victories. In a return match, one week later, Tulane brought its season to a close, losing to the Tigers, 13 to 5.
Tulane enjoyed a most successful tennis season, winning all but one of its intercollegiate matches. It was the team’s second year under the tutelage of Emmett Paré, who, having captured the World’s Professional Doubles Title at Chicago teamed with Bruce Barnes, set about to reach his young Greenie proteges a thing or two. In singles also the Greenie mentor showed up well, reaching the semi-finals where he was defeated only after a gruelling struggle by Karel Kozeluh, who later went on easily to win the singles title.

Even before the season started the Greenies showed great promise, Ernie Sutter and Kendall Cram reaching the quarter-finals in the doubles play, while Cram reached the quarter-finals in singles at the National Intercollegiate Tennis Tourney during the summer. Also, later in the year, Cram was runner-up in the singles play and the team of Cram and Sutter was runner-up in the doubles at the eleventh Annual Dixie Tennis Tournament held at Tampa, Florida.

The Wavemen inaugurated their intercollegiate season by soundly trouncing Louisiana Normal on the Greenie courts. The Olive and Blue, composed of Cram, Sutter, Ashton Phelps, Dick Haspel, and Albie Norwood, were never in danger, sweeping the series 6 matches to 0.

The University of Texas, seeking revenge for two previous ties at the hands of the Greenies, finally broke into the win column and spoiled an otherwise perfect season for the Greenies by taking their measure by a 4-1 count. Ernie Sutter, playing No. 1, gave the fans a thrill by defeating Bert Weltons, the Texas star, 6-2, 13-11, the last set being a thriller from start to finish. Captain Cram, after taking the first set from Bruce Baxter, weakened and dropped the match, 2-6, 6-2, 6-3. Carl Smalley of Texas defeated Ashton Phelps, 6-4, 6-3, and Gordon Pease trounced Dick Haspel, 6-0, 6-1. In the doubles play, the Texas team of Pease and Smalley had little trouble in setting down Haspel and Norwood by a score of 6-0, 6-1. The match between Baxter and Weltons for Texas and Cram and Sutter for Tulane was called on account of rain with the Texas team having slightly the best of it.

This defeat by the exceptionally strong Texas team did not daunt the Greenies. They came back and in two successive weeks set down Ole Miss and Alabama, two strong teams, without losing a match. Ernie Sutter continued his fine play by defeating John Noblin 6-0, 6-0, while Phelps and Captain Cram won their matches almost as easily. In this series John Thorn broke into the line-up in the place of Norwood and won his match over Walsh Prospere in fine style. In the Alabama tussle, Thorn again won handily, defeating Don Grant, 6-1, 6-2. The Greenie veterans, Sutter, Cram, and Phelps, likewise experienced little difficulty in drubbing Vic Ramis, Bill Brauch, and Morris Marcus, respectively in the other matches.

Rice Institute was the next to make inroads into the Greenie stadium and although they put up a great fight led by their star player, Wilbur Hess, they met defeat at the hands of the powerful Greenie aggregation by 5 matches to 1. Hess, their big star, took the measure of Ken Cram, 6-4, 6-3, in a beautiful match; but the other Wave- men, meeting less opposition, went right ahead to assure a Greenie victory. In the feature doubles encounter, Sutter and Cram defeated Hess and Lorimer, 6-2, 11-9.

Southwestern met a similar fate one week later, dropping the series 4-2. Captain Cram won the most decisive victory, winning easily over Dick Dunlap, 6-0, 6-0. Sutter and Thorn continued their winning streak, defeating Ledesinger and Barefield respectively. Dunlap Cannon won the only victory for Southwestern, defeating Ashton Phelps, 6-1, 6-2.

Tulane's old rivals, the Tigers from L. S. U., were the next to taste the power of the Greenies. The Tigers failed to win a match, dropping the series 6-0 at Baton Rouge. In the return match at the Greenie stadium, they managed to earn one victory, Willard Powell defeating Ashton Phelps, but fared not so well in the remainder of the matches. This series with L. S. U. marked the end of the season which, though not quite a perfect one, was excellent, and added another fitting chapter to the proud record of Tulane's tennis achievements.

CONFERENCE CHAMPIONS

Suffering only one defeat during the entire campaign, the Greenie Boxing Team brought Tulane its first championship of the year when they won the Southwestern Conference Tournament held in New Orleans on March 6 and 7.

