Each year the Jambalaya Editor and his staff are faced with the rather difficult task of creating something original and satisfying within the narrow limits of what a yearbook must be by definition. They also realize that since the yearbook will be read by all segments of the student population, the format must be designed so as to appeal in as many directions as possible. The 1959 Jambalaya has been composed with these two problems constantly in mind. The staff has attempted to balance a wide photographic coverage of events with professional art, sophistication with humor, informal layouts with the more formal, and straight copy with that of a fanciful nature. Also, an increased amount of color was used throughout the various sections as accent.

There is no dominant theme running through this book. The separate sections are related only in that they pertain to the same subject—Tulane 1959. This year has been an important one in the history of Tulane: the physical plant has been greatly expanded and many far-reaching decisions affecting policy have been made. Yet, in most respects, it has been a year like most others. The staff hopes that they have captured both facets in this 1959 yearbook. Our measure of success will be determined by the pleasure you derive now and in the future from your Jambalaya.
The 1959 Jambalaya was dedicated from the moment that work first began. It is for you—the students of Tulane and Newcomb—that this yearbook is composed and published as your record of 1959; it is your activities and interests that have been pictured here; it is your satisfaction and enjoyment that the Staff has kept constantly in mind. Now, the Staff wishes to acknowledge what has been its purpose from the beginning in formally dedicating this 1959 Jambalaya to you, our readers.

The events of the year have made a little clearer and a little sharper the unresolved issues and problems of our time. Members of the Class of 1959 soon will reach the day when these matters will be theirs to meet. No one will expect them to possess all the wisdom necessary to answer them, but they should be expected to employ the liberated and trained mental qualities necessary to meet new and even harsh realities as they emerge. Fortunately for mankind they do not come all at once nor in irrevocable form. University men and women are now filled with greater concern for world needs as well as their own than ever before. This is substantially the best hope of America—that her future may reside largely in the judgment which should come from the unspoiled and vigorous young people who day by day are being prepared and tempered in the universities. They will increasingly include, I hope, most of the leaders of government, as well as of business and the professions.

When those who graduate in 1959 return to this campus, they will find Tulane living with a new generation, dealing with new problems and preparing new workmen for the future. This is the way unity in life and time and purpose is served and preserved. So it has been always and so it must be if Tulane is to be significant. I hope this yearbook may bring bright memories of your good years here.

THE PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

* President Rufus Carrollton Harris
BOARD OF ADMINISTRATORS

The Board of Administration of the Tulane Educational Fund is a self-sustaining board composed of seventeen prominent Louisiana citizens and Tulane alumni. Paul Tulane named the original membership which was to receive and administer his endowment, and this is now the general governing body of the University. In addition to the members, the Board consists of three ex-officio members including the Governor of Louisiana, the Mayor of New Orleans, and the State Superintendent of Education.

There are two Emeritus members of the Board, Miss Florence Dymond of New Orleans and Lawrence A. Wogan, who is Secretary-Treasurer Emeritus. Mr. A. P. Generes is serving as Secretary-Treasurer of the Board. It is through the guidance of these administrators that Tulane is able to continue its outstanding work in research and educational service as well as all other phases of higher learning.

First Row: Joseph M. Jones, President; Ernest L. Jahncke, Vice-President; J. Blane Monroe, Vice-President; Clifford T. Favrot, Vice-President; Dr. Charles L. Eshelman; George S. Farnsworth, Secretary
OFFICERS OF ADMINISTRATION

First Row: Dr. Fred Cole, Academic Vice-President; Dr. Joseph Morris, Vice-President; Dr. Clarence Schepps, Vice-President and Comptroller; Richard Baumbach, Director of Athletics; Dr. Clifford Gruie, Associate Dean and Director, Division of Graduate Medicine.

Second Row: Dr. Lloyd Kuhn, Director of Student Health; Alvin L. Lyons, Director of Development; Horace Reneger, Director of Public Relations; Dr. Garland Taylor, Director of Libraries; Dr. Robert Wachope, Director of the Middle American Research Institute.

Third Row: Dr. Cliff Wing, Jr., Director of Admissions; Miss Kathryn Davis, Assistant to the President of the University; Mrs. Florence Toppino, Registrar; Jesse B. Morgan, Business Manager.

The everyday administration of the university affairs is directed by a group of officers, composed of Vice-Presidents, Deans, Directors, and others who are in charge of the various departments and divisions of the university. Each is a specialist in his respective field and is thereby endowed with the capacity to counsel and advise students during their schooling at Tulane.

These men and women composing this administrative body occupy a very essential part in the life of Tulane, and it is through their dedicated work that the student life at Tulane runs so smoothly.
As we close this year, we close an era in Tulane student life—the period during which the Student Center on Freret Street has been the seat of Tulane student government, the home of this Jambalaya, the center for student services, and the scene of countless receptions, club meetings, and parties.

This Student Center was built in 1940 from funds donated by alumni and friends of the University. At that time, it was a welcome addition to our campus, and since then, many student presidents, many editors, many student councils and other groups have worked faithfully in this building for the benefit of a generation of Tulanians.

But now, as our campus life has developed, we find this Student Center no longer adequate for our growing needs. Next year, as once before, we will again welcome the opening of a new home for student activities on the campus. We are confident that the dedication of those students and staff members who worked in the old building can be achieved again in our new University Center, and that the new facilities will inspire the continuing development of a richer campus life.

THE DEANS

DEAN MAXWELL E. LAPHAM
School of Medicine

The School of Medicine, founded as the Medical School of Louisiana in 1834, was the first medical school in the Southwest. The usual four-year program leading to the degree of Doctor of Medicine is offered by the Medical School plus many graduate courses, degrees in public health, and a number of short courses in different specialties.

DEAN ROBERT M. LUMIANSKY
Graduate School

Graduate work at Tulane began in 1883. Courses of study leading to the degrees of Master of Arts, Master of Science, Master of Fine Arts, and Doctor of Philosophy are now offered. Admission to the Graduate School usually depends upon a better than average record in undergraduate school. Steady emphasis is placed upon research training.

DEAN RAY FORRESTER
School of Law

The School of Law has not only as its primary objective the training of students for the practice of law in Louisiana, but also the training of students for the practice of law in other parts of the country, Latin America, and other foreign countries. The geographical and cultural position of New Orleans is appropriate for the service of a varied group of students with a diversity of legal programs.
DEAN JOHN P. DYER
University College

University College is the evening adult education division of Tulane University. It offers degrees in the field of liberal arts, commerce, medical technology, and nursing. It also offers introductory courses in the fields of engineering and architecture. The faculty is made up of members of the various University faculties plus outside lecturers.

DEAN WALTER L. KINDELSPERGER
School of Social Work

The School of Social Work is a professional school offering graduate preparation for positions in public and private welfare organizations and agencies. Specialized preparation is offered in group work; family and child welfare; medical, psychiatric, and school social work; and social welfare planning. The School of Social Work is a member of the Graduate Division of the Council on Social Work Education.

DEAN WILLIAM W. PEERY
College of Arts and Sciences

The College of Arts and Sciences, oldest of Tulane's undergraduate schools, assures every student both an opportunity to receive a sound general education and a good base for future specialization. Although some students will enter graduate and professional schools, while others will end their formal education with the bachelor's degree, the college offers to both preparation for positions of leadership and trust.
THE DEANS

DEAN PAUL V. GRAMBSCH
School of Business Administration

The School of Business Administration has provided its men and women with substantial professional training for business careers since its founding in 1914. Striving to provide the business community with graduates with a working knowledge of business management, the School of Business Administration has sought to enroll students of intellectual competence, good character, and leadership potential.

DEAN JOHN R. HUBBARD
Newcomb College

Newcomb College, established in 1866 by Mrs. Josephine Louise Newcomb as a memorial to her only daughter, was the first women's college to function within the framework of a university. It has a full curriculum of Liberal Arts, and also provides a program of study abroad during the Junior year.

DEAN LEE H. JOHNSON
School of Engineering

The School of Engineering, which has been offering degrees since 1894, is one of the oldest and most well rounded in the South. The school offers curricula leading to the Bachelor of Science degree in Chemical, Civil, Electrical and Mechanical Engineering; and the Master of Science degree in each department.
DEAN JOHN E. DINWIDDIE
School of Architecture

The School of Architecture, through its five year program, strives to integrate the architect as a social human being, a good citizen of his environment large or small. Although the School is primarily concerned with and dedicated to the development of a living and vigorous native architecture for the southern region, it feels that the students should be equipped to adapt their work to any region.

DR. T. T. EARLE
Summer School

Summer school may be attended by students enrolled in any College of Tulane University or any other university. Courses offered are used toward undergraduate and graduate degrees. Summer school offers an opportunity to supplement programs with courses of particular interest, make up deficiencies of prerequisites, and to reduce the length of time required to qualify for a degree.
STUDENT

Under the Constitution of the Associated Student Body of Tulane University the power of student government are vested in the Student Council which meets twice monthly during the school year. Delegates are from the ten colleges and schools of the university.

The principal duties of the Student Council are to represent the Student Body in all matters of student government; to provide for proper hearing for parties interested in any proposed action; to recommend recognition of student organizations and activities; to exercise financial control over the organizations and activities which receive University funds; and to revoke the charter of any student organization which fails to fulfill its objectives.

The Student Council shares many of the duties with its operating Boards, the Publications Board, the Student Activities Board, the University Honor Council and the newly formed Student Union Board.

During the past year the Council has worked on committees with faculty members and administrators to alleviate campus problems. The spirit of cooperation developed has contributed much to the improvement of campus life and has resulted in the student body assuming a more responsible citizenship.

Some of the projects undertaken by the Student Council were: the planning of the administration and program of the new Union Building, the relaxation of the cut system, the revision of the financial operations of the Student Publications, the sponsoring of popular entertainment in the concert series, the conducting of the United Fund Drive, the implementation of the University-wide Honor System, and the general improvement of athletic affairs.

The Tulane Alumni Association was incorporated in 1898, dedicated to the broad principles of loyalty and service to the University and its Alumni. During the past sixty years it has grown from a few local Alumni to a world-wide organization of 30,000 members living in each of the forty-nine states and in many foreign countries.

The Alumni Fund, inaugurated twelve years ago, has provided $1,353,154 for needs of the University.

The Association's contributions to higher education have been equally important. Alumni clubs provide scholarships to deserving students in their areas. The annual Tulane Conferences, presented by the Association and Alumni clubs, bring to many Southern cities programs in the specialized fields of science, the humanities, law, medicine, engineering, social work, etc.

Much of the growth and success of the Association can be attributed to the organizational leadership of the presidents and secretaries (directors) who have guided Alumni activities through the years.

JAMBALAYA BEAUTY FINALISTS

HARRIET STONE  DOTTIE STOREY  HONEY SUTTON  PAT VAN SCOY
Each year it is the pleasant task of the Jambalaya staff to select sixteen finalists from among the many girls nominated for the Jambalaya Beauty Court. These sixteen girls are then presented to the University, and Miss Pauline Tulane and her Beauty Court are chosen by majority vote. Any girl who is regularly enrolled at Newcomb or Tulane may be nominated to appear at the Beauty Court Tea, excepting Freshmen and those who have served in previous Courts. The Jambalaya staff is very proud of both the finalists and the 1959 Jambalaya Beauty Court.

There are several girls in school this year who have served in past Jambalaya Beauty Courts. They are: Lee Andry, Barbara Burdin, and Virginia Jones.

MISS SARAH QUINN
MISS HARRIET STONE
THE 1958 HOMECOMING

MISS PAT VAN SCOY
Tulane's 1958 Homecoming Queen

Excitement ran high during the days preceding Tulane's 1958 Homecoming. Pep rallies, anticipation over meeting Ole Miss on the field, preparations for decorations, plans for parties, and the announcement that Pat Van Scoy would reign at the Homecoming Game and Dance as 1958 Homecoming Queen all contributed to the high spirits even before the week-end began. The student body was extremely proud of the outcome of the Homecoming Court election. Pat and the members of her Court—Emily Andry, Barbara Burdin, Barbara Hammond, Kay Hecker, Sarah Quinn, and Sandra Shainock—had a special share in the general excitement.

The returning alumni were first welcomed at the Alumni Dance on Friday night at which the Queen and Court were presented to them and on Saturday by the lavish decorations constructed by the fraternities, sororities, and dormitories. Many grads visited their old frat houses where they enjoyed the "blasts" which lasted almost until game time.

The Homecoming Game, played under the lights for the second year, was a close one. The excitement of the game and the pagentry of the half-time ceremony had everyone in the mood for fun when the annual Homecoming Dance sponsored by Lagniappes began at the Municipal Auditorium. Queen Pat presided over the gala event, and it is safe to say that "a good time was had by all."
THE HOMECOMING COURT

Homecoming royalty and their escorts had more fun than anyone at the Homecoming Dance
The Tulane Hall of Fame is the JAMBALAYA’s manner of recognizing those Newcomb and Tulane students who have been particularly active and outstanding during their college careers. Members are selected on the basis of service to the school, leadership, scholarship, campus activity, and outstanding achievement in a particular field.