Opening the 1936 season, Tulane encountered the University of Florida in New Orleans and won, 4-3. Bantamweight Jimmy Peres defeated the Florida entry, J. Williams, in a close, well-fought match. Louis Philips, Wave Sophomore, took the second fight from Bob McMillan after a fast bout. A draw was the outcome of the lightweight bout, when Jacob Guice and George Anderson fought three close rounds. The score became 3-0 in the next match, however, when Dick Keenan pounded Bob Dean for the last two rounds after a cautious first round. George Manteris started fast in his senior welterweight bout with Jess Ferrell, but tired badly to give Florida its first win. The Gators repeated in the next match when Sam Whitwell clearly outpointed Calvin Benedict, Greenie middleweight, but Cameron Gamble was superior in the light-heavyweight division, winning over Paul Brock. In the last match of the evening Jones took the heavyweight bout from Ray Miller.

Traveling up to Shreveport for their next bout, with the Centenary Gents, Tulane met stiffer competition. Floyd Newlin dropped a decision to Arthur Blue of Centenary, while Phillips and Jackson, in the featherweight class, fought to a draw. The Gents went into the lead by taking the lightweight bout as Linton Bonner defeated Jake Guice. The welterweight match between Keenan and Mike Blandino was also a draw, but Manteris broke through for Tulane by downing Paul Hudson. Manteris started off fast and walloped his foe throughout. The next two bouts also went to Tulane when Benedict won over Oscar Bailey and Gamble defeated Phil Lutsich, giving Tulane a lead of 3-2, which was short-lived, as in the last bout Ray Miller succumbed to Willard Dean of the Gents on a knockout.

The wearers of the Green, after canceling a match with Ole Miss, swept to victory over the highly touted and undefeated Mississippi State College team, winning by a score of 5-2. Newlin beat Knox Oakley, and in the featherweight class Louis Philips defeated Brent Murray. Jake Guice again fought to a draw with Fred Bounds while Joe Brocato, a newcomer, won the decision over his welterweight opponent, Jimmy Prestidge. Manteris then made it 4-0 in Tulane’s favor as he pummelled his opponent, A. B. Stubbs. State’s first win was obtained by their twice-crowned champ, Bert Reddoch, who shaded Benedict in a slow, colorless... match, featured solely by Reddoch's cool, cautious style. In the light-heavyweight class, Gamble had much trouble defeating the wildly swinging Carl Inman. The decision in favor of "Moon" Mullins over Ray Miller brought the final score to 5-2 for Tulane.

L. S. U., in the feature match of the season gave Tulane its only defeat. Captain Mike Maroun suffered his only loss in a close decision with Joe Gersack, and Louis Philips lost on a technical knockout to Rabun in the second round. Ed Ketcham of L. S. U. fought to a draw with Joe Brocato, but Fred O'Banion of L. S. U. kayoed Dick Keenan in the welterweight class to give his team a commanding lead of 3-0. In the senior welterweight match, after Manteris and Chester Carville had fought their three rounds, Carville appeared to be a little stronger at the finish and was given the decision. Benedict lost to Earl "Choo-Choo" Dugas, but Tulane's Gamble ran his winning streak to five by smearing former champion Jimmy Blakeman. Ray Miller fought to a draw with Kamel Khoury.

In the Southeastern Conference Tournament, Tulane, having lost to L. S. U., was rated an underdog. L. S. U. had placed five men in the finals. Tulane, on the other hand, with four men entered and trailing L. S. U. by a few points, was given only a mathematical chance to win the tournament. Nevertheless, the four Green boxers did "the impossible" to bring home the championship, each man winning a conference title.

Captain Maroun started the fireworks when he reversed the decision in his second meeting with Joe Gersack of L. S. U. Joe Brocato in the light-weight division outpointed Lonnie Alexander of Tennessee. Joe sent Alexander to his knees twice with well-placed left hooks. George Manteris also settled an old score with L. S. U. when he met Chester Carville, cutting loose in the last round to achieve a clear-cut victory. Upon Cameron Gamble, the last Wave man in the tournament, rested the responsibility of bringing in the championship; and he did by defeating "Choo-Choo" Dugas of L. S. U. to win the light-heavyweight championship. The first round went to Dugas, but in the second Gamble floored his man and in the last round Gamble connected with a hard right which sent Dugas down. Dugas then wildly rushed Gamble but the Wave star returned blow for blow and was handed the decision.

Much credit for the Wave's success is due to the excellent tutelage of Coach "Monk" Simons and his assistant, Jack Pizzano.

And Now—

Intramural Sports

Under intramural sports are listed inter-fraternity, inter-school, and inter-class leagues, as well as competitions between various independent teams. The intramural athletes participate in almost all types of sports, ranging from football to bridge.

Probably the fiercest competition is found in the inter-fraternity loop. The annual track meet was a three-cornered duel with a host of individual stars. Football and softball also aroused considerable interest. The Pan-Hellenic Council sponsors these games and awards a cup for each event, which may be kept permanently if the event is won three times in succession.

Of major interest to undergraduates is the Freshman-Sophomore Holmes Cup Competition. A variety of sports are listed, with football and tug-of-war perhaps attracting the most attention. The Sophs won last year and have so far taken the football and tug-of-war events this year.

The inter-school baseball league is of particular interest to baseball fans, as there is no varsity baseball. Last year’s pennant was won by the strong Physical Education team, who nipped out the College of Arts and Sciences.

The independent basketball league produced several excellent teams, the Witherspoon quintet winning over the Wogans for the title.

The Hullabaloo handball tournament also attracted a good field of ball-slappers.

The Athletic Department at Newcomb plays an essential and important part in the college life. Its aim is to see that every girl participates in those sports which best suit her physical ability and which interest her the most. To further this end there is an extensive and varied program offered, ranging from the more strenuous sports of hockey and basketball to the less vigorous games of ping-pong and archery. This year several new sports have been added to the curriculum which have proved highly successful, namely, shuffleboard, badminton and speedball.

A great inducement to the students to enter sports is the point system. Six hundred points are required for the Newcomb "N," one thousand for the sweater, thirteen hundred for the pin, and fifteen hundred for the bronze and blue blanket. These awards are presented at Trophy Night.

The major sports, including hockey, basketball and baseball, are offered consecutively during the year in the late afternoon. The minor sports, which vary with the seasons, are offered throughout the day.

The official schedule of major sports opens in the fall with hockey, which was carried for two quarters this year. Formerly, hockey was offered for only one term, but growing interest in this sport resulted in the lengthening of the season. Inter-class matches are held to determine the winner of the championship cup and an honorary varsity is selected. This year the Freshmen defeated all the upperclassmen.

During the first term of the second semester, basketball holds the interest of the Newcomites. There is keen interclass rivalry, which is especially evident during the week of the class games. Each team has its cheering section headed by the class cheerleaders. A varsity is chosen to play the alumni, the game taking place immediately after the Gym Night performances.

With the coming of spring, sports again turn to the outdoors. Base-hall is the final major sport of the year and this season is climaxed by the hilarious varsity-faculty game in which the professors forget their traditional dignity and give the students a treat.

Minor sports, in the meanwhile, are by no means neglected. In the fall and spring, outdoor sports such as tennis, archery, badminton, and deck-tennis are especially popular. A tennis tournament is held in the spring and the two finalists have the honor of meeting the alumnus. The famous Tennis Tea is held immediately after the match and is one of the highlights of the season.

During the winter months, however, these outdoor activities are replaced by fencing, bowling, ping-pong, shuffleboard, tumbling, and various other indoor sports. Ping-pong and bowling tournaments are held annually, the winners receiving recognition at Trophy Night.

Dancing classes, for those who are aesthetically inclined, are in swing the entire year. Tapping, folk, and rhythm dancing are most popular. The juniors are taught special dance routines in the spring for the annual May Day given in honor of the seniors.

Swimming classes are also held the entire year, leading up to the swimming meet which takes place in the spring. Diving, stunts, races, and comie events make this an enjoyable event for both participants and spectators.

The close of all indoor sports comes with the famous Gym Night, when the freshmen exhibit Danish exercises, the dancing classes perform in costume, and the tumblers work out in miraculous fashion. Experts at fencing and in apparatus work also add their bit to the attraction.

The last important event and the one which closes the year’s activities is High School Day, held in March. Seniors from the High Schools throughout the city, as well as Newcomb students, circulate from one performance to the other to watch those girls who excel in different activities exhibit their skill. All of the Gym Night performances are repeated and a swimming exhibition is held in the Newcomb swimming pool. Those girls who won places in the meet give the spectators an eye-full with their fancy diving and excellent style. The two finalists of the tennis tournament also play their match for the championship cup.

Just before the close of school, all awards and trophies are presented to the individual and team winners at the Tulane-Newcomb Trophy Night.

Our tribute to the man on the campus who can give and take, who is willing to help his friends, and will do it unostentatiously. He is neither a "big shot" nor a nonentity. He may be student or professor, but political offices and honor societies are not his highest aim. Above all, he must be possessed of a high sense of humor and a ready smile. You know, just a "good guy."

We believe in the tenets of abiding truth, which is the guiding star of our order. We believe in the helping hand which is the bar which binds us in our calling. We believe in the unity of service to one another which leads to the weary a word of cheer, to the poor a portion of our share, to the weak a meed of pity, to the stricken a voice of comfort, to the old a memory of youth, and to the wayfarer a help along to the journey's end.

Our emblem will always be an inspiration to duty, remembering it stands for excellence in all things, purity of purpose and honesty of method and effort, with the blessing of an Alma Mater upon each who wears her badge of honor. May our lives lie among the stars which light the way to the great mystery and may we so live that when we reach the end of the road we may find the veil, which parted, leads to the heights of everlasting peace.