Members who have been chosen for this honor in previous years and who are still in school are:

PHI BETA KAPPA

Phi Beta Kappa is the oldest national honor society in America. The society was founded in 1776 at William and Mary College in Virginia. The Alpha Chapter of Louisiana was founded at Tulane University in 1909. Those seniors who are candidates for a Bachelor of Arts Degree and who have achieved a scholastic record of continuous excellence are honored by being elected to Phi Beta Kappa. Election into this society is the highest academic honor conferred upon distinguished students and scholars of the College of Arts and Sciences and Newcomb College.

BETA GAMMA SIGMA

Alpha Chapter of Louisiana of the Beta Gamma Sigma Fraternity was established at Tulane in June, 1926. The purpose of the fraternity is to reward and encourage scholarship and accomplishments in all phases of business among the undergraduates and graduates of the School of Business Administration and to foster principles of honesty and integrity in business practices. Members are elected from the junior and senior classes who have attained high scholarship and show promise of marked ability. Undergraduate members are chosen by the faculty members of the fraternity.

Alpha Omega Alpha, the only honorary medical society of its type, is based upon scholarship. This involves initiative, independence, and the will and ability to succeed with investigative learning. Election to this society is the recognition of a student for present accomplishments and in future promise of leadership in some phase of medicine. Alpha Chapter of Louisiana was founded at Tulane in 1914. Its activities have included annual lecture-ships by men prominent in medical fields, clinical discussions, and the annual banquet.

The Order of the Coif, a national legal honor-society, was established at Tulane in 1931. The order recognizes senior law students for exceptional ability and performance in law and in law school. Leadership and service in the school and community as well as the scholastic achievement are considered when the new members are elected each spring from members of the senior class. Each year the chapter also initiates as an honorary member a Louisiana lawyer whose devotion to the law and public service has been outstanding.

Students from approximately 600 colleges and universities are nominated and recognized in Who's Who each year. Campus nominating committees are instructed, in making their decisions, to consider the student's scholarship: his cooperation in leadership in academic and extra-curricular activities; his service and citizenship to the schools; and his promise of future usefulness. Recognition by Who's Who means that the student was first officially recommended from the university or college he attends and then accepted by the organization. These are the Tulane students who have been selected for Who's Who this year.

OMICRON DELTA KAPPA

Omicron Delta Kappa, National Leadership Honor Society for men, recognizes and honors those students, members of the faculty, and others who have demonstrated distinguished leadership in extra-curricular activities and in service to Tulane University.

Student membership in Omicron Delta Kappa is limited to those who have attained at least junior undergraduate standing. Such students are elected in recognition of their high character and noteworthy achievement in two or more of the following fields: scholarship, athletics, social and religious affairs, publications, speech, music, and dramatic arts.

Omicron Delta Kappa was founded at Washington and Lee University in 1914. The Alpha Zeta Circle at Tulane was established in 1930.

Mortar Board is a national senior honorary society for women. The one hundredth chapter of Mortar Board, Alpha Sigma Sigma, was installed at Newcomb College in 1958, Alpha Sigma Sigma was founded in 1916 at Newcomb and its alumnae were initiated into Mortar Board on March 15, 1959. Mortar Board has continued such projects of Alpha Sigma Sigma as the planning, organization, and supervision of the Freshman Orientation Program, the direction of the Freshman Government, participating in the Advisory System, and serving as hostesses at University functions. Mortar Board members are elected on the basis of superior scholarship, outstanding participation in student activities and unselfish service to the school.

Assets is an honorary society based on leadership, scholarship, service, and school spirit. Each year in the spring the Assets active at the time elect ten freshmen, outstanding in these qualities, to become members for the following year. The names of these new members are announced at the last Newcomb Student Body meeting of the year.

The Assets begin their Sophomore year as “Big Sisters” to the new students throughout the orientation program. Assets also participate in Kangaroo Court held for the Freshmen, serve as ushers for various campus activities, and help in the admission office.
The 1959 JAMBALAYA staff is proud, happy, and most relieved to be able to present to you the culmination of a year's efforts. The work necessary to publish a modern college yearbook is beyond the comprehension of the uninitiated. Plans, designs, and layouts are made early in the summer, and when school begins the staff must plod on day after day and month after month with no apparent results—a condition itself which often hinders work, for apathy and boredom can quickly replace interest and drive when countless hours produce no immediate tangible rewards.

It is the people whose names and pictures appear on these pages who have maintained their interest and hard work and who are mainly responsible for this yearbook. They have sacrificed many leisure and study hours to type copy, file pictures, write captions, and deal with the tremendous amount of frequently tedious and repetitious material, knowing the finished product would come only in the distant future. It is they who have participated in the roundtable discussing and/or cussing of new layouts, punctuation of sentences, copy style, selection of pictures, and headlining of insignificant pictures—often with the depressing realization that their work would go unnoticed for the most part by casual readers. They have also suffered the frayed temper and brow-beating of the Editor as the deadline for their sections fell due.

However, it has not been all pain for those that managed to climb the stairs to the little green attic garret nearly every day. Along with the work, there was a lot of fun and many laughs. Everyone took part in the favorite staff game of "cut and slash," the object of which was to undermine the ego of anyone present—especially the Editor. Also remembered will be the long joke sessions, the innumerable Cokes and cigarettes consumed, the office love affairs that bloomed and died, and the infamous midnight work sessions.

Appreciation is expressed to all those who helped who for some reason are not listed here, to the fine photographic staff who managed to make most of their appointments on time, and to Mr. Dan Edie of Benson Printing Company whose personal guidance and "brink of disaster" letters pulled the Jamb through.

More pages and a lower advertising lineage gave the 1958-1959 Hullabaloo a chance to make several additions to the fact-filled news sheet it was in the past. New columns were introduced, more features and pictures were used, and Sports Editor Craig Forshner found that he had almost twice as much space to fill whether he had twice as much to write about or not.

Although confusion and chaos reigned supreme with “It’ll-all-work-out-all-right” Adams at the helm, friction remained at an all-time low, thanks to clear-headed, fast-thinking Managing Editor Max McCombs.

Visitors to the office were amazed at how the paper ever got published at all, let alone on time every week. But, thanks to conscientious Tuesday night workers, patient printers, and Feature Editor Steve Goldware’s realization that if he didn’t meet his deadline he wouldn’t get paid, the paper never quite failed.

The editorial page did its usual share of griping and moralizing and called for such changes as a Dead Week and the abolishment of the cut system. Sharp-tongued, sarcastic Clyde Buzzard never shied from controversy and was well-read if not well-loved by the Administration.

The Tulane Student Directory is a necessary and handy aid to the students, faculty, and staff. Every full-time University student is listed; information is given concerning his New Orleans address and phone number, his home address, the school he is registered in, and his classification. The Directory also contains a listing of University extensions and the most complete listing on campus of student organizations, their presidents, and telephone numbers. The cover this year featured Tulane’s Gibson Hall.

CARNIVAL is a creative writing and general interest magazine published quarterly by students. Once a part of the Glendy Burke Society and devoted exclusively to creative writing, CARNIVAL underwent complete reorganization and now stands as an independent publication and organization. The aim of the new CARNIVAL is to provide an outlet, not only for the creative writers on campus, but for those interested in photography, magazine art and layout, sports and fashion writing, in short, all of the varied journalistic, editorial, or creative aspects involved in publishing a magazine. It is designed to appeal to as broad a segment of the student body as possible.
The TULANE LAW REVIEW, a professional legal journal published in quarterly issues, is the oldest journal of its kind in Louisiana. It is published by the students and faculty of the School of Law and emphasizes the study of comparative law. The REVIEW contains scholarly articles by leading members of the legal profession and a student section, prepared by members of the Student Board of Editors, which deals with current legal problems. The Student Board of Editors is composed of honor students in the School of Law who have exhibited outstanding legal writing ability.

Phi Delta Phi International Legal Fraternity, founded in 1869 at the University of Michigan, is the oldest professional fraternity in the United States. The White Inn at Tulane University School of Law was established in 1911.

The purpose of Phi Delta Phi is to promote the advancement of scholarship and professional ethics in law schools and among the profession at large, and members are selected on the basis of scholarship and ethics.

During the year the Fraternity sponsors lectures by outstanding members of the legal profession and also presents an annual award to the second-year student whose grades reflect the greatest improvement over those of the preceding year.

The Tulane History of Medicine Society is the only University sponsored medical organization. For twenty-six years this organization has provided the medical student with an opportunity to learn the colorful heritage of his profession on a voluntary basis.

Meetings are held twice each month. They feature historical presentations by students, faculty members, and selected guests.

The final meeting of the school year consists of an annual banquet. An outstanding guest speaker presents the annual B. B. Weinstein Lectureship Series lecture. At this banquet three student awards are given for papers presented during the year. These awards are: The Rudolph Matas Award for the best paper, The I. F. Lemann Award for the best discussion of a paper, and The B. B. Weinstein Award for the most original presentation.

Eta Sigma Phi is the national classical honor fraternity. Its purposes are to encourage classical scholarship, enhance the appreciation of Greek and Roman culture which is our priceless heritage, and promote good will and friendship among classical students. Alpha Chi chapter of Tulane carries out these purposes by presenting lecturers on classical subjects throughout the year, jointly sponsoring the Classics Department's annual Christmas celebration, Saturnalia, and stimulating interest in study of the classical languages. In addition the chapter gives medals to outstanding high school Latin and Greek students in the city and contributes to a national scholarship fund for classical study in Athens and Rome.

ETA SIGMA PHI
Martin Chapter of Phi Alpha Delta Law Fraternity was established at the Tulane Law School in 1910. The Fraternity’s activities are focused on professional and social functions. The purposes of these functions are to compliment the Law School curriculum in preparing the law student for his future career as a jurist, and to afford a social outlet for the student. Such activities include: addresses by prominent members of the bench and bar, bi-monthly toastmaster program, a lending library, periodic dances and banquets. Since the chartering of Martin Chapter the Fraternity has continued to live up to the traditions of brotherhood and scholarship, seeking to achieve those intangible objects which promote a higher type of manhood.

The Queen’s Bench is an organization devoted to the encouragement of a more extensive knowledge and a more profound appreciation of the system of common law among the numerous students from legal jurisdictions having this system. It serves as a medium for the exchange of ideas among such students and affords an opportunity otherwise unavailable to examine particular facets in the history and operation of this great legal order. Among its activities are the presentation of papers and discourses by students, faculty, and visiting speakers.
The Moot Court, organized on a competitive basis, conducts a program designed to give all law students experience in preparing and arguing cases under actual courtroom conditions. The Judges of the Moot Court are students of superior scholastic standing who plan and conduct the entire program under the guidance of Professor Leon D. Hubert, Jr., Faculty Advisor. The climax of the competition is in the third year when the two surviving teams argue before the Supreme Court of the State of Louisiana.
Pi Lambda Beta is an organization for pre-legal students founded on the Tulane campus in 1952. Its purpose is to promote closer harmony and association of students interested in the legal profession. At the regular meetings during the year and at the annual banquet students have an opportunity to hear talks given by men in various phases of the legal field and thus get some idea of the many facets of law open to them.

La Société du Droit Civil is an extracurricular society supervised by the Faculty and dedicated to the promotion of scholarly interest in the civil law. Student members of the Society are enabled to delve much more thoroughly than regular curricular time permits into the origins, history, development, and methods of the civil law, with particular attention to the Louisiana scene. One of the Society's main purposes is the preservation and extension of civil law influences in Louisiana and elsewhere.
The Pre-Medical Society in eleven years at Tulane has made outstanding progress and in turn has increasingly expanded its activities and services to the pre-medical student. The society this year had nearly 150 members, making it the largest organization of its kind on the campus. Meetings are bimonthly, during which noted people in different fields of medicine lecture to the group. The primary function is to afford students with the common goal of medicine a greater opportunity to learn more about their chosen field from eminent medical authorities, and to promote medical films and touring of medical facilities in and around New Orleans. The year’s program is culminated by the publication of the Society’s annual Pre-Med Journal distributed at the final meeting-banquet.

Alpha Epsilon Delta is a national honor society for pre-medical students. The Louisiana Gamma chapter was officially installed at Tulane this past year with charter membership conferred upon 29 students. The object of the society is to encourage excellence in pre-medical scholarship; to stimulate an appreciation of the importance of pre-medical education in the study of medicine; to promote cooperation and contacts between medical and pre-medical students and educators in developing an adequate program of pre-medical education; and to bind together similarly interested students.