The Tulane Commonwealth Club consists of a group of students from Mississippi who have Commonwealth Scholarships in the Tulane Medical School. Each student is awarded this scholarship, which pays his way through medical school, on the basis of scholarship, personality, and the general fitness of his becoming a physician. In return for the funds given these students by the Commonwealth Foundation, a philanthropic organization of New York, each student has agreed to practice for a period of three years in a Mississippi town of five thousand population or less after he has finished his internship. The purpose of the club is to promote interest in the practice of medicine in the rural sections of Mississippi.

The Oratorical and Debating Council is composed of members of the Faculty Committee on Debating and members of the Varsity Debate Teams. The Council exercises complete control over intercollegiate debating and has for its purpose the arrangement and sponsorship of such contests, and, in addition, sponsors and arranges Freshman and Intramural debating.

The Council for the season 1935-1936 conducted two debate tours. The first ranking team was sent to New York, debating on this trip New York University, Columbia University, Emory University, Cincinnati University, Ohio State University, University of Pittsburgh, and Johns Hopkins University. The second ranking team was sent to Chicago, debating Loyola University of Chicago, University of Alabama, Southwestern in Memphis, Millsaps College, St. Louis University, and Washington University in St. Louis.

A new program of intersquad and intramural debates was planned following examples set forth in the East by using off-the-campus audiences before civic organizations and other institutions interested in debating.

The Tulane Young Men's Christian Association is the only student organization that is campus wide in its scope. The program, carried on and developed by the students under the supervision of the General Secretary, is designed to give expression to the religious, social and recreational needs of the students.

The Freshman Y. M. C. A. is an organization for first year students who are interested in the work of the Y. M. C. A. It has proved very valuable training for membership and officers of the senior Y. M. C. A.

The Board of Directors gives continuity and supervision to the work and program of the Tulane Young Men's Christian Association.

The International Relations Club is an active discussion group of international problems. It has its own library of about one hundred volumes, which was donated and is kept up to date by the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace. The organization also receives a number of international newspapers, pamphlets, etc.

Each member of the club is given the title of ambassador from one of the various countries and represents that country in all discussions of the club.

The aim of the Jennie C. Nixon Debating Club is to foster interest in organization and public speaking. Debates and floor discussions are held at the bi-monthly meetings and prize debates and intercollegiate contests are held throughout the year.
The purposes of the Y. W. C. A. are: To unite in the desire to realize full and creative life through a growing knowledge of God; and to determine to have a part in making this life possible for all people. The fields of work in which the Y. W. C. A. is active are Discussion Groups, Vespers in the Dormitory, Social Service, and Sponsor Movement.

THANKS TO THE ADVERTISERS, OUR FRIENDS AND PATRONS, WE ARE ENABLED TO PRESENT

THE RAZZ

OR

CAN YOU TAKE IT WITH A SMILE?
WITH GUN AND CAMERA THROUGH GREEK HAUNTS

One of the more foolhardy of the boys recently risked all in a daring trip through Greece, encountering many barbarians and overcoming many hardships. From time to time he was fortunate enough to be admitted to some of the Greek-letter lodges where he was fed, so they declare, and sheltered for one night. For those who may wish to duplicate his exploits, we have prepared a short digest of the most noteworthy orders, in which we hope to portray some of the leading citizens and point out many of the pitfalls which trap the unwary. Requirements for admission to the various lodges will be found at the beginning of each discussion.

KAPPA ALPHA. Requirement: Are you a Southern gentleman? Do you make any claims to be one? Oh, for gracious sakes, do you wear pants?

The K. A.'s just go to show that Lee was a good general, but putting wreaths on a monument doesn't make a fraternity. Yes, even C. C. Bass, Czar of the Fourth Estate, doesn't help. In fact, if we weren't gentlemen, we would be tempted to call him "Chirping Charlie." There is also Carrere, "Big Olino," giving a good impression of a blown-up paper bag waiting for a pin to come along. The K. A.'s look forward to a big season next year with improvements on their sound-proof cellar with "Wu Wu" Poitiercent, "Janey Waney" Flettrich, and Manager Stauss being members of the subterranean chapter during rush week. However, there is still a chance for the boys if Walker Young turns into the big shot for which they have been grooming him for three years. Three Paynes and "Huck" Lockett aren't enough to measure up to the K. A.'s opinion of themselves. Incidentally, the K. A.'s managed to pledge a varsity quarter-back. To rushes troubled by avoirdupois, we recommend the reducing system in force by the Knights of Alcohol.

PHI DELTA THETA. Requirement: Would you like to be a city slicker? (So would we.)