The Tulane Collegiate Chapter of the American Marketing Association was organized in the Spring of 1957. The objectives of the organization are to familiarize its membership with the opportunities existing in the broad field of marketing; to develop sound thinking in marketing theory and more exact knowledge of marketing principles and their practical applications; and to promote friendly relations between students, faculty, and businessmen. These objectives are accomplished through a well planned program of frequent discussion meetings, during which guest speakers in such marketing fields as sales, advertising, research, and purchasing offer valuable first-hand information. The club also makes various tours to local businesses to observe their marketing operations first hand.

The Tulane Joint Student Branch of the American Institute of Electrical Engineers and the Institute of Radio Engineers serves as a means of presenting a more realistic view of the engineering profession to the college student. Through the Student Branch organization the students are provided with the opportunity of meeting practicing engineers in the New Orleans and adjacent areas. The organization keeps the students informed about the new developments in the field of engineering. The most important function of the organization is that it affords the opportunity to its members of developing as professional people.
Celebrating its 50th anniversary just last year, the A. I. Ch. E. maintains over one hundred student chapters in colleges throughout the United States and Canada. The Tulane chapter is organized in an attempt to better familiarize the student with the professional as well as the technical aspects of his chosen field. It serves as a bridge in helping him prepare for the day when he too will try his skill in the world of industry.

Alpha Chi Sigma is represented by the Alpha Tau Chapter at Tulane University. It is a national professional fraternity for chemical engineers and chemistry majors. Its principal purposes are to promote friendship among those in the chemical field, and to advance chemistry as a science and a profession. The organization also has alumni chapters to promote these goals after graduation.
Sigma Pi Sigma is a physics honor society whose purposes are to serve as a means of awarding distinction to students having high scholarship and promise of achievement in physics; to promote student interest in research and the study of advanced physics; to encourage a professional spirit and friendship among those who have displayed marked ability in physics; and to popularize interest in physics in the general collegiate public.

Sigma Pi Sigma is a member of the Association of College Honor Societies, an affiliated society of the American Institute of Physics, and an affiliated society of the American Association for the Advancement of Science.

Sigma Gamma Epsilon is a National Earth Sciences Honorarv Society with fifty active chapters. The society was founded March 30, 1915, at the University of Kansas. The purpose of the organization is the scholastic, scientific, and social advancement of its members and the institutions where the chapters are located. Activities include a Spring Awards Banquet, with the presentation of the Sigma Gamma Epsilon W. A. Tarr Award to an outstanding earth sciences student, and a fall Dinner-Dance and monthly guest speakers from the petroleum industry and other field of the Earth Sciences.
The Owl Club is a service organization composed of 24 medical students whose purpose is to promote better student-faculty relations; to aid in the improvement of medical education; and to handle special school wide problems.
During the past year the club has aided the curriculum planning committee and has set up a program to take all medical school applicants on a tour of the building.
In May, 1958, at the annual Owl Club banquet, certificates for “inspiring teaching, wise counsel, and keen interest in the welfare of the students,” were presented to Drs. G. E. Burch, R. H. Lenox, and Harold Cummins. The annual Owl Club Trophy for the department most outstanding in the education of its students was awarded to the Department of Pathology.

The Beta Lambda chapter of Beta Beta Beta is the national honorary biological fraternity at Newcomb College. The organization was founded in 1922, and the Newcomb chapter was organized in 1941. Membership is open to exemplary Newcomb students interested in biological sciences. The purpose of this organization is to further an interest in, and develop greater knowledge and understanding of biology.
Tri Beta meets once a month on Wednesday afternoon and its activities include field trips, discussions, lectures, and socials.

Oreades is the honorary organization designed to create and stimulate an appreciation of the classics. Its membership consists of those Newcomb students who desire to further their knowledge of the classics and especially to relate this knowledge to everyday life. Although the organization is departmental, it is not a requirement that its members major in classics. Through actual participation in the club activities the members are familiarized with the classics and their application to present day living. Included in the yearly activities are: Meetings held on the third Tuesday of every month, a Saturnalia festival in the imitation of the Roman Holiday in December, discussions, and lectures.

La Tertulia is the honorary Spanish club which was founded at Newcomb in 1939 by Ethelyn Everett under the direction of the Department of Spanish. Its purpose is to stimulate a lively interest in the language, customs, and culture of Spain and Latin American countries. It also aims to provide social and cultural association between faculty members and Spanish students. In addition to monthly meetings, special occasions such as Columbus Day, Fiesta de Navidad, Cervantes' Day, and Pan American Day are celebrated by the club. At the annual banquet in May, students and professors join together in an evening of good Spanish food and entertainment when new members are initiated and officers are elected.
The Newcomb Art Club works in connection with the Art School to promote the interest of students in the activities of the Art School and to achieve better student-faculty relationships. The club is open to every student in the Art School or any student enrolled in any course of the Art School. This year the Art Club sponsored an exhibition in the Music School lounge, helping to create an interest in art in those people outside of the art department.

The primary aims of the Tulane Sailing Club are: to teach sailing to newcomers to the sport, to provide an organized racing schedule throughout the school year, to provide social events for its members, and to promote the sport of intercollegiate racing in the southern states.

An apprentice membership is open to any Tulane or Newcomb student interested in sailing. Experience is not necessary. An advanced membership is open to apprentice members who have learned to sail and who meet the skipper qualifications of the Southern Yacht Club, with which the Tulane Sailing Club is affiliated. This advanced membership includes a student membership in the Southern Yacht Club and entitles the member to the use of its boats and facilities.
The International Fraternity of Delta Sigma Pi was founded at New York University in 1907. Gamma Mu Chapter was established at the Tulane University School of Business Administration in 1949. Delta Sigma Pi is the largest professional fraternity in the field of Commerce and Business Administration.

Gamma Mu Chapter of Delta Sigma Pi holds many professional and social activities every year. In the National Efficiency Contest in which every chapter of the fraternity competes, Gamma Mu has led the way with 100,000 points since its inception.

The Fraternity conducts programs with prominent speakers from various fields, sponsors tours of local firms, and promotes films and discussions about important topics from today’s business world. The Rose Formal at which the Rose of Delta Sig and her Court are presented, and the annual Christmas Party and Spring Hayride, are among the many activities held every year.

The Tulane International Relations Club, which is associated with the National Association of International Relations Clubs, is an organization of students for the purpose of developing an interest in international affairs and promoting an understanding of international issues at the college level. The club brings together students from all parts of this country and many foreign countries to discuss current world issues and give them an opportunity to meet each other at various social functions.

At the monthly meetings, panel discussions, films, and talks by prominent lecturers and visiting dignitaries are presented. A special feature in the yearly calendar of events is the annual United Nations Day Banquet. This along with the occasional social functions provides a well rounded background for achieving the main purposes of the International Relations Club.
The purpose of the Barracuda Club is to promote interest in synchronized swimming. The new applicants are graded on their form, rhythm, and coordination in the basic strokes, and are chosen in a competitive tryout held each fall and spring. During their weekly Wednesday meetings the Barracudas are trained in synchronized swimming. At the end of the year the club presents its annual spring pageant at which time the new members become full Barracudas. The show this year dealt with the effect of the various elements on the earth and on the Creation in its full spectre.

Among their other activities of the year, the Barracuda Club is responsible for the Newcomb Intramural Swimming Meet.

BARRACUDA CLUB
The Newcomb Dance Club is composed of those girls who are interested in ballet technique, character, modern, jazz, and interpretive dancing. At the beginning of each semester tryouts are held, and girls are elected to the club on the basis of their dancing ability.

The Dance Club has performed in campus-wide affairs, such as Christmas Night at Tulane and May Day at Newcomb. The group appeared on television at Christmas on a program with the Tulane Concert Choir. This year the cut system was enforced rigidly, and as a result the club has done more work as a functioning organization. For participating in the various performances and attending all meetings, the members are awarded a Dance Club Key on the basis of merit and service to the club. The Dance Club is under the able guidance of Miss Frances Bush.
Glendy Burke Society, the oldest student organization on the Tulane campus, was organized to allow freer expression to those students who had previously won the Glendy Burke Prizes for Oratory and Mathematics.

Glendy Burke sponsors the debating team which participates in college debate tournaments throughout the Southern states. The group also sponsors high school and college forensics competitions on the Tulane campus.

Besides these regular activities Glendy Burke sponsors visiting speakers and debaters from other schools in public debates or forum discussions and encourages student participation in individual contests such as extemporaneous speaking, oratory, and interpretative reading.

Circle K is a service organization sponsored by Kiwanis International. It is a college continuation of Key Club. It is a character building group which offers service on the campus, to the school and to the community.

Internationally organized in 1952, Circle K was established on the Tulane campus in 1955. The Tulane Circle K has cooperated with other campus and community organizations to direct orientation tours, to provide pom-poms for the LSU Game and to collect donations for the March of Dimes. Circle K plans include a drive for the Crusade for Freedom in the near future.
The Dormitory Council, composed of four specially appointed representatives, the four dormitory presidents, and the president at large, is an outgrowth of last year's Committee on Men's Residence Halls. Whereas last year's Dormitory Council dealt almost exclusively with all government within the dorms, the functions of the new Dorm Council were increased to include the promoting of school spirit in the Quadrangle, the staging of social events for dorm students and the forming of a dormitory athletic league.

This year, in addition to handling all disciplinary problems brought before it, the Dormitory Council has promoted several pep rallies in the Quadrangle, staged a large Christmas Dance for all dorm students, and helped to establish athletic events and tournaments strictly for residents of the men's dormitories.

The Resident Student Government Association is composed of all residents of the Newcomb dormitories. The Inner Council, composed of the officers of the Association, a representative from each dormitory and each dormitory president, is the governing executive, legislative, and judicial body of this Association. Its purpose is to develop an efficient system of self-government among the dormitory girls in all matters relating to their conduct, both individually and socially, and to uphold the standards and regulations of the dormitories.

The Newcomb Honor Board is responsible for helping to uphold one of the college's oldest traditions, the Honor System. Besides investigating and recommending penalties in cases of infringement of the Honor System, the Honor Board has several other regular duties. Some of these responsibilities are having every new student read and sign the Honor Pledge before the Board at the beginning of the year; directing all campus elections; and checking attendance at Student Body meetings. The Honor Board is composed of sixteen members in addition to the President who is elected by the Student Body.
The Tulane University Spirit Club is an honorary spirit organization composed of members elected by a majority vote of the active membership of the club. The organization's main desire is to foster better school spirit throughout the school year.

Tusk was responsible for pep rallies, bonfires, the shaker section at the LSU Game, chain telegrams signed by all the students sent to the football team when it played out of town, as well as publicity posters for various campus-wide activities during the first semester. The party for Tusk members and their dates was a great success. Second semester found Tusk members participating in Campus Carnival, various services designated by the Student Council and the Student Activities Board, and promoting spirit for the basketball season. It is through the efforts of these students that the school spirit at Tulane can be attributed.

Greenbackers is the oldest spirit organization on campus. Members are chosen on an honorary basis based upon their interest in school spirit, school activities, and upon their willingness to work. The members of Greenbackers are representative of all the fraternities, sororities, and independents on campus. In the spring, the club honors its new and old members with an informal party which is always a huge success.

During the year, Greenbackers was in charge of planning and promoting pep rallies, made and distributed spirit slogans before each football game, and decorated the goal posts. Among other various service functions, Greenbackers participated in Campus Carnival and presented awards to the seniors of the basketball team at the last game of the season.
The Cheerleaders exhibited great spirit during the football and basketball seasons this year as they cheered the Green Wave on the field and court. This peppy group of eight also showed their enthusiasm at bonfires, pre-game rallies, and "team send-offs" at Union Station. They aroused Greenie spirit not only on the home grounds, but also at the Georgia Tech game in Atlanta, the Vanderbilt game in Nashville, and the Navy game in Norfolk.

The Cheerleaders are members of such organizations as Tusk, Greenbackers, and Lagniappes, and they have added much to these groups with their energy, spirit, and ideas.

Heading the group this year was Gilbert Andry, who, along with Dianne Orkin, Phyllis Alexander, Bill Kennedy, and newcomers Ann Davis, Don Munson, Lynn Orkin, and Nelson Becker, led the Tulane Student Body to a new high in school spirit.

LAGNIAPPEs

Lagniappes is the University Student Dance Organization. It is composed of forty members elected from the student bodies of Tulane and Newcomb who have shown an interest in promoting spirit and social life on the campus. The group first sponsored the Freshman Dance in the new Favrot Field House. This dance, climaxing Orientation Week, provided an opportunity for the new students to get acquainted. Next in order, but first in importance was the Homecoming Dance following the game. Two orchestras alternated and the Homecoming Queen and Court were presented, making this one of the high-lights of the year. Throughout the fall, Lagniappes sponsored Pep Rally dances in the cafeteria and also ended the activities of Christmas Night at Tulane with a dance. In the spring, the organization took part in Campus Carnival and arranged for several more informal dances at which all who were interested could take part.

ADELPHONS

The Order of Adelphons is an inter-fraternity organization composed of not more than three members from each fraternity on campus. It was founded at Tulane University in 1949 to promote mutual understanding and cooperation among fraternities and to establish closer relations between fraternity men and Tulane. The principal service activities of the year include ushering at Commencement Exercises, Convocation, and Symphony Concerts, as well as general service to Tulane. The group also has several social events during the year.
The Tulane Interfaith Council is the official channel of communication between the various religious organizations and the University. Composed of two representatives and an adviser from each religious organization on campus, it is designed to carry out certain functions for the benefit of these groups and the University. It has proven to be the place for the exchange of practical ideas and experiences in such areas as provision of accurate, adequate news coverage of the activities of the various groups in the Hullabaloo and other papers; facilitation of cooperative endeavors of adult advisers and youth leaders in planning joint religious programs, including the Fall Orientation program and religious dorm discussions; and the provision of denominational preference cards.

The Baptist Student Union serves as the connecting link between the college campus and the local Baptist churches. The Tulane-Newcomb-Loyola BSU is one of six units here in New Orleans, cooperating in church enlistment as well as spiritual ministry to the college student. Activities of the BSU on the campus include: noonday chapel services, dinners, mission projects, social activities, council and committee work, visitation and enlistment, state and southwide denominational meetings, and city-wide projects including an annual Focus Week.
Canterbury Association serves the mission of Christianity in higher education by fostering among university students a more mature understanding of the faith and practice of the Episcopal Church and loyalty to its corporate life.

Canterbury Association centers its activities at the Chapel of the Holy Spirit, the Episcopal University Center. Activities include weekly Thursday night discussion forums led by prominent clergy of the Church, which consider a variety of topics related to the total needs of the college community in the light of the Christian faith.

The Christian Science Organization of Tulane University was founded in December, 1943, and is authorized by the Manual of the Mother Church. The organization holds weekly testimonial meetings on campus and sponsors a lecture each year by a member of the Board of Lectureship of the Mother Church to which the students, faculty members, and friends are invited.
The Tulane-Newcomb B’nai Brith Hillel Foundation celebrates this year its twelfth anniversary of religious, cultural, interfaith, social, and social welfare program for students on this campus. The Hillel House, at 912 Broadway provides a chapel, library, social hall, play room, and kitchen for its members.

Sabbath services are held every Friday night conducted by student lay readers, and bi-weekly cultural meetings feature local and college speakers. Discussion groups and a class in Hebrew are held weekly. One of the organizers of the Tulane Interfaith Council, Hillel is one of the sponsoring organizations for the Religion-in-Life Week and other functions of the council. Hillel sponsors the Student Welfare Fund drive to secure funds for local, national, and overseas charities.

The Newman Club is an organization for Catholic college students on secular campuses. Its purpose is to provide the students with religious, intellectual, and social activities.

Newman Hall, at 1037 Audubon St., was acquired by the club in 1954 and has been completely remodeled to meet the needs of the increasing membership. The 325 members of the Tulane Newman Club are only part of the more than 300,000 members of the National Newman Club Federation composed of Newman Clubs at 760 secular colleges and universities throughout the United States. This year the Tulane Club was chosen by the Federation as the Best Newman Club in the Nation.
The Wesley Foundation at Tulane conducts an active week-day and Sunday program. This arrangement was designed so that every student could attend at least one event during the week. The program areas include a Sunday evening fellowship program and vespers service, as well as Thursday meetings with parties, religious drama, communion services and other special worship services, a graduate and married student forum, retreats, conferences, ecumenical gatherings, and deputation teams rounding out the schedule. The student center is open seven days a week for leisure, recreational and program activities.

The Westminster Fellowship is the campus organization of Presbyterian students. It seeks to guide and strengthen students in the Christian faith, and to show the relevance of Christianity to all of life. It emphasizes worship, discussion, instruction, leadership training, service, and fellowship. The Presbyterian Student Center is located adjacent to the campus at 1122 Broadway.
The Choral Union is composed of members of the other choral groups, faculty, and town residents. This group presents two major performances during the year. On March 8 in McAlister Auditorium the Choral Union presented Puccini's Messa di Gloria. The members of the New Orleans Symphony, tenor Ticho Parly, and bass-baritone Kenneth Dooley assisted. Mr. Baker conducted the concert.
The Newcomb Choir was formerly the Newcomb Glee Club. Its activities include informal songfests, concerts for various organizations, tours of neighboring cities and states, and a formal concert each spring. This year the Newcomb Choir made an appearance on T.V. and presented a Christmas Concert. The group also made a short tour in May to Houston by way of Chenault Field at Lake Charles where they sang for the Air Force.

The Tulane-Newcomb Concert Choir, formerly called the A Capella Choir, not only came forward with a new name, but also new costumes. The girls of the choir were attired in short, white formals and the men in tuxedos. They would alternate this dress with their usual green and gold robes. Another first for this year’s Concert Choir was a tour through the mid-west to St. Louis, Milwaukee, Chicago, Edinburg, Indianapolis, and the southern cities of Memphis and Paducah. Plans were also made for the Concert Choir to appear in resorts and hotels on the Isle of Jamaica, B.W.I., during the first week of June.

TULANE UNIVERSITY BAND
Flutists perfect a difficult cadenza

Drawing its membership from all colleges of the university, the Tulane University Band is known as one of the finest concert bands in the South. During the football season, an all-male group performs on the field featuring various sections of the band, and frequently includes Latin American and Dixieland jazz favorites.

During the basketball season, and for pep rallies, a smaller Pep Band provides much spirit on the campus.

Since the chief purpose of the band is to perform on the concert stage, the 55 piece ensemble gives two different concerts on the campus, one at Christmas, and the annual two night Spring Concert.

Spreading the name of Tulane to high schools throughout the South, the Spring Tour this year took the band to Florida.

While director John Morrissey was on a years leave, Ted Demuth ably conducted the band through a busy year, which also included recording sessions for a 12" LP, and two television appearances.

CAMPUS NITE

The 1959 Campus Nite was its usual success with the production of "The Chase and The Chaste." Credit goes to the author-director Malcolm Genet, Mr. Einar Pederson, the officers, and the many people who worked behind the scenes and on the stage to give Tulane a top-notch musical comedy.

Campus Niters carried on a ten year tradition of producing a completely original musical comedy. The script, music, sets, and costumes were all products of Tulane and Newcomb students.

"The Chase and The Chaste" took place on the Sally IV, an old time Mississippi River Show Boat. Situation comedy, melodrama, love affairs, private detectives, chorus girls, and a happy ending all combined to give a finished production and leave a well-satisfied audience.

The Reserve Officers Training Corps of the United States Army exists for the purpose of developing officers—leaders of men. It offers a course of instruction leading to a commission as a second lieutenant in the U.S. Army Reserve or a Regular Army commission to those who can qualify. The young college student can prepare now, during his academic days, through ROTC training, to utilize the military service as a means of self-development and to integrate its requirements into his future.

Support of our nation's Reserve Forces is a basic requirement of good citizenship. Thus, the ROTC offers an opportunity to make one's military service a more substantial contribution to our security. To some it provides entry to a distinguished lifetime career of service to the nation. In both cases, America benefits from the service of young men training in our eminent system of higher education.

The ROTC curriculum offers subjects common to all branches of the Army including psychology of leadership, personnel management, Army administration, American military history, map and aerial photograph reading, military operations and logistics, teaching methods, weapons and their employment, and command and staff procedures. In addition, the curriculum of the Army ROTC unit at Tulane offers training and transportation subjects which prepare the students for a commission in the Transportation Corps.

There are various national military societies represented on the campus whose active members are selected from ROTC students, such as The Pershing Rifles founded in 1891 and Scabbard and Blade originally organized in 1905. At Tulane the Annual Military Ball is one of the outstanding campus social events of the year. The ROTC Rifle Team participates annually for the William Randolph Hearst Trophy and other awards. Many awards to outstanding ROTC cadets are offered by various military and civic organizations, as well as by interested individuals.
This year the Naval Reserve Officers Training Corps Unit celebrated its twentieth anniversary on the Tulane campus.

Under the direction of Captain R. V. Gregory, the unit once again pursued its mission of supplementing the United States Naval Academy in providing officers for service in the Navy and the Marine Corps.

The NROTC students are enrolled under one of two programs, either the Regular or the Contract Program. The Regular Program received candidates from a national examination conducted on a competitive basis in each state. Upon receipt of an academic degree, the Regular midshipmen are commissioned, and enter upon a four-year tour of active duty.

The Contract Program receives qualified students who enter into mutual contract with the Navy Department. These students are selected by the Unit Commanding Officer from those who apply in their freshman year. Contract midshipmen serve as commissioned officers on active duty for two years, upon completion of their university curriculum and acquisition of their degree.

Academic training for both Regular and Contract midshipmen is supplemented by summer training cruises aboard Navy ships, and by training at Naval Bases or Marine Corps schools.

The NROTC Unit sponsors many activities each year, including several military organizations and social events. The Navy, participating in all areas of intramural athletics, has proven to be a perennial contender for the intramural championship. The blue-shirted "middies" are familiar sights when tournament finals are played.

The Air Force ROTC Cadet of 1959 has a serious mission, and not an easy one. Starting with the Basic Course, consisting of the Freshman and Sophomore years, he receives four years of military training in preparation for his future role as a USAF Officer dedicated to the defense of his country.

The Basic Course introduces the Cadet to the elements of Aerial Warfare, and acquaints him with his mission as a member of the Air Force and as a citizen of the Air Age. At the end of the Sophomore year, those Cadets who have shown a serious and mature interest in the program and those who have best qualified academically and physically are admitted into the Advanced Course.

The Advanced Course completes the job of producing a capable officer started in the first two years. The Advanced Cadet receives more intense academic instruction and holds a command position on the Drill Field and in the Detachment itself, running the machinery of the Group under the supervision of the Commissioned Officers.

To round out their military education, the men of the Advanced Program undergo training at an Air Base during the summer separating the last two years of school.

However, despite the serious nature of the program, there are many light moments during the year, social and athletic events in which both Basic and Advanced Cadets participate plus a number of official activities which often turn out to be as enjoyable as they are educational.

Several Cadets distinguished themselves this year, six being initiated into Scabbard and Blade, national ROTC Honor Society, and two more were selected for membership in Omicron Delta Kappa, National Leadership Fraternity.

Detachment 320 has been under the command of Col. Charles Sommers since 1954 and from that time to the present has enjoyed progressive achievement. It is with regret that this detachment says goodbye to Col. Sommers, who retires in July after a varied and successful career in the Air Force.

Honorary Cadet Colonel, Elise Hopkins, is formally presented at the annual Fall Dance
After an absence of several years from the Tulane campus, the Arnold Air Society was reorganized. This year the Alvin Callender Squadron of this national service organization was officially reactivated. Composed of advanced cadets, the primary mission of the squadron is to closer co-ordinate the functions of the Cadet Group to those of Tulane University, the local community, and the United States Air Force.

In order to carry out this responsibility the squadron sponsors and promotes the extra-curricular activities of the Group besides assisting the local Boy Scouts and Civil Air Patrol.

Members each receive a subscription to the Air Force Magazine and participate in a low premium life insurance policy. In addition, members are eligible for two Arnold Air Society Link Fellowships valued at $1,500 apiece. Several successful social events were also given throughout the year.
The Tailhook Club was established three years ago to foster interest and to orient the midshipmen in Naval aviation.

The Club arranges indoctrination flights for NROTC students in Naval aircraft and each year it promotes a three day field trip to the Naval Air Station at Pensacola, Florida. Aviation topics are presented by guest speakers at the regular monthly meetings. Membership is open to all midshipmen and the primary qualification is a genuine interest in aviation.

The Anchor and Chain Society is a midshipmen organization in which each class of the NROTC unit is represented. Its function is to promote better “esprit de corps” in the Navy unit through planning social functions: The Welcome Aboard Ball honoring incoming freshmen, the informal Midwinter Party, and the colorful Farewell Ball honoring the graduating seniors.

The anchor and chain in front of the Navy Building is the Society’s coat of arms.

Richie Petitbon, Tulane Green Wave’s 200 pound, 6-4 quarterback, first earned recognition as a top flight ball player after pushing the Greenies to a startling 14 to 6 upset over the United States Naval Academy midway in the 1958 football season.

After that thrilling ball game, Petty was named the “Back of the Week” by the United Press International and “Co-Back of the Week” by the Associated Press. He also received the Sports Illustrated National Back of the Week Award after his brilliant play against the Middies.