There are two elements that go into making up a fraternity, men and a house. The Phis have a house, Captain-elect (big shot) Moss is trying to take up where the Tessier collection left off, but finds that the boots are too big or stumpin'. There's still Allan Little, ex-editor and ex-Romeo, the leading light among the Fiddleby Thetas. Editing runs in the Phi family. John (of all people) Sims, runs the Jambalaya, with the able assistance of ex-Brother Fetus, who is editing his fourth yearbook. The State Street sheiks are still trying to cast an aura of respectability around the wake of "Red" Butt and "Wooz" Nockton. The Phis have one record: Menefee beat the mark for the freshman who was pledged for the longest time. After saying all of this, we would like to mention the two extrems of the chapter, "King Kong" Tessier and "Willie the Worm" Williams. Coffee makes the world go round for Arnholz, too. All the 52 Phi tea dances are now chaperoned by Mrs. Shropshire and hubby.

ZETA BETA TAU. Requirement: Not to be rushed by the S. A. M.'s.

After discounting Demere and Rice, who are pseudo big shots, what have the Zebs? There is, of course, Altmaner and Roos "the Stoogs," but who would base a lodge on such material? Sam "Half Pint" Eichold has a long way to go, but he has hopes that he can make up for the rest. The boys over there are planning big things for "City Champ" Abrams. After all, the S. A. M.'s have an athlete, why shouldn't the Zebs pledge one?

PAUL TULANE

LEON GODCHAUX
Began his career as a clothing merchant in New Orleans in 1840.

and thru the years . . .

Tulane University and Godchaux's have upheld the traditions and ideals of their founders. Since 1840, Godchaux's has clothed Tulsianians and their families... and will continue to serve them with true appreciation of style and quality thru the years.

Godchaux's
NEW ORLEANS
APPAREL FOR MEN, WOMEN AND CHILDREN
PHI KAPPA SIGMA. Requirement: Can you stand "Ducky" Riess?

Phi Kappa Sigma, not satisfied with its being between bad and worse, decided to step out. So far they are just out. A. J. "Eagle Beak" Wachter and Jake (We wuz robbed) Guice stooge for their All-American alumnus "Ducky" (Karlem to you) Riess, but they have to work like hell to make up for Lodrigues. Motto: Quantity but not quality. Since the boys got this respectability bee in their bonnets, they are ostracizing such rowdies as Ahrens. And when the Phi Kaps ostracize you, that is the last step on the downgrade.

SIGMA PI. Requirement: Has anybody ever heard of you? No. Take a pin.

These boys roll merrily along, eight strong, headed for nowhere and going from nowhere. It takes more than a dean as an alumnus to make a fraternity. Bilbo and the Reuters don't help much.

ALPHA TAU OMEGA. Requirement: Must be a Sissy Wissay and a Namby Pamby.

Haven't we Doswell, who aspires to the intelligentsia? Granted that he is a Spectator, which is really a swell lodge, he should for once realize that he shouldn't use words unless he knows what they mean. Climb down, Doswell. Marshall, Martin (the Little General), and Weed are really the best guys in that menagerie. Only three out of thirty isn't much. "Trip-Trap-Trippy-Trip" Treapnier is the aesthetic dancer and Herman (I date you 'cause you may be a debutante) Schulze are well known (and liked by some). John "One Too" Many and Charlie (I may be something some day) Janvier are really, along with three Penns, blotted out by poor ink. Prexy Smith, timber-topper, student, petition writer extraordinary, graduates this year, so the outlook is black.

SIGMA ALPHA MU. Requirement: Not to be rushed Zeebootee.

The best thing to be said about the S. A. M.'s is that they have James, ex-cook at the Phi Delt house as their chapter adviser. Bowsky did a swell job of closing the door in Professor ten Hour's Philosophy 2. A person does improve with practice. Captain Barney, the lad of the Pepsodent smile, seems to be doing a swell job with Krauss Company. Let's hope that "Moey the Gyp" (Steeg to you) doesn't talk the Law Review and the rest of the honorable college out of its soul.

KAPPA SIGMA. Requirement: We can't find any.

Surrounded by an aroma of decay and led forward by the indomitable Kuhner, the Kappa Sigs still remain the kings of Casamento (Adv.) The boys have been robbing the Phi Iotas when they found out they couldn't fool the local crop any more. When corn and bath-tub gin went out, the Kappa Sigs started slipping. They couldn't take this high falutin stuff. Retarded by the wrath of Ben Habans and the presence of Pat "City Slicker" Ball, they have taken a comfortable place on the bottom of the Chute-the-Chutes. The swellest music this side of heaven is concocted by those two darlings of the keyboards, Melton and Hollister. We ought to say something about "Chorchie Porche" Blue, but all we can think of is that his name typifies the Kappa Sigma outlook.

SIGMA ALPHA EPSILON. Requirement: Is your name Joe College or are you his brother Jack Wharton?

"Dapper" Jack Brownfield and "Suave" Alby Dart are our nominees to the lovelorn. However, the beautiful mansion, modeled in the latest style, is really the S. A. E.'s only attraction. So, now you know how the S. A. E.'s stand.