Petitbon’s final statistics are the highest achieved by a Tulane football player since All-American Eddie Price played in the Sugar Bowl Stadium. Richie finished third in the SEC in total offense with 943 yards. His passing was tops in the conference, completing 66 out of 125 passes for 3 TD’s and 728 yards. Richie gained 213 yards rushing to complete his offensive record. Not shown in the statistics, but easily seen in the game, was his outstanding defensive work. Petitbon played both offensive and defensive this year and excelled in both.

He ended the year making First Team Quarterback on the UPI All SEC Team and Second Team Quarterback on the AP All SEC Team. He was the second round draft choice of the Chicago Bears of the National Football League where he will be used mainly as a defensive halfback.
FOOTBALL

The Green Wave completed their 1958 season with a 3-7 record. However, this record cannot possibly include all of the superb performances of individual players, the many anxious moments of a game, the heartbreak of losses, and the feelings of Tulane’s loyal rooters.

In Tulane’s opener, first game jitters and inexperience played a major role in the 34-14 loss to Florida. However, the revitalized Wave outplayed the Gators the entire second half.

The Texas game was a heartbreaker. The Wave played excellently, but the Texans always managed to keep one step ahead: Final score 21-20.

A couple of breaks equalized Tulane’s outstanding defensive play and Georgia Tech, availing itself of these opportunities, defeated the Greenies 14-0.

Ole Miss proved too powerful to contain in the second half, and Tulane’s undermanned team again went down fighting to the tune of 19-8.

A bright spot in an otherwise gloomy season was the Navy upset. It proved that Tulane could rise to the occasion on any given Saturday and handle any first rate college team in the country.

Fresh from the Navy win, the overconfident Greenies ran into a surprising offense and an air tight defense. They bowed to the Kansas Jayhawks 14-9.

Tulane, bouncing back from the Kansas defeat, rode rough shod over Texas Tech the following week: Final score 27-0.

The Wave continued on their winning ways as they downed a tough Alabama eleven in a desperately fought game 13-7.

Vandy, however, put an end to Tulane’s short lived success as the Commodores ripped the game wide open in the fourth quarter with an intercepted Tulane forward pitchout.

In Tulane’s final game, they were completely outgunned and outmatched by their arch rivals from Baton Rouge. The Wave played a superb first half, but lack of reserves finally took its toll.

The Green Wave was strongest in the backfield where players like Richie Petitbon, “Boo” Mason, Connie Andrews, Percy Colon and Eddie Dunn proved they could do the job. Up front in the line the Wave was bolstered by experienced players in Pete Abadie, Leo Young, Jimmy Blount, John DiVetro, Neal Jones, Don Lockwood, Bill Clements and Dan Egan, plus newcomers Pat McLean, Joe LeSage, Bernard Darre, and Bill Brabham.

Graduation will bring few losses to the Wave and with so many experienced lettermen returning and several top prospects from the frosh expected to fill key positions, Tulane can well look forward to a bright football future.
The Tulane Green Wave, unable to recover from a damaging first half, dropped the season's opener to the Florida Gators 34-14. First game jitters and inexperience played a big role in the game's first half as the veteran Gators pushed over three touchdowns. The Greenies showed very little on offense. Their two touchdowns came in the fourth quarter following a series of passes by Carlton Sweeney and Phil Nugent. Tulane tried 41 passes and completed 20 for 191 yards. Tulane scored their first touchdown as the fourth quarter opened after being contained for three periods by Florida's strong defensive line. Carlton Sweeney threw an intended pass for Leo Young, but there was a penalty for interference and the ball was placed on the Florida 3. Tommy Mason fumbled as he drove to the Florida goal line and Percy Colon fell on the ball in the end zone for the Tulane touchdown. The Wave's final score came on a series of Nugent passes. The speedy little quarterback passed to Young for 18 yards and a first down on the Gator 17. A Nugent aerial to "Boo" Mason moved the ball to the Florida 5 and another first down. Nugent then hit Abadie for the TD.

Pass-minded Tulane and a sharp Texas team gave New Orleans fans an exciting evening of football at Greenie Stadium. Though losing 21-20, Tulane gave its supporters many thrilling moments up to the final seconds when the Greenies sailed through the air nearly 80 yards for their last touchdown and Carlton Sweeney scooted around end for the two points. The game was a thrilling offensive contest. In the first half, hard running, Petitbon’s splendid pitching, and pass patterns which left Tulane receivers in the clear time and again, carried the Greenies to a score of 7-6 at half time. The Wave outgained the Longhorns in all phases, but finally that old malady, “fumble-itis,” sank Tulane. The Wave ground out 204 net yards to Texas’ 201, and in the air Tulane passed for 172 yards as opposed to the Longhorns’ 36. Shining for the Greenwave in the line were Phil Heffington at left end, Don Lockwood at left tackle, Paul Hawley at left guard, Neal Jones at center, Leo Young and George McLean at right end. Petitbon and Sweeney were good at quarter and Colon, Fleming, Andrews, and the Masons were sharp at the back positions.
Tulane bowed to an aggressive Georgia Tech team before a crowd of 38,000 at Grant Field, Atlanta. A couple of breaks in the game gave the Yellow Jackets their scoring chance and they made the most of them. Despite the loss, Tulane played exceptionally fine ball on defense and particularly on a goal line stand in the closing minute of the contest. They stopped a 65 yard Tech march by holding them for 4 downs from the 1 yard line. The Greenies moved the ball well, but they couldn’t keep a drive going. Tech failed to score a third time on two different occasions because of Tulane’s strong line play. The Yellow Jackets worked the ball down to the Wave 5, but they failed to go over for the score. With one minute left to play, the Tech men were again knocking on Tulane’s back door. The Yellow Jackets put on a drive that carried them to the Tulane 1 yard marker, where the Greenies put on a brilliant goal line stand to prevent a touchdown. Tulane’s line play was outstanding. Dan Egan was the defensive star for the Greenies. Other defensive stalwarts were Don Lockwood, Billy Clements, John DiVietro, Jimmy Blount, Neal Jones, and Dave Painter.

A spirited Tulane eleven put up a gallant fight, but the Rebels proved too powerful to contain, and the Wave went down, 19-8. The game featured electrifying play by both teams, but it was Richie Petitbon, Tulane quarterback, who made the most spectacular run. He took a Rebel kickoff late in the fourth quarter and sprinted 75 yards, eluding every Ole Miss defender, before stumbling on the Mississippi 14. The second-round draft choice of the Chicago Bears played his finest game since coming to Tulane. He scored the Wave’s only touchdown on a quarterback sneak, and it was his exceptionally good passing that put the team in a scoring position. Spiro Cosse, who made his first start as a Tulane linebacker, led the Greenies in tackles with 6 solos and 4 assists. He was followed by Billy Clements, who had 6 and 3 assists. However, the whole Tulane line again put on their usual good show. Petitbon completed 10 passes out of 18 tries for 95 yards. The Ole Miss defense was too much for Tulane’s running attack, and Tom McClellan, the Wave’s best gainer, rushed for only 27 yards.

Playing their finest game of the 1958 season and mixing a strong running game with limited passes, Tulane sank the favored Navy eleven, 14-6, in the colorful Oyster Bowl Classic. With Richie Petitbon playing his best game, particularly in the running department, the Greenies made two touchdown marches, the first covering 83 yards and the second netting 66. Petitbon scored both touchdowns, and on the strength of his play, both on offense and defense, was voted the outstanding player. Tulane on the ground outgained the "Middies" 214 yards to 79. The Greenies tried only 5 passes, completing 2 for 24 yards. Navy tried 24 passes, completing 14 for 165 yards. Head mentor, Andy Pilney, was well pleased with the Greenies' fine showing. He praised Petitbon for his selection of plays and gave much credit to Tom McClellan, Percy Colon, and "Boo" Mason for their performances. The Tulane line also played well, Bill Clements being the standout. Dan Egan played one of his better games while Billy Brabham, among the newcomers, was outstanding on defense.

CONGRATULATIONS ARE THE ORDER OF THE DAY—Coach Green praises Wave linemen

Stout Tulane defense stymies Navy ground support
Tulane's Greenies ran into a buzz-saw defense coupled with a surprisingly strong offense, and, despite desperate running and passing attempts, found their ears pinned back by the Kansas Jayhawks, 14-9. Tulane, plagued by fumbles, penalties, and intercepted passes couldn't penetrate the stone wall built around them by the determined men from the plains of Kansas. The alertness and brilliant running of the "Hawkers" star quarterback, Bill Crank, kept the Wave guessing on every play. The inspired Jayhawkers deserved their victory in every sense of the word. First downs were equal, 12 to 12, Kansas outrushed Tulane 171 yards to 112, and though Tulane outpassed the enemy, 130 to 65, the 96 yards gained from pass interceptions by Kansas left its mark. Kansas was laying for Petitbon, who found his every move anticipated. He picked up 13 yards in 9 carries and completed 6 passes out of 17, for short gains. Nugent, playing one of his better games of the season, completed 4 passes out of 7 for 64 yards, and Tom McClellan led the Wave rushing with 53 yards in 14 attempts.

Head down—full steam ahead!

Colon and Young halt Jayhawker after short gain
The Red Raiders of Texas Tech ran into a mad Greenie team and fell 27-0 to Tulane's balanced attack which scored two touchdowns through the air and two on the ground. Tulane's confidence, so high after the Navy upset and so low after their defeat by Kansas, was again boosted by their victory over Texas Tech. The Greenies were brisk on offense and defense. Their play was marred only by the many penalties inflicted against them for assorted infractions. The defensive highlight of the evening was a stiff "doorstep defense" by the Wave. Less than nine minutes after the opening kickoff, Tulane had 14 points. The first score came on a 28 yard pitch from Richie Petitbon to left end, Pete Abadie. Pete cut to his right in the end zone, "lost" a Red Raider defender and made a neat catch. Not long after that, Petitbon threw one to "Boo" Mason good for 60 yards and a touchdown—aided no little by Pat McLean's crushing block. Tulane's line play was excellent and their backfield outstanding. Especially effective was the work of young Ray Ridgeway, a guard. Noticeable among the other good performers were LeSage, Spiro, Cosse, McLean and Darre.

Tulane's Green Wave turned in a great team effort and downed a desperately fighting Alabama Crimson Tide, 13-7. The game was a thriller. Although Tulane's All SEC quarterback Richie Petitbon turned in another one of his sparkling performances, it remained for a couple of previously unheralded Greenies to measure the difference between defeat and victory for the Wave. Billy Clements of Shelbyville, Kentucky, and Joe LeSage of Beaumont, Texas, were the boys who came through when the going was rough. Petitbon, Mason, Abadie, Young, Colon and other Wave stalwarts turned in their usual staunch game. A recovered fumble gave Tulane a touchdown early in the first period. After moving the ball down to the 1 yard line, Dunn punched over the score. The final Tulane tally came in the third period when Dunn, who gained 53 yards on 15 carries, turned in a 24 yard rush off tackle to give the Greenies a first down on the Alabama 15. Here a 15 yard penalty for a personal foul put the ball on the 'Bama 1. Petitbon drove over for the score, and Howard, "The Toe" Kisner booted the extra point.

Tulane, stopped twice inside the Vanderbilt 5, was defeated by the Commodores 12-0 in a “see-saw” battle. Only in the fourth quarter was the game ripped wide-open when Vandy’s Dave Ray intercepted a Tulane forward pitchout and galloped 94 yards for the Commodores’ final touchdown. That was not the only sad event for the Green Wave. Twice they missed touchdowns by 1 yard after excellent drives, and once Carlton Sweeney passed 32 yards to Leo Young at the Vandy goal line, but the play was called back and the Greenies were penalized for off sides. Vanderbilt pushed the Wave around most of the first half. However, near the end of the half Tulane started a passing game that had the Greenie fans on their feet and Vandy supporters biting their nails. The Green Wave went 78 yards in the last two and a half minutes. That drive, and a readjustment between halves, worked wonders for Tulane. It not only loosened the Vandy defenses, but turned an ineffective Tulane offense into a smart, well-organized style.

With engineer Warren Rabb at the throttle and firemen "Cannonball" Cannon and "Jackrabbit" Robinson shoveling the coal, Louisiana State University's Tiger express roared on its conquering way, amazing the largest crowd that ever gathered for a sports event in the South, by smothering the Tulane Greenies, 62-0. The second half of this football game clearly indicates why the Tigers of LSU were unanimously selected the number one team in the nation. Louisiana State had 33 football players, each of whom could have been a top varsity player on any of the outstanding teams in the country. Throughout the course of any given game, Paul Dietzel, LSU head coach, could substitute his first team, his "Go-team," or his colorful "Chinese Bandits" without sacrificing 1 yard to the opposition. After a scoreless first quarter, the Tigers battled out a touchdown late in the second period, and came out for the start of the second half with the skinny margin of 6-0. Then, however, the superior manpower of the Bengals and the lack of Tulane reserves started to take its toll.

The 1958-59 basketball season proved a pleasant surprise for Greenie rooters. Coach Cliff Well's hoopsters ended their twenty-four game schedule with a very respectable 13-11 overall record, including six wins in SEC play.

Tulane received consistently good performances from lettermen Vic Klinker, Gary Stoll, Dick O'Brien, Ron Mitchell, and Louie Anderson throughout the entire season. Newcomers Al O'Brien and Gus Wenzel and veteran Bob Risk also sparkled for the basketeers.

Klinker pulled down individual scoring honors with 129 fieldgoals and 124 free throws to his credit for 352 total points. The 6'5" junior center also topped the Wells men with a fine 15.8 points per game average. Following closely behind were the Wave's backcourt duo, Stoll and D. O'Brien, with 13.3 and 12.6 averages respectively.

For their outstanding play, Vic Klinker and Gary Stoll were named to the post-season All-SEC squad.

The Wave highlighted the year as they twice trounced the Tigers from Baton Rouge—ah, sweet revenge!

1958-59 Tulane Freshmen

Klinker makes good on a tip
The year, 1934, probably wouldn’t mean much to anyone if he were not a Tulane fan. For this marked Emmett Pare’s first year as tennis coach. Over the past twenty-five years, Pare has helped build many champions, and the ’59 season was certainly no exception.

With the return of Crawford Henry who had missed all of last season because of illness, the Greenies had an unbeatable one-two singles punch in him and Ron Holmberg.

The squad had more depth than it has had in recent years. In addition to Holmberg and Henry, Coach Pare relied heavily on veterans Carl Goodman, Phillip Petra, Elliot Bell, and Austin Robertson. Bill Hardcastle and Larry Caton, 1958 SEC Freshmen Champions, also sparkled for the varsity.

Tulane’s net future appears quite bright as the team will lose only Holmberg and Goodman via graduation—and Mr. Pare will be back.

1958 BASEBALL

The Tulane diamondmen, though under the expert direction of the former Red Sox pitching great, Mel Parnell, concluded their 1958 schedule with a 4-18 record. They were unable to produce a winning season, mainly for lack of depth in experienced ball players.

The sophomore studded Greenies were only able to defeat Mississippi State, Northwestern, Louisiana College, and Ole Miss.

Coach Parnell depended primarily upon the consistent performance of Stu Bush behind the plate, first baseman Bob Windstein, keystone sacker Herb Kays, third baseman Fred Dickerson, short-stop Joe Friedman, and outfielders Joe Boulosa, Carl Miller, Gene Tarzetti, and Pete Prevett. The pitching staff was headed by Herb Fall with Jeff Bratton, Sonny Trenchard, Chubby Marks, and Ed Dufour.

In the power departments Kays topped the Wave with four roundtrippers followed by Stu Bush and Pete Prevett with two each.
The future appears bright, for the Greenies will have eight lettermen returning. They will have much improved facilities with the new stadium behind Favrot Fieldhouse and will be under the guidance of new Tulane coach, Bob Whitman.

The Wave fans can certainly look forward to a better brand of baseball.
Tulane’s 1959 golf team proved to be one of the strongest in many seasons. Bolstered by the return of four lettermen, Tommy Wittenberg, Maury Klumok, Wayne Barcello, and Don Marcus, and by a very fine freshman squad, including National Junior Chamber of Commerce champion Jerry Greenbaum, the linksters gave Coach Miller great depth and power. The squad was co-captained by Wittenberg and Barcello.
WOMEN'S SPORTS

All Newcomb students take a two-year physical education program, participating in one individual or dual activity, dance, and swimming. Offered throughout the year are life saving, swimming, and dancing. Archery, golf, and tennis are available in the Fall and Spring. Water safety is also taught in the Spring, while badminton and body mechanics are Winter activities.

Basketball, swimming, tennis, ping-pong, softball, and volleyball are the intramural sports available to the entire school. The Athletic Council sponsors these intramural sports and sororities receive Pan-Hellenic points for participating and placing.

An exciting game of the volleyball finals between AOPi and Pi Beta Phi
The intramural sports program, under the capable guidance of Ben Abadie, once again proved to be a very successful means of athletic competition for students who are unable to participate in varsity sports.

This year's intramural council officers are Morris Borock, President; Nick Woolverton, Vice-President; and Robert Watts, Secretary. The council is made up of representatives from eighteen student organizations that formulate the rules and regulations of athletic events supervised by the council.

Individual trophies are given for the winners of each athletic event, along with team trophies. At the end of the season, an Intramural trophy is given to the team with the highest number of points accumulated during the year. Three sweaters are given to the outstanding sports managers in the Intramural Council whose teams score the most points and who personally participate in 80% of the Intramural Council activities.
The opening of the new Student Union Building next year will greatly extend the facilities of the intramural program. It will provide bowling alleys, an Olympic-size swimming pool, ping-pong and pool tables, and a general games room for various student activities. The new Student Union brings to Tulane the welcomed era of good, wholesome college life located conveniently on the campus.

Other additions to the Intramural Athletic program are the new track and baseball fields next to the Favrot Field House. This is part of a program to improve the facilities of the Intramural program which was begun last year with the construction of the field house.

Coach Gene Newton’s determined freshmen took the opening kickoff and surprisingly marched upfield. The rather small freshman line opened big holes, and the backs, led by tailback Vance Strange and fullback Jack Boasberg, began pounding out large yardage to put the ball on the 22-yard line.

From this point, Strange took the snap from center, followed his blockers and scooted untouched around his right end to paydirt. The extra point failed and the frosh led, with just 7 minutes having elapsed, 6-0.

In the latter part of the first quarter, Strange hit blocking-back Jimmy Brooks with a 30-yard pass. Brooks caught the ball beautifully between two defenders and out-ran the secondary for the remaining 39 yards. This was good for a 60-yard pass play.

The extra point was good and the freshmen led at halftime, 14-0.

The sophomores, coached by Claude “Boo” Mason, weren’t going to give up and began moving after receiving the kickoff.

After one futile drive, the sophs again took over, led by quarterback Fred McCaughan. He passed twice to halfback Dave Conner, who scored on the second reception for the only soph score of the afternoon.

In the fourth quarter, the frosh seemed uncontainable as they struck for two more touchdowns. Tailback Strange hit his favorite target, Don Penix, with a 53 yard pass that carried to the sophomore 10-yard line. On a similar play, Penix scored and the frosh led 20-6.

However, the most spectacular play came in the closing minutes when reserve tailback Frank Tauil went 50 yards for another freshman score. The game ended minutes later with the freshmen winning, 26-6.

Pan-Hellenic representatives conduct business at an informal meeting
Newcomb Pan-Hellenic is an organization composed of two representatives from each sorority on the campus, and it has as its aims good scholarship, whole-hearted cooperation with the college's ideals for student life, and service to the college community.

The Council sponsors the following activities: Scholarship Banquet; City Pan-Hellenic's Scholarship Tray; a Faculty Tea; Song Fest; Homecoming Decorations; Campus Carnival Competition; Pan-Hellenic Sports; Rush Week.

A Pan-Hellenic Trophy is presented to the sorority which accumulates the most points each year. The accumulation of these points is a good barometer for determining the sororities which best achieve the goals of the organization.
Alpha Delta Pi, founded at Wesleyan College, was installed at Newcomb in 1906.

This sorority had a very active year in campus activities. Among the many events in which Alpha Delta Pi took part were Songfest, in which they won third place; Homecoming decorations, in which they won second place; and the Pep Rally decorations, in which they won the "Pep Rally Award" for the best decorations at the Pep Rally before the Tulane-LSU game.

The sorority was hostess at a pledge party for the other sororities on campus in the fall; had a party on "The President" December 5th; a party for orphans on December 6th; and, as a Christmas party, had breakfast at Brennan’s on December 14th. The year’s social activities were climaxd by their annual formal April 25th at the Yacht Club.

Alpha Delta Pi members are active in all campus activities, and the sorority is especially proud of Karen Bailey who is Vice-President of the Music School and President of the Newcomb Glee Club; and Suzie Bruck who was Queen of the Freshman-Sophomore football game.

THIRD ROW: Katherine Powell, Margaret Powell, Judy Reeves, Ann Rosteet, Connie Sarvay, Arthel Schenemann, Cynthia Ann Schilling, Merle Scott, Linda Sigley, Judith Smith, Ginger Spitzfaden, Judy Sterling, Eleanor Mary Tregre.
Alpha Epsilon Phi, founded at Barnard College, was installed at Newcomb College in 1916 and has been an active sorority on campus since then.

Among the A E Phi’s many campus activities were Songfest and Homecoming decorations. This year the sorority prepared a Thanksgiving basket for a needy family and gave a Christmas party for Kingsley House.

Members and their dates all had a marvelous time at a semi-formal dinner-dance held at the Lakewood Country Club in November as well as at their annual formal in the spring. Luncheon get-togethers at the house during the year were enjoyed by all and added to the spirit of the sorority, as did the Founder’s Day Luncheon.
The “famous people” in A E Phi were found in all activities and organizations on campus. Dotty Gold, President of the Newcomb Student Body, and Andree Keil were elected to Who’s Who, and in the Jambalaya Hall of Fame were Andree, President of Mortar Board; and Sandy Schwartz, Assistant Editor of the Jambalaya and Treasurer of the Senior Class. Beverly Blumberg and Phyllis Alexander were elected to Assets, and Phyllis served as President of this Sophomore honorary organization. Sherrell Hoffman was President of Tulane University Theatre. Beauty honors were credited to Charlotte Blotner, elected to the Jambalaya Beauty Court.

Alpha Omicron Pi was founded at Barnard College, and in 1898 Pi chapter was established on the Newcomb campus. This sorority had quite a year for firsts, winning this coveted place in both Homecoming decorations and Songfest. In Pan-Hellenic sports, these girls won second in both Ping-Pong and Basketball. Alpha Omicron Pi also participated in Campus Carnival, and in December the sorority gave a Christmas party for orphans with the Phi Kappa Sigmas.

A house-party on the coast before school started the AOPi’s social year, and another house-party with the new pledges was given after school began. The New Orleans Country Club was the scene of a pledge dinner-dance in November. Among the many social events of the Spring semester, the sorority enjoyed dancing to the music of Rene Louaple at their formal March 6th at the Lakewood Country Club.

PI CHAPTER

Alpha Omicron Pi had a special interest in the Sugar Bowl this year, for Kathleen Grenrood was Queen of this event. Justine Bernard and Colleen Sullivan were named to the JAMBAVAYA Hall of Fame; Josie Pope and Jane Babst served on Honor Board; and Emily Harris and Velma Crawford were elected to Assets. Colleen Sullivan serves as President of the Junior Class and as Recording Secretary of Tusk. Cecile Dodge was Vice-President of the Junior Class; and other members of the sorority were active in such campus organizations as Greenbackers, Tusk, and Assets. Kay Hecker represented Alpha Omicron Pi on the Homecoming Court; Judy McCallum was on the Freshman-Sophomore Football Court; Judie Edwards was in the Commerce Court; and Beth Monroe Dunbar was chosen for the JAMBAVAYA Beauty Court.

Founded at the University of Arkansas, Rho chapter of Chi Omega was established at Newcomb College in 1900.

Among Chi Omega’s many campus activities were participation in Songfest, Campus Carnival, and Homecoming decorations. Boxes were sent to a Greek orphan sponsored by the sorority, and many members worked at the Crippled Children’s Hospital.

A houseparty at the Buena Vista began the social activities for the year. In November, the Chi Omegas were hostesses at a dinner dance, and enjoyed lunches at the house and supper meetings. The formal, held at the Gold Room of the Roosevelt hotel on February 13, was a huge success and all enjoyed “Papa” Celestin’s band. Among the many other spring activities was the annual Founders’ Day Banquet.
Chi Omega is proud of the many honors its members have won on the campus in the past year. Susan Locke, Elinor Moreland, Carole Stafford, and Carol Downes were elected to Who's Who as well as JAMBALAYA Hall of Fame. Vaughan Burdin served as representative to the Tulane Student Council and was a member of the JAMBALAYA Hall of Fame. Chi Omega was represented in Mortar Board by Elinor Moreland, Carol Downes, and Harriet Barry. Carol Downes served as President of Newcomb House Council. Army and Air Force sponsors were Rosemary Stewart, Barbara Burdin, and Sarah Quinn. Barbara Burdin and Sarah Quinn represented Chi Omega in the Homecoming Court, and Lida Gregory and Sarah Quinn were in the JAMBALAYA Beauty Court.

Delta Zeta was founded at Newcomb College in 1924 as Beta Phi Alpha. Delta Zeta and Beta Phi Alpha merged in 1941.