FOR STUDYING • READING • GAMES

You Need MORE Than “Just a Lamp”

PROTECT YOUR EYES WITH AN I. E. S. LAMP

It’s an astonishing fact that forty college students in every hundred wear glasses or should be wearing them—and in nearly every case this defective vision can be traced to eye-strain caused by poor lighting. Your eyes can be damaged by poor lighting—sometimes permanently—before you realize the cause.

For studying, reading or games, eye safety demands more than “just a lamp.” You need one that provides an ample amount of light at just the right height and spread, shadowless, glareless and restful—exactly the light these I. E. S. Better Sight Lamps scientifically are designed to supply. You’ll be amazed at how much less of a “grind” these lamps make long hours of studying.

Get an I. E. S. Lamp today to give your eyes—and yourself—a rest. Both table and lounge models at only $5.95 up, with convenient terms if desired.

THOUGHTS OF A BUDDING BARRISTER

[Editor's Note: This article was received without solicitation from one of the aspiring lawyers. We really can't understand why he doesn't want a by-line, and can only ascribe it to his shrinking nature and desire not to hurt any one. (We personally believe it to be the other way around.)

Lieber, although in on all scandal and undoubtedly one of the most brilliant lights in the university, disclaims all responsibility.]

It is interesting to look back on some of the leading events of the year, for your pleasure, and maybe tell you just why they happened.

The greatest event, and the one that met with more genuine surprise on the campus the next morning, was the election of "Papa" Hillyer as Editor-in-Chief of the Tulane Law Review. According to those supporting Marshall, the Review in the past has been the only non-political organization at Tulane. One elected to the board of editors was supposed to get such by the right of merit. (What?) As to Ye Editor-in-Chief, he was the boy with the brains. However, they say "Boisey" McCheskey (Alva Weatherford's flame) at the helin got "Cutie" Cleveland and his two laces, Colomb and Wachter, to working; and along with the six Deeks on the Review, he succeeded in giving Marshall the run-around. They contend there ain't a chance for an honest man like Saint any more.

Then, we had a couple of student dances which attracted national attention, the leading one being the "Tulane Homecoming Flop." It seems as if "Butch" Feltus, while up in the mountains last summer, met a fellow, who knew a fellow, who knew a sub-agent for Cab Calloway out in Texas, and who told Feltus that if he would buy a new tennis racquet from him, he would write Cab's agent and get Cab lined up to play for a Homecoming dance at Tulane. Feltus very enthusiastically got publicity galore for said dance, had "Red" Pyburn at the head of the committee, and it looked like a big time for Ole Tulane. Everybody was a-saying that Cab was a-coming, and the committee, composed of Sanchez-Boggie-Saint-Michel-and "Windy" Janvier, was out even spending the profits which they expected to gyp out of the dance, only to find out six (6) days before the big event that Cab was out on the coast making a picture, "Butch" at once, after reading the telegram from Calloway asking Tulane to refrain from using his name in what he considered a fraud on the public, immediately left for the Law library to find out what he could sue all parties for. Upon his return a letter was dictated to Secretary Arlene addressed to the Tulane Board of Directors asking permission to sue Cab Calloway for deceit in the first degree. Pending this action, Dan Russo and His Orioles from Chicago were engaged for the dance, and Feltus wore tail to the first Tulane Flop of 1935.

The second Flop occurred some three months later at the Southern Yacht Club with Joe Sanders and His Blackhawks of Chicago drawing the crowd. Jack Riley was substituted for Feltus to direct the activities of the Mardi Gras Flop, having the same committee to manipulate things. Riley started and ended in a bang—the second Tulane Flop lost $450,000 more than the first one did, and Riley and the committee were last seen at 6:30 a.m. in front of the Nut Club singing "O Sole Mio" and "Daddy, Can You Spare a Dime." Riley returned to school four days later in time to give a report to the Student Council.

The most prominent man at Tulane this year is none other than Tony Angelo, D'Angelo Mussolini. Tony was sent over to Tulane this year by his grandpappy after hearing "Mitch" Franklin say that he was to teach all his law courses in Italian and Chinese this year; Tony, thinking that with his knowledge of Italian, he could do some real shining. All year he was incognito until the day Franklin stressed his "Viva, La Civo, Bee Chee Bee," and feeling that his country should be heard from, Tony, in a loud voice, yelled "Viva Italia and Mussolini." Franklin was perplexed, and Tony thus became recognized. Tony, in spite of the fact that he speaks Italian, has no idea of what "La Civo" has been saying all year. He contends that the course is taught in Greek and is going to sue Tulane for fraud.