Delta Zeta’s activities this year began before school with a convention in Chicago where Beta Upsilon chapter won the “Best Idea” award. During the school year, Delta Zeta participated in Homecoming decorations, Songfest, and Campus Carnival. In December, the sorority gave a Christmas party for deaf children as part of their philanthropic project for the year.
In the fall, Delta Zeta highlighted the closing of football season with an open house after the Tulane-LSU game. Among other social activities, lunches at the house were enjoyed by everyone. In the spring, the Founders' Day Banquet was held, as well as the Rose Formal on April 4th at the New Orleans Country Club. Beta Upsilon chapter of Delta Zeta, as winners of the Scholarship Award given by the five chapters of the sorority in Louisiana, especially enjoyed State Day, at which time the five chapters in the state meet.

Founded at DePauw University, Alpha Phi chapter of Kappa Alpha Theta was installed at Newcomb College in 1914.

Kappa Alpha Theta had a busy year of participation in many campus activities such as Homecoming decorations, Songfest, Pan-Hellenic sports, and Campus Carnival. In addition, the sorority members volunteered their time twice a week to work with underprivileged children at Kingsley House.

A house-party in Pass Christian for the pledges started off the year socially for the sorority, and everyone enjoyed the party the pledges gave the actives later on in the fall. Lunches at the house and dessert parties for the fraternities filled the calendar, and a Christmas party given for the entire chapter by the Mothers' Club climaxed the social events for the first semester.

The highlight of Kappa Alpha Theta's many activities in the spring was the formal on April 3rd in the Century Room where members and their dates danced to the music of Tommy Ridgeley.

The sorority has been represented outstandingly in all phases of campus life. Among Kappa Alpha Theta's
"V.I.P.s" are Liz Holloway, Ann Vega, and Ilene Scale, who

KAPPA

Kappa Kappa Gamma was founded at Monmouth College, established on Newcomb's campus in 1904, and has taken an active part in all campus activities ever since.

The Kappas took fourth place in Songfest this year, and in Pan-Hellenic sports placed third in Volleyball and fourth in Badminton. The winner of the 1958 Pan-Hellenic Trophy, they participated in Campus Carnival, Pep Rally, decorations for Homecoming, and other campus activities.

One of the outstanding features of the Kappa’s social year was the dinner held at the house for members and their dates before the Alabama-Tulane game. The pledges were honored at a picnic in Audubon Park in October, as well as at a ban-

Kappas won many honors on the campus this year. Barbara Hammond and Emily Andry were elected to the Homecoming Court; Harriet Stone was selected for the Jambalaya and Freshman-Sophomore Beauty Courts; and Saidee Watson reigned as Commerce Queen. Kappa was represented in many offices of campus organizations and Student Government by Lady Helen Hardy, Melinda McGarry, Diane Christensen, Meade Fowlkes, and Saidee Watson.

Pi Beta Phi, founded at Monmouth College, was installed at Newcomb College in 1891. Pi Phis have actively participated in campus activities this year, both individually and as a group.

After a fun-and-work packed house-party at Holiday Inn in Gulfport, Rush Week culminated with pledging, a swimming party for the pledges, and the traditional pledge banquet held this year at Delmonicos. Pi Phi entered the Songfest tryouts and House and Pep Rally decorations for the Homecoming game. In the field of Pan-Hellenic sports, they won first place in Volleyball and third in both Badminton and Pingpong.

A busy year socially, the Pi Phis have had a Mother-Daughter Tea, a Surprise Breakfast for the pledges, and... other informal get-togethers. The pledges were host to the pledges of other fraternities and sororities at a Hawaiian Party. Pi Phis and their dates enjoyed a champagne party and dancing to the music of “Papa” Celestin’s Band at their formal on March 13.

The Pi Phis are proud of the campus honors won by their members this year. Pat Cousins and Emily McFarland represented Pi Phi in Who’s Who, and Emily was also both Vice-President of the Newcomb Student body and Co-Chairman of Orientation. Judy O’Brien has served on Newcomb House Council and Tulane Student Council. Judy Becker, Elise Hopkins, and Helen Scibienski served as ROTC Sponsors. Pat Van Scoy was elected Homecoming Queen and to the JAMEALAYA Beauty Court, and Judy Shaw a maid in the Freshman-Sophomore Football Court.

The Tulane Pan-Hellenic Council, composed of two representatives from each social fraternity, is responsible for governing interfraternity affairs. After co-ordinating Rush Week, the Council held its annual Pledge Banquet. Throughout the remainder of the year the fraternities participated in Pan-Hellenic competition including such events as scholarship, football, basketball, softball, songfest, volleyball, track, swimming, Homecoming decorations, bridge, tennis, ping-pong, golf, handball, and bowling.

The highlight of the fraternity year was "Greek Week," beginning with Community Help Day, pledge and officer discussion groups, the Greek Week Banquet, Convocation, and climaxd by the Pan-Hellenic Formal and fraternity initiations.
Alpha Epsilon Pi was founded at New York University, and the Tau Upsilon chapter appeared on the Tulane campus in 1951.

AEPi began a very successful year by winning the Philip Morris-Marlboro contest. Out of all the participating organizations on campus, Tau Upsilon was the one that added the beautiful hi-fi console to its downstair's facilities as the reward for the first place position. This prize has provided the brothers with much enjoyment.

Socially, the fraternity reached a new high in the achievement of outstanding parties. The Beat Generation blast is still remembered, and the party which the pledges gave proved to be a similar hit. The Shipwreck Party would be difficult to surpass, while the annual Sweetheart Formal is one social function that will always remain among the most cherished memories of the chapter’s members.

Alpha Epsilon Pi is well represented in the various campus activities. The fraternity participates wholeheartedly in the Pan-Hellenic tournaments, and a number of the brothers belong to many campus organizations. The Editor and Assistant Editor of the Pre-Med Journal are AEPis, as are the President and Vice-President of the Pre-Med Society. A few of the organizations which contain AE Pi members are the Hallabaloos, Greenbackers, Pi Lambda Beta, Phi Beta Kappa, ROTC, APO, and Campus Nite.

Founded at Virginia Military Institute. Alpha Tau Omega originated at Tulane in 1887.

The pledging of twenty-six men after a tremendous Rush Week began an active year for the fraternity. ATO was active in all phases of Pan-Hellenic competition, taking a first place in the golf tournament and winning points for their Homecoming display. An exciting event of the year was the appearance of Al Prieto on the national television program "College Bowl" as a member of Tulane's team. Members are also proud of Mrs. Emily Knight, dean of Tulane's housemothers, who completed her seventeenth year in that capacity for ATO.

The social calendar was as full as usual. The Viking Party given by the pledges was followed by the Christmas Party. with its traditional poem, the Easter house party in Florida, and the final blast of the year, the Beachcomber Brawl. Outstanding was the annual Sweetheart Formal given this year at the Century Room with Papa Celestin providing the music. The Mardi Gras holiday and the ride to Bourbon Street in eight banana wagons will linger long in the memories of the fraternity.

ATO had its share of outstanding men on campus and members in many honorary and elective organizations. Bill Andrews was Vice-President of the Business School and elected to the Jambalaya Hall of Fame. Al Prieto served as President of Arts and Sciences, President of Alpha Epsilon Delta, and Representative to the Student Council. Business Manager of the Student Directory was Al Keller. Wayne Barcelo and Dave Lawrence won varsity letters in golf.
Beta Theta Pi, founded at Miami University of Ohio, came to Tulane with Beta Xi chapter in 1903.

The year 1958-59 proved to be a successful one for the Betas. Scholarship was markedly improved. As in past years, Beta was quite active in Pan-Hellenic events and captured second place in football with an outstanding team. The house took on a brighter appearance after receiving a complete interior redecoration and the completion of a new bar on the patio added the finishing touches to the patio which was completed two years ago.

Social activities, a function in which the Betas have always excelled, were not lacking this year. The repercussion of "Beta Brawls" could be heard from the corner of Audubon.
and Zimple almost every Saturday night. The Beta Jungle Party and the Coon-Dog Party were great successes as was the traditional Blue and White Formal. A banquet held at the New Orleans Country Club, celebrating the fiftieth anniversary of the founding of the chapter at Tulane, brought alumni from far and near.

Beta Theta Pi had brothers as members of most campus organizations. The fraternity was especially proud of Charles Seemann who was outstanding on the national television program "College Bowl." Seemann also served as Sec.-Treas. of the Pan-Hellenic Council. Tom Cramer was Vice-Speaker of Glendy Burke. Other Betas held class and college offices and served on the various Honor Boards.

Delta Kappa Epsilon was founded at Yale and was established at Tulane in 1899.

Throughout the years, the Tau Lambda Dekes have been most active in campus affairs, and this year proved no exception. The chapter had an excellent record in Pan-Hellenic events, pacing third in football and bridge and second in volleyball. An outstanding pledge class was another indication of this year's success.

As usual, the Dekes enjoyed their famous parties. The Kickapoo and Toga Parties will be long remembered, as will the annual Debutramp Party. The Ivy League Week-End Parties also added to a full social schedule, along with the Formal.

Many of the members held offices of responsibility during the year. J. V. Burkes served as President of Engineering and Honor Board President of that college. He was also elected to the Jambalaya Hall of Fame and to Who’s Who. Si Brown was President of Adelphans, Howard Gleason was a member of the Pan-Hel Judiciary Committee, Rep, to the Student Council, and was elected to Who’s Who. Other Dekes served in class offices, as members of Honor Boards, and several as ROTC officers.

"—and then there was the rushiee who asked us who was Comus—"

Relief is just  a swallow away
The College of the City of New York saw the founding of Delta Sigma Phi which came to Tulane in 1916 when Chi chapter was originated.

The watchword of Delta Sigma Phi is “Engineered Leadership” and the fraternity is leading out. The National Interfraternity Conference calls Delta Sig the fastest growing fraternity in the country, and the Bond of Sphinx is moving forward—in leadership, in scholarship, and in size.

Delta Sigs are known for the good times that take place in the big white house on Audubon Street. From the Sailor's Ball right after Rush Week to the Carnation Ball in February where the Dream Queen is serenaded to the Bayou Brawl, the big blast of the year, the Delta Sigs proved that they knew how to throw a good party.

Chi chapter is proud of its members active in campus organizations. Included are Greenbackers Dewey Godwin and John Kelly; Tuskers Ken Mills, Leon Titche, Chick Macagnoni, and Garry Eddins; Vincent Stewart was Treasurer of Campus Nite and on the Carnival staff. Other members were represented in such groups as the Pre-Med Society and the Concert Choir.
Founded at Bethany College in Virginia, Beta Xi chapter of Delta Tau Delta came to Tulane’s campus in 1889. The Delts began their year with the pledging of twenty-six men. These pledges later did much to beautify the new house on Broadway, including the construction of a new patio which is certain to be the setting for many successful parties. The new housemother, Mrs. Jesse Compton, has added much to the day-to-day life of the fraternity. Her years of experience as housemother at SMU qualify her highly for this position. A high point during the first semester for the Delts was taking first place in the Pan-Hellenic Homecoming Decorations Contest with an intricate and amusing display.

Finally settled in the new shelter, the members of Delta TAU DELTA Tau Delta had a very enjoyable and successful year socially. Champagne parties for several of the sororities began the year, and these were followed by many Saturday-Night-at-the-Shelter Parties. At Christmas, the chapter entertained orphans with a Christmas Party complete with Santa Claus. The social scene was culminated by the regal presentation of the Delt Queen and Court at the annual Rainbow Ball held at the Century Room.

Beta Xi chapter has placed many of its brothers in campus organizations. These include the Pre-Med Society, Greenbackers, Tusk, and the Glee Club to name a few. This year, John Rossini served as Vice-President of Freshman Class of Engineering.

Doesn't anyone have a key?

No, I haven't seen Joe since the day we poured the cement.
Kappa Alpha Order was founded at Washington and Lee and came to Tulane in 1885.

This year as always the KA's upheld the principles of Southern tradition upon which their fraternity was founded. It is hoped that the eighteen pledges obtained during Rush Week will follow in the tradition of General Robert E. Lee, who is considered the ideal gentleman and is placed in high admiration by each individual member of KA.

The Kappa Alphas have made constant use of the Mint Julep in celebrating their numerous parties, the most outstanding being the fabulous Old South Ball. Second to the Old South Ball was the unforgettable Bushman’s Ball which has become quite famous on Psi’s social calendar. Also memorable was the Cotton Brawl and the Cowboy Party.

Kappa Alpha participates actively in Pan-Hellenic competition and has members in most Tulane organizations. President of the Freshman Class of Business was Dick Langenbahm, Mike Burvant was in Tusk, and Kappa Alpha was represented in Adelphons by Harry Pond, Bill Renaudin, and Jack White.