Tulane this year dispensed with the usual general election to find out "Who is Who On the Campus," or otherwise the R. M. O. C.'s (Biggest Mugs on the Campus). The winners this year were conceded without such an election as there is no doubt that with a fair election (like the ones Archie Saint conducts) the following would have been elected. "Sadie" Marchiz would be elected the best dressed lad in school. He even has his fingers manicured and has come out in a couple of outfits which have made Franklin green with envy. Joe Meyers (the boy who would look like a needle if he would stand on one foot and open his mouth) would be conceded the Winchell of Tulane. Joe Seiferth would be Tulane's man of a million poems. This boy writes good stuff and is commanding the respect of all his fellow students for making them poem conscious. "Big Shot" Boggs would get elected the biggest lever-puller us boys ever did see. He gets somewhere with a "Good morning, professor. How's your wife this morning?" We are merely objecting to his attitude—the boy thinks he is good and we know he is perfect (at it).

Doctor Jack Jones is the boy's idea of "Why gals go wrong"—the gals won't leave him alone in spite of his ideals.

Tulane's leading debutante would be Marion Monk, who was seen at all the parties this year. He is organizing an ex-deb club with charter members including Professor Jimmy Morrison, "Butch" Feltus, "Sissy" Moss, "Ole" Smither, "Jane" Flettich, "Tuffy" Meneeet, "Irrelevant" Baldwin, and a couple more of the boys who do not wish their names in print. They hope to have weekly luncheons in Gus Schumann's Slip House next year.

The "most popular" would go to "Smiley Colossal Master of Ceremonies" Arthur, who has thrilled so many audiences with master personality. It is undecided whether he or Frankie Talbot put out the best program. Running a close second to Arthur would be John "Blaire," who, as a member of the League for the Advancement of Capitalism, has done much to make us appreciate Hitler.

DIG-UPS FROM THE YEAR'S DIRT

The best of the "Babble," "Twaddle," and "Medical Murmurs." We hated to overlook any one, knowing how much you like publicity, but lack of space has confined us to a favored few. We do hope that these will express their thanks. (Cash will be appreciated.)

"What Monde A. T. O, brother itch (he gets in people's hair) was blackballed from the Pi Phi dance for definitely rushing Kappa?"

"Old King Charlie was a merry old soul,
A merry old soul was he;
He sat on his throne
And left May alone,
As he flirted with fepunk glees."

"Here is a ballad of infinite tenderness and pathos written in tribute to a mighty Tulanian, entitled 'From Lulu to Wu-Wu.' Remember 'Lulu's Back in Town?"

"All their mothers wear a frown,
Keep their daughters out of town,
'Cause that Big Bad Wolf's around,
Wu-Wu's back in town.

"Oh, that Chinese Laundry man,
With the dumb look on his pan
Is daytime slow, but, oh, at night,
He's the débutante's Delight.

"He runs a Chinese Laundry
He even washes lingerie,
But when it comes to diapers, Gee,
Wu-Wu's backing down."

"Mary Sunshine Hooper seems to have a fraternity following, so we wonder if the most famous word in her vocabulary is 'no' as she says. I've always found the word infamous."

" 'Frosty' Horton
Does no escortin'
The ladies say
He ain't O. K."

"Along with recording other great historical events, December 4 was the birthday of Bobby 'Hot Shot' Sanchez. So in commemoration of this annual occurrence Charlotte Chandler made up a very nice package and presented it to the 'Tepid Combustible' in the book store. With all due modesty in regard to his Casanovic achievements, the Florida Flash obligingly opened the package before a crowd of envious males and the result: the most dainty pink girdle imaginable."

"I hear that Bill Williams and Frank Townsend were showing a few Freshmen how to celebrate after their exams and later on in the evening when they started home the cab driver said, 'I know where you boys want to go—700 Broadway—I've taken them there before.'"

"Caledonia won't stay put,
Always playing jokes on Toot,
Giving him that old baloney
About a dance in old Sevanee;
Somebody tell this Greenville child
There's a nigger in the wood-pile."

"Squeaky-Leaky-Scranny' LeCorgne is in the throes of it over Say-Say Smith, the gal who chews a wicked pack of gum. (Hat why choose the dance floor, Say-Say?)"

"Smither believes
In Catherine Eaves
And up her sleeves
Laughs Catherine Eaves."

"Maybe Mary Dart did have to go home the night she had a date with Harry Sanders, for after all Tony's may be home to Mary... And wasn't that a fine dance she did that night for 'Late Date' Friedrichs. Yes, the Chez Paree is looking for new talent."

WHAT DO YOU PAY FOR

COFFEE and CHICORY?

A. & P. sells Crescent City Coffee at 15 cents a pound, regularly. We know the quality of Crescent City to be equal to or better than many other brands selling at much higher prices. Ask any person who drinks it!

With good green coffee at 10 cents a pound; good chicory at 7 cents a pound, plus a fair profit to cover roasting and selling costs, it seems to us that 15 cents per pound, for the best coffee and chicory, is at present a fair price.

THE REASON WHY

That Molloy-Made covers have been used on so many of the nation's leading annuals over a long period of time is testimony to the fact that they really do represent more value.

The Jambalaya, like many other leading annuals, started using Molloy-Made covers "away back when"—and the Molloy trademark on the cover of this 1936 issue is the best evidence of an eminently satisfactory standard of quality and service throughout the years.

Somebody said something about the small membership, but we were too nice to put it in. Rumor has it that a dance (you know, the Sig Alphas had back in 1920) is going to be pulled off sometime in the far future by Claudie Smith and "Sweetie Pie" Neil.

Phelps and Thorn, Thorn and Phelps! Isn't there ever anything else at the Delta House? Certainly! Never forget 'Lover-Boy' Ducander, the only sober lad in the whole barn. Not that he spends much time anywhere except at Newcomb. Strictly "Nekkum" for that lad. The Deltas do aspire, though, and when they elect Stanley Ray, Jr., president (incidentally a typical Tau Del) we prophesy a glorious rejuvenation. And even though "Sloppy" Harvard makes no time with the gals, we'll bet that he'd do better after a little coaching from the quintessence of swank, "Smooth" John O'Connor. Oh, if "Blare" were only back!

DELTA KAPPA EPSILON. Requirement: What are the cardinal points of a pansy? Can you pass the test?

"Noisy Dutch" McGloskey, the leading light of all arguments, is completely coved by "Wee Willie" Harris, the loud and sober but much admired and virtuous proxy. Southport Ben, King of the dice tables, has succeeded in thoroughly luring Sam Freese from the straight and narrow. Tom Born, Y. M. C. A., has finally succeeded in pledging for Deke such types as Murray "Paths of Vice" Cleveland, the cold and shrewd financier who is really our idea of the ideal person, and Abbie Norwood, who, although never an athlete, does do well in parlor games. With Evans, Freese, Henderson, Gamble, Friedricks and others, the Dekes are unable to claim much other than a very refined personnel. Refined? You mistake us. We mean that they did the best they could after pledging such a bunch of ham athletes. The pansy-wansys are really slipping. They haven't rated a debut party since! Best guy in the lodge is Simon Chipley, Jr., next editor of the Jambalaya, and that's not saying much!

PI KAPPA ALPHA. Requirements: One pair of corduroy pants and just lots and lots of school spirit.

There was some hope for the boys until McNeill re-entered school, but there is nothing worse than a has-been. Their main distinction is being near the Phi Kap house and since when did that cut ice? It's just a great big family group with the Burkes and the Jautbers keeping things going, but in what direction? No, Junior, they aren't affiliated with the Boy Scouts. There is also a guy named Payne, only three Smiths, and a fellow who is a football player named Tull.

SIGMA CHI. Requirement: Do you play football and have you haysed in your hair?

Shilstone's in Europe, Porter's in Medicine, and the Siggies are in the doghouse (as usual). Doyle and Loftin mess around but can't make up for "Hayseed" McGrath. The boys are running a glorified boarding house with all three pledges running neck and neck for the champion zeros of the year.

P.S. Broadway Pharmacy Annex.

SIGMA PHI EPSILON. Requirement: Has anybody else rushed you? No? Help yourself to a button, brother!

If Lottinger ever graduates, the lodge will be supported by nothing but Coolies. From nonentities to non-existents. Pity the poor brethren from Podunk trying to find the Sig Ep house. But they still have genius Kreger to point at with pride. Otto, Kinberger, and Cole still won't pull us out of the hole, croons "Bing" Boehm.

BETA THETA PI. Requirement: Can you be another Senator, or a Ward-Boss Riley, or a "Pinky" Oliver? Oh, nuts! Even a "Squeaky" LeCorgne will do.

The Betas have lost prestige since they moved to Julie's Tea Room. They must desire a little social register with "D. D." Monk as president and "Tremendous Tootsie" Smither hanging on. Even the efforts of "Hard Shell" Spearman and "Hilda" Haynie can't keep the rowdy lads down. They still have the last of the Sutters batting a ball around, but they can't keep up forever. "Marleen" Hoge and "Pretty Boy" Lynch uphold the medicine end and try to make up for such red-necks as Schneidau and that cute little devil McKirahan. Will kind Providence please steer us away from Wooglin and the Evil Eye? Gentlemen, don't go Beta.

Pardon us, please! We nearly forgot the Delta Sigma Phi, Kappa Nus and the Phi Iota Alphas. Rather than bore you to death, we'll stop after just telling you that they are frats somewhere on the campus.

Bow your heads, boys and girls, while Pop says a prayer for dear departed Pi Kappa Phi and Sigma Phi Delta. May they rest in peace!