Sigma chapter has always taken an active part in the campus scene. Kappa Sigs served as Presidents of Lagniappes, Circle K, and APO. Members were also active in Tusk, Greenbackers, and served as class officers and on Honor Boards. Anthony, Bell, and Preaus were tapped for ODK and Anthony was elected to Who's Who, Clyde Buzzard was Speaker of Glendy Burke and columnist for the Hallabaloo. Serving under Editor Jerry Anthony were JAMALAYA staffers John Combe, Fred Preaus, and Neal Mangold. The scholastic side was represented by brothers in Phi Eta Sigma and Phi Beta Kappa.

Phi

Founded at the Miami University of Ohio, Tulane’s chapter of Phi Delta Theta appeared in 1939. The wearers of the Sword and Shield were prominent in all phases of campus endeavor and Pan-Hellenic competition during the past year. One of the more ambitious projects which concerned the whole fraternity was the remodeling of living facilities in the house. Phi Delts were especially proud of the fine job that Dave Adams did as Editor of the Hullabaloo.

Starting with a full week of blasts for Rush Week, the social season was a full one for the Phi Delts this year. The first semester saw such parties as the rollicking Barn Dance at Johnson's Farm and the traditional Christmas Party, complete with Santa Claus, at which many dates received some illustrious gifts. Highlighting the spring semester were the Playboy Formal at the Monteleone Hotel and the annual South Sea Island Party.

Among Phi Delta Theta's outstanding men on campus are Hunter Herron who is a member of Tau Beta Pi, ODK, Who's Who, and Sec. of Scabbard and Blade; Evarts English who was elected to the Jambalaya Hall of Fame and Who's Who; and Don Lockwood, football letterman.

Phi Kappa Sigma was founded at the University of Pennsylvania and became the first fraternity on the Tulane campus in 1858.

Phi Kap began its second hundred years at Tulane with increased participation in all phases of campus life. The fraternity took part in all Pan-Hel competitions and placed fourth in Songfest. The chapter took part in community projects by sending a group to Southeastern Louisiana Hospital in Mandeville to spend an afternoon's recreation period with the patients.

Many parties such as the Christmas Party, sorority parties, football game parties, along with the annual Bowery Brawl made this a year of social success. Also remembered were the Voodoo Party, the Cowboy Party, and the pledge-active tug of war in Audubon Park. Climaxing the first semester was Homecoming weekend. A gala Centennial Banquet was held in conjunction with the alumni at the New Orleans Country Club.

Phi Kaps are outstanding in many campus organizations. Bob Oddone served as a class officer and Treasurer of Tusk. Grulee Herron is active in Army ROTC. Other well known and active brothers are John Hunley, President of the Marketing Club, Bob Taylor, President of Phi Eta Sigma, and Alan Guma, Clyde Waddell, and Andy Edmonson.

PI

Founded at the University of Virginia, Pi Kappa Alpha began at Tulane in 1876.

A very successful Rush Week resulted in twenty new pledges for Pi Kappa Alpha. However, pledging was only the beginning of a very original social year. Eta chapter enjoyed such parties as the Night in Olde London Town Party, at which even the band was costumed in Elizabethan fashion, Cabinate of Dr. Caligari Masque, Birthday of Henry Dickson Bruns Party, and the now famous Fais Do Do. The Dream Girl Formal and the presentation of the Pike Dream Girl was the highlight of the social season.
Pi Kappa Alpha was very active in all phases of Pan-Hellenic competition on Tulane's campus this year. By participating in these interfraternity events a stronger bond of brotherhood was inculcated between the actives and the pledges of Pi KA.

Many of the Pi Kappa Alpha brothers have contributed to Tulane in various campus activities and organizations. Among those whose names may be seen on various rolls are: Jerry Cassel, Eddie Spoto, Jim Rich and Mike Guin who are representative of Greenbackers and Task. Other Pike brothers have been active on the Men's Dormitory Council, the Hullabaloo, Student Directory and the Tulane Glee Clubs.
Sigma Alpha Epsilon was founded at the University of Alabama and established at Tulane in 1897.

This year began for SAE with the presentation of their fifth straight Pan-Hellenic trophy for the highest number of points in interfraternity competition. With this record in mind, the fraternity worked hard and took first place in football and Songfest, and placed in several other Pan-Hel contests. The twenty-six pledges obtained at the end of a roaring Rush Week got little rest during the first semester from their endless task of cleaning the lions.

Socially, the fraternity started off with a gala reception for the Newcomb sorority pledges and then followed up with such memorable parties as the Suppressed Desire, the Pajama Party on Lake Pontchartrain given by the pledges, and the hayride to Pearl River. The annual Christmas Party for orphans was followed by an egg nog party for the members and their dates. The festive winter and spring formals, the Founders Banquet, and impromptu gatherings on Friday nights made this a well remembered party year.

SAE leadership was present in many phases of campus activity. Tom McCoy served as President of the Student Body and NROTC Battalion Commander, Nelson Becker, Bill Kennedy, and Tommy Smith were Cheerleaders. Boo Mason was captain of the football team, and Dave Drez, Page Williamson, and Fred Sexton were outstanding in campus affairs. Bill Akins and Tommy Smith were tapped for ODK.

Sigma Alpha Mu was founded at City College of New York and joined the Tulane fraternity system in 1920 with Sigma Gamma chapter.

The Sammies were especially active in Pan-Hellenic competition this year. The fraternity took first place in bridge and bowling, second place in ping-pong, placed in Songfest, and performed outstandingly in the other contests. The fraternity housemother, Mrs. Anne Allen, did much to contribute to the cheerful atmosphere in the modern air-conditioned and soundproofed house over which she presided. Chapter members were also proud of the thirty-three men they pledged at the end of Rush Week.

The social side of fraternity life was filled with many well-planned blasts, highlighted by the Orchard Formal at the Roosevelt Hotel. At Christmas, the pledges gave their annual party for underprivileged children. Other noteworthy social events included the Champagne Party for sorority pledges, the annual party during Mardi Gras season for the pledges of all fraternities on campus, and regular Saturday night parties.

Sammy had many leaders on campus during the past year. Morris Marx, Jerry Horowitz, Steve Shamberg, Alan Rosenfeld, and Ricky Wittner were but a few of the members who held important positions in numerous Tulane organizations.

Sigma Chi was founded at Miami University of Ohio, and the Alpha Omicron chapter came to Tulane in 1866.

The fraternity started the year off right by being awarded the Pan-Hellenic Trophy for Scholastic Improvement. Following this honor, the chapter was recognized in Newsweek magazine in an article on scholarship and fraternities. Sigma Chi participated actively in all phases of Pan-Hel competition, and won first place for spirit at the LSU Pep Rally with their Safari.

The social year was one of the best the chapter had seen, including cocktail parties for sororities on Sunday afternoons and Saturday night blasts such as the Cowboy Party and the Playboy Party. The Spring semester was highlighted by three annual Sigma Chi events: the Roman Toga Party; Sigma Chi Derby Day, held in conjunction with Parent's Day, in which Newcomb sororities competed for a trophy and Pan-Hel points; and the Sweetheart Formal at which the Sweetheart of Sigma Chi was crowned.

The Sigma Chis displayed a great deal of spirit at the football games this year, due to the brothers playing for the Greenies. These included Co-Captain Jim Blount, Pete Abadie, Bill Clements, Paul Hawley, Tom McClellan, Pat McLean, and Bill Osteen. Other brothers were prominent in campus spirit and service organizations. Jim Blount was Vice-President of University College.

Zeta Beta Tau was founded at the Jewish Theological Seminary, and Sigma chapter has enjoyed a prominent position at Tulane since its founding in 1909.

1959 marked the Fiftieth Anniversary for Sigma chapter at Tulane. ZBT was the first fraternity ever to retire the Pan-Hellenic Trophy, and this year they placed in several of the interfraternity contests, including football, volleyball, and bowling. The active members are very proud of the new patio constructed by the pledges as a project. As usual, the fraternity carried on several philanthropic projects.

Never losing sight of the fact that they are a social fraternity, the Zebes gave parties that attracted campus-wide renown. Starting with varied and successful Rush Week parties, they moved on to such headliners as the Roman Orgy Party, the Playboy Party, the Animal Party, and the ZEKE Party. Climaxing this great social year was the Fiftieth Anniversary Spring Formal at the Jung Hotel.

Members held many prominent positions on campus through both elections and honoraries. Jack Schuster served as Vice-President of the Student Body and Chairman of the Pan-Hellenic Council; Norman Glosserman and Micky Hurst were President of ODK and Tusk respectively. Sidney Rothschild and Joel Jacobson were Business Manager and Associate Editor of the Jambalaya. In addition, Z3T saw members in the Jambalaya Hall of Fame, the varsity golf team, and the varsity tennis team, as well as class, Honor Board, and organization officers.

The Tau Epsilon Colony of Tau Epsilon Phi was established at Tulane in 1956.

Upon recognition, the boys set to work in earnest, organizing, framing a constitution, and enlarging the membership. Under the able leadership of Mark Haiken, Tau Ep's first chancellor, and with the great help of the Tau Epsilon Phi alumni in New Orleans, the group became a closely knit organization and has prospered during the last two years.

The fraternity has lived up to its Creed through the participation of members in many campus activities. The social season included a Christmas party for orphans, Tau Epsilon's anniversary party, and the second annual Sweetheart Formal at which their sweetheart was presented.

Tau Epsilon has moved into its new home on Freret Street and is looking forward to being chartered as Epsilon Kappa.

Phi Chi Medical Fraternity was founded at the University of Vermont in 1859. Omicron was founded at the Tulane School of Medicine in 1902, being the sixth chapter chartered by the national fraternity. The present chapter house is located on famous St. Charles Avenue and contains the C. Jeff Miller Library of which the chapter is very proud.

Members of Phi Chi are active in the field of social government. These include officers of the medical student body; Clay Williams, President; Ed Shaver, Vice-President; Sam Crawford, President of the Sophomore class; and Stand Haley, President of the Freshman class. Phi Chi is represented in the Owl Club by President Dewey Lane, and members William Stallworth, and Luther Fisher.

During the year Phi Chi has many functions, some of which are the monthly dances at the fraternity house, the formal Christmas Dance, the Spring Formal, and the famous South Sea Island Party at which everyone lets down his hair and goes “native.” These and many other social functions of the fraternity provide a much needed outlet in the midst of the crowded medical curriculum, while lending at the same time a sense of unity and brotherhood.

OUR FRIENDS IN BUSINESS AND INDUSTRY . . .

The opening page of this section represents a basic idea necessary to the success of this yearbook. Although you may not realize this fact, New Orleans business and business all over the nation support Tulane University and thus the JAMALAYA.

The financial support that Tulane receives is represented in many aspects of this yearbook. Perhaps most apparent is the direct support that our advertisers give to make this book a reality.

As students we can show appreciation in an equally direct manner—we can PATRONIZE THESE ADVERTISERS! In helping to provide you with a permanent record of your college life during 1958-59 these advertisers have shown their friendship, now let's do our part to continue this relationship.

Pan-American Life Can Make the Difference...

Are you prepared to meet the high cost of a college education for your children? A Pan-American educational plan is the sure way to guarantee them the advantages of college.

College-trained men and women can look forward to nearly $103,000 more lifetime income than their contemporaries who did not attend college. Thoughtful parents realize, too, that the costs of a college education are rising each year—up 70% over 10 years ago.

If you want to make certain your children will have the finer things in life, a Pan-American Life Insurance Company educational plan can make the difference.

GERMAINE CAZENAVE WELLS
Owner of Arnaud's Restaurant, daughter of the late Count Arnaud, founder of the restaurant that bears his name, as well as creator of many famous Creole and French dishes famed throughout the world.

Few are the people who set foot on the sidewalk of New Orleans who do not seek to learn the location of Arnaud's and forthwith journey there to enjoy this famous cuisine. After partaking of a notable meal, guests frequently ask the derivation of a particular dish: "Is it French?" "Is it Spanish?" The answer is that it is a combination of the wizardry of the French with the art of Spanish to make Arnaud's masterpieces.

building for the future

Every year our colleges and universities turn out a large number of potential leaders in the form of graduates. Since 1834, Tulane University has continued to grow from a humble beginning to its present dominant position among Southern Universities.

Tulane is building for the future, not only in terms of its physical expansion, but also through its graduates. These young men and women have assumed the responsibility of building for the future of our state and our country. It is through these efforts that the solid framework of success has been established.

A Memorable Year

- Congratulations to the Student Body and Faculty of Tulane University for completion of another outstanding year.

- The Staff of your annual has worked exceedingly hard to give you a superb book and one which portrays the highlights of memorable activities.

- Neither time, effort nor expense have been spared to provide you with a permanent record, attractively presented and complete in every detail.

- To preserve the photography and literary efforts of the Staff, the best grades of material have been combined with skilled workmanship to provide the finest quality yearbook.

- We are proud that the 1959 Staff elected us to help design, print and bind the JAMBALAYA. We have earnestly endeavored to fulfill the confidence placed in us.
